The People
vs.

George Williams
in the second degree.

Court of General Session; Part I
Before Judge Martine. April 12. 1894 Indictment for grand larceny

John J. McGinty, sworn and examined testified. I am an officer of the Central Park police for five months. I was on duty on the 24th of March last. I was at the messenger building at four o'clock in the afternoon. I saw the defendant going into the building at that hour. I saw a woman on the stair case as he was going up. I saw him come along the walk, he was looking at me and looking at the woman, and after going up he put his hand into her pocket and took out the pocket book; he put his left hand into her pocket and took the pocket book out and put it in his right hand and put the pocket book in his hip pocket. Then the defendant turned around to go down stairs & go out, and as soon as he did I arrested him. I brought him to the station house and arrested him there. I found on him the pocket book which I now produce; it contained seventeen dollars and six cents. I was about fourteen feet from the unknown woman and the defendant before he committed the theft. There was a great crowd coming up but they were on the other side and there was nobody between me and him. I said to him, "Keep your hand out of your pocket." He did not say anything. I says, "Have you got any 'leathers' (meaning pocketbooks). He said, "Yes, that is one in my 'kick' (meaning ^{the hind} pocket). I had to take him two blocks to the station house. When we got to the station house, he said he picked up the pocketbook I brought him over to Court but had no conversation with him except he asked me what kind of a man the Captain was. I says, "he is a good old fellow." He says, "I hope he won't send down for a recommendation to where I was working. The defendant had some small change in his pocket and two ^{per} knives. Cross examined the 24th of March was Sunday. There was a large crowd going in and out of the new apri, the place was thoroughly packed, but they were on the other side of the defendant; there was no one but me behind me. He did not tell me that he found the pocketbook until I got him to the station house. He told me he worked in the Telegraph Co. I took the defendant and another young fellow. I had my hands full. I thought the boy was a 'pal' of his, and I took the two of them in the station house, the other boy was discharged in the station house. There was a crowd of people came up the stairs; there are steps both ways; he was going up on the right hand side. I was standing at the foot of the stairs when I saw him; when he came down I took hold of him and took him to the station house; he came down the same stairs that he went up. This was in the monkey house. When I saw this committed there was nobody between me and the woman. There was two small boys going up behind this woman and they got in his way and he pulled them out, shoved them one side before he did it. The defendant did not enter the main ^{door} building, but the storm door. How much time elapsed from the time you saw the pocketbook taken from this woman till you took the defendant in custody? Just a few seconds. I saw him put his left hand in the woman's pocket and take it from her right side pocket and I saw him transfer it to his right hand. There was nothing in the way to prevent me seeing everything. He was standing alongside of her when he took it. The defendant took the pocketbook from the dress pocket of the lady; it was not her satchel pocket.

George Williams, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified I am between 18 and 19 years old. I have been working in this city between five and six years in the Manhattan and Mutual District Telegraph Cos. I knocked off in December because I was not able to work for I had a private disease and have been sick ever since. I have never been arrested before. I thought I would take a walk in the Park this Sunday as it was a fine day. I thought I would go in this monkey house, and as I got on the top step I stepped on something. I stooped down and picked up this purse and held it in my hand and looked at it and turned around to go out with the purse in my hand. Then I got between the top of the stairs and the bottom. I did not think it was any harm. The officer arrested me at the foot of the stairs and brought me to the station house. The officer said there, "Did you have any leather?" I asked him what he meant. He said, "Have you got anything in your kick?" I said to the sergeant, "I have got a purse that I found," and I gave it to him. There was a little boy arrested

The People v. Fannie Wilson { Court of General Sessions. Part I
Indictment for assault in the second degree.

Mary Gilford, sworn and examined, testified: I live at 220 Sullivan St. in this city and was living there on April 15th; on that night I met Fannie in front of 220 Sullivan St. at ten o'clock in the night. I knew her before. She lives on the third floor of the house and she was angry when I moved in the basement. She had been sitting out there on that stoop with this knife threatening what she would do, and when I passed by she jumped up and said, "you are the one I am looking for," and cut at me with the knife. I threw up my hand to defend myself; she stabbed at me with the knife; she cut me across the finger; these are the marks; it was a pocket knife. I saw the knife at the time in her hand and I saw it afterward when a gentleman gave it to me in the street. I tried to keep her from cutting me in the face and I put up my hand and then received the cut in the finger; she cut me in four or five places, but I do not know how many thrusts she made at me; she cut me four or five times on the hand. I sent a girl for a policeman, and while the girl was gone for the officer, she (the defendant) stood up on the stoop and cut herself. She says, "I will say you done it, I am going to send you away to prison on my own cutting." She has got a scar on the wrist now. When I came down stairs with the officer to have her locked up a gentleman handed me the Knife. She says, "you cut me and I am going to send you away on my own cutting." she halloed that out of the third story window. I stood waiting for the officer; she ran up stairs and then called this out. I did not run after her, but waited till the officer came. I told her that there was a good many saw her cutting me and she would not do anything like that to me. I did not cut her. I did not have a Knife in my hand. I had no quarrel with the defendant, only she was jealous of us living in the basement. I had no talk with her on the subject; she used to talk on the outside to everybody. Other people would come and tell us this night she took her seat upon the stoop at seven o'clock and was conversing with those that came in and out. She had no quarrel with me of any sort. About a week after I lived in the house

POOR QUALITY

I met her at an entertainment; she was talking about living in the basement. You may say it was pleasant. I never talked with her afterwards until the night of the cutting. She was mad because we were ~~doing~~ the business in the basement. She claims that we were stealing trade down in the basement. The janitress lives right over us, and she never seen anything out of the way; she claimed that the people annoyed her in the third floor front room she used to be all the time at the landlady about it. I was not present. I used to stay in the basement and I saw her sitting on the stoop and heard her say that we would not stop there. Cross Examined. The street was full when I was cut; a girl named Mattie Lee was there, I board with her; she is not here today; she had no occasion to come down here; but she was present and saw me cut. If it is necessary she can come here. I am a prostitute. I do not "pull the badges." (meaning getting men into the house and robbing them.) I was one of the inmates of the house No 87 West Third Street where it was raided; it was not a "badger house"; the house was raided because it was a house of prostitution. The officer arrested ^{her}.

and when he was going out of the door the man (a white man) handed the Knife to the officer. The defendant halloed, "None of you bitches need not hand the officer any knife and say that I cut you with it because I am too sharp; for the Knife I cut you with is ^{up} stairs. It was not Mattie Lee who handed the Knife to the officer. I did not pay the officer anything to take her out of the room; nor did Mattie Lee. I went to the station house and the defendant was blackguarding me all the way. The next morning she said she was sorry she did not cut me in the face instead of the hand.

Lottie Creamer testified that she was in Sullivan street on the night in question and saw the defendant and complainant; that she was coming from the drug store and saw the complainant come out of the basement and that the defendant jumped at Mary Clifford, that she saw Mary's hand bleeding and then saw the defendant cut herself. I saw the Knife in her hand and when she cut herself she said to Mary, "I am going to send you away for this. I saw the officer afterwards bring her down on the sidewalk. Appearance -

In the People -
a Defense - Mr. J. J. Conner

Wm. A. Wood, being duly sworn testified as follows.

Cross-Examination - by - Mr. J. J. Conner.

I am a printer, 24 years old. I worked at it a little over three years ago and since then I have not done much. I never gambled for a living only in the hopes of winning off and on nearly two years, very heavily every day and while I was gambling every day I was in no other business.

I visited almost every gambling house on 6th Avenue and the last time I gamble I was on or about the 5th of February 1889. I am not personally acquainted with "Kid" Miller nor do I associate with him. I never earned any money dishonestly. The last time I earned any money was $10.00 at a skating match in Brooklyn - last month and a half and in before that skating when I had a date. In the last year I have earned enough to keep my family - which consists of my wife, child and myself. I live at 246 East 49th St. I never was and am not now an Employee of A. Comstock's Society. I do this voluntarily in order to stop gambling.
It cost me nearly $1200 and it was the only thing I could do to keep away to be an informer on them. I am not what ~~is~~ known as a squealer and I never made a demand for any of this money I lost. What I won at gambling was merely a temporary loan. I have won minor sums. I never won any money at gambling. Pandemon wouldn't let me in the place when I went around first. There was a party with me and I did not know him at the time and I never saw him since then. I have received no pay from the Society for my services and I don't expect any. It is purely a matter of good morals and justice with me. I bought chips there myself on the 30th of January from Wilson $1.85 worth and I played red and black and lost. I didn't play to win I put the money on outside cars. I did not buy chips from any body else. I saw Joe or Brown sell chips to a colored man. I saw Brad sell policy and he refused to sell me policy - he said he would only sell to regular customers and I was who are regular customers and so I was up stairs. I played policy

✓ About a month ago. I played Devin and not to get evidence. Anderson was on the door when I was there.
He eyed every body that came there and if they were suspicious looking he wouldn't let them in.
He looked at them very sharp and at me also. He did not say anything.

By The Court

Anderson simply sat there on a chair at the door and he said he couldn't let the other man in and I said it was all right, that he was with me and he said he would not that he didn't know him. I spoke to him. He spoke to me first and I started to open the door and he got up in front of me. He knew me and he would not let the other man in. I saw he was a friend of mine but it was no use.

He went down the street to another gambling house to play, and he said he would go to Sexton's. I went back and I went to the counter and bought a package of cigarettes and I gamble and lost $1.00 Anderson was at the door and allowed me to pass them. I have known Anderson about four months as a door tender at 102 West 32nd Street.

By all means

✓ I saw him refuse to let people in there unless he knew them. He door leads upstairs from the cigar store. He is actually in ✓ the cigar store. I saw Brady sell policy to this man who gave his name as Brooks, the photographer.
I know it was policy, it was the regular form. I didn't handle it. I saw him record it in his manifest.
I have played policy about twenty five times. I don't consider myself An expert in policy. It was called the envelope game. I have one at home and lost a lot. I played it once. This man won five cents for it and then won he won five dollars. Now the drawing on the black board. I don't know whether the numbers he bought were on the black board because he played that again. I have been going there a little over a year

Anthony Bonaiuto
of 150 Nassau Street, New York City, being duly sworn deposes and says, he is more than 21 years of age, and is employed as chief agent of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, that he has just cause to believe, is informed and verily does believe, that George Pryor, Joseph Saunders, Thomas Bz. Lehrs, Doc. John Small, James Short and George Doc. whose real names are unknown, but who can be identified by W. A. Wood did, at the city of        County of        and State of New York, on or about the 30th day of January 1889, unlawfully use a room, table, establishment or apparatus for gambling purposes—and did engage as a dealer or game-keeper in a gambling or banking game, where money or property was dependent upon the result—and did sell, or offer to sell what is commonly called a "lottery policy," and a certain writing, paper, or insurance, upon the drawing or drawn numbers of a certain lottery, hereto annexed, and did indorse and use a book or other document for the purpose of enabling others to sell or offer to sell lottery policies, writings, papers or documents in the nature of a bet, wager or insurance, upon the drawing or drawn numbers of a lottery, against the form of the statute of the State of New York in such case made and provided.

Deponent further says, he has just ~~come~~ <sup>and is positive</sup> to believe, is informed and verily does believe from personal observation and from statements made by W. A. Wood to deponent that the said George Pryor, Joseph Saunders, Thomas Bz. Lehrs, Doc. John Small and James Short <sup>George Doc.</sup> aforesaid, now have in their possession, at in and upon certain premises occupied by them and situate and known as numbers 102 & 104 West 32nd street in the city of New York and within the County and State aforesaid, for the purpose of using the same as a means to commit a being further sworn deposes and says that on the 30th day of January 1889.

deponent visited the said premises, named aforesaid, and there saw the said Joseph Saunders, Thomas Big, Chris Doc, John Small, & James Short <sup>and George Doc</sup> aforesaid, and had dealings and conversation with them <sup>in substance,</sup> as follows:

Deponent first entered the cigar store 102 West 32nd St, accompanied by another person, whose full name deponent does not know, and started to go into the door leading into the premises where gambling was carried on, when Joseph Saunders, who was attending the door, refused to allow deponent to pass with this party, and the said deponent said to the said Saunders, "He is all right". Said Saunders said, "I cant help it, I have got orders not to let any strangers in." and he refused to allow deponent and this party to pass.

The said party said to Saunders, "Why, I am all right. I was playing down below." Said Saunders said, "I cant help it, I cannot allow any strangers in" and would not open the door. Deponent then went away and afterwards returned alone, when said Saunders allowed deponent to enter the said premises. Upon going in the premises, which deponent had frequently visited before, he found James Short behind a counter writing policy, and saw him write what are commonly called, lottery policies, and sold as what is known as the envelope game. The said Short was selling to other parties present, but refused to sell to deponent saying to deponent that "We only sell to our regular customers." Deponent said, "I am a regular customer." Said Short said, "You may be up stairs, but you are not down here." Deponent saw the said Short record the said lottery policies upon a manifold book or paper, kept and used by the said Short for the said purposes.

Deponent then went up stairs to the room above where Thomas Big, aforesaid, was dealing a gambling game, commonly called roulette, where money was dependant upon the result. George Doc was dealing the gambling game of red and black and Charles Doc was aiding and abetting the same, as lookout in the lookouts chair. John Small was dealing the gambling game of faro. Deponent says further that he has frequently been in said place, and knows George Pryor, and on or about the 25th day of January, 1889, he saw the said George Pryor dealing faro in the said premises, and knows the said Pryor as the manager of said premises, and has frequently seen him superintending the place and dealing the gambling game of faro in the said premises.

Deponent further says from personal observation, having visited said premises at different times, and from dealings and conversations had with the said persons named aforesaid, he is informed, has just cause to believe, and is positive, that the said George Pryor, Thomas Big, George Doc, Chrys Doc, John Small, and James Short now have in their possession, at in and upon certain premises, kept by them, situate and known as 102 & 104 West 32nd St in the City of New York aforesaid, with intent to use the same as a means to commit a public offence, divers and sundry device, apparatus, tables, establishment and paraphernalia, layouts, chips, deal boxes, cards, lottery policies, writings, papers, books and documents for gambling purposes, in violation of the provisions of Section 344 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.
