The People
John M. Donald and Timothy Dailey
Court General Sessions Part I
Before Judge Lewis October 13. 1880.
Jointly indicted with Joseph Curran for grand larceny in the second degree.

Frank C. Drake sworn and examined.

I live 191 Park Place, Brooklyn. I am working with my father now. I was in New York on the 2nd of Sept. in front of the Staats Zeitung building. I think it was about one o'clock. I had an open faced gold watch which I valued at thirty five dollars and carried it in my vest pocket, and it was attached to a silk cord and there was a slip knot on the ring of the watch. The watch was taken from me at one o'clock in the day time. I was standing in a crowd in front of the Staats Zeitung building. I was watching a fire there on a truck - the truck was on fire. I had been there perhaps five minutes and I felt some one pull my sleeve. Mr. Strauss, a witness said something to me, that my watch was gone and he showed me the ring of the watch dangling down; they had twisted the watch off the ring. I saw my watch half an hour after that in the hands of M. Donald. I did not speak to him, I was following him. I saw him take it out of his side pocket and looked at it. There was another smaller boy with him; they looked as if they were sizing it up to see what it was worth and put it back in his pocket again. I did not take hold of him. I followed him down Mulberry St. intending to follow him till I saw a policeman and have him arrested. Conroy stepped into a hallway, and three or four doors down there was a stabbing affray or something and there was a policeman standing at the door. I told him ~~he got my~~ pocket picked and he said he would go up and arrest the ones that did it, and he started up to do this and just as he started to do this they came out of the hallway. Conroy and McDonald and started to go across the street. The policeman got Conroy but McDonald ran up the stairway with the watch. That was Thursday, Sunday morning when the witness and I were in the Tombs Police Court to make a charge against Daley who had been arrested in the mean time, we recognized among the prisoners McDonald who had been arrested on suspicion of burglary. I identified him as the one who took my watch. Cross Examined I have not recovered my watch; the watch I saw in McDonald's hand did not have a ring on it. I could not swear positively it was my watch. I saw it in his hand from 10 to 20 minutes after I lost my watch. I did not I had lost it till Mr. Strauss told me.

0009

0810

Isaac Strauss sworn. I live 292 East Fourth St. and remember seeing the complainant on the 2nd of Sept. in front of the Straetzling building about one or two o'clock. I saw four men among whom were the defendants. Curvey was there, but he cannot be found; two were in front of the complainant and two at his back. There was a load of straw burning, and as I stood looking at it suddenly I felt in my pocket and my pockets were picked of $5.50. The defendants were around me. I thought I would keep still. I looked sideways and the defendants squeezed the complainant. I saw Curvey take the watch out of the complainant's pocket and hand it to McDonald, who passed it to Dadey, and he passed it to another one. I was afterwards called to the station house to see if I could not identify any of them and that same evening I identified Dadey. As I was going to Court Sunday morning I saw McDonald and I said to Detective Chrytal, "There is the man that ran up stairs with the watch." Cross Examined there was a great crowd of people there. I never saw these men before. I could not positively swear that the prisoners were the men who robbed me. Curvey had not passed the watch to McDonald before I told the complainant of what had happened. They must have had ten or fifteen watches in their pockets, for

0011

They passed them one to the other. I never saw the complainant or the four men before, but I am positive I could identify the whole of them.

Timothy Dailey, sworn and examined for the defence testified: I live at 24 City Hall Place and have lived there eleven years. I am a tin smith and worked for Gunn & Co. Hubert St. I have never been arrested charged with any offence in my life before. I had nothing at all to do with this larceny. I was not in City Hall Square that day. I was in Jersey with Mr. Feeney; he is a truckman. He asked me to take a truck to Jersey for him. I was gone from 11 o'clock until one at night. Mr. Strauss is entirely mistaken when he says that McDonald handed me a watch which he had taken from Mr. Drake. I am not acquainted with McDonald and had not seen him before I was arrested.

Cross Examined: I was two blocks from the ferry on the Jersey side, I waited an hour and a half for Mr. Feeney; we got a load offeed and crossed the ferry with it to Brooklyn. I guess it must have been one o'clock in the day time when we got over there; we took the load down to a stable in Sheepshead bay near the race track; we looked at the races and stayed there seven hours. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree against McDonald in 11 disagreed about Dailey.

Mr. Thos J. Sullivan

Dear Sir

Regarding the matter of Herman Durie. I understand through a second party that the accused is not anxious to send him away & if Durie will write him a letter asking forgiveness that he will withdraw the charge.
Will you see the prisoner & have him do that. I have no doubt that he will let up on him.

Yours Resp
L. H. Horvath.
