PEOPLE, ON MY COMPLAINT,

versus

John J. Conner

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. And further because I am free in good health and not suffering in any way from the effects of the assault. The defendant has a family depending upon him for support and I ask, that he may therefore be discharged.

Dear Peter

By request of the Chief of Police of this city I write to tell you that I arrived here a little over a month ago with not money enough to last me for the short space of even a week and but for the kindness of friends I do not know what would become of me.
I have tried both in New Orleans & here to get work but so far without success.
I expect to get to work in a very short time and you can rest assured that a different disposition will be made of the proceeds than has been

0165

on former occasions, as far as you are concerned all will be right of that you can be perfectly satisfied or give my best respects to all the folks I mean yours, truly,

Sir
Your letter of 9. Nov. making inquiries as to a young man named Patrick McAlhane, and asking me to inform you if he was in this city, was duly received. He is here, and I had an interview with him, yesterday - He denies taking the money, but says he received a portion of it; - That he is not at work now, but will repay you, as soon as possible - I enclose a letter to you, from him. - As you wish me to do anything farther? Please answer, as I will have McAlhane watched, until I hear from you. - He has given me his promise not to leave town.

Yours truly,

Cornelius Collins
of the House of Detention Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 20th day of November 187*9* at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Patrick McDonald (now here) did designedly falsely and feloniously by color of certain false token or writing to wit - a check dated New York November 8th 1879 on the Second National Bank of said City payable to John Dail or bearer being for four hundred & seventy five dollars & purporting to be signed by Gordon & Galt - said check being hereto annexed obtained from deponent good & lawful money to the amount of United dollars the property of deponent with intent to cheat and defraud deponent.

That at the time aforesaid (Nov 20th) deponent was about to go on board a steamboat bound for Troy when he was accosted by said McDonald who desired deponent as he stated to aid him in shipping Horses and Saddles by the same boat and deponent went with him say ing or Eight blocks forward the place where he said they would get the Saddles. That before they got to the place a stranger came running out of breathe apparently and said to McDonald that "your stuff is all down to the Boat" whereupon McDonald said did my wife settle with you for that and the stranger replied no - McDonald then said I don't think that I have got money enough here to pay you and took out his pocket book & took therefrom this check, (Annexed) and after some conversation said McDonald asked me if I had any money and handed me this check he then saying that it was good for two hundred & seventy five dollars. That defendant believing such representations & that it was a good & genuine check gave there to the said McDonald the said sum of nineteen dollars, four with three five dollar bills, and three silver dollars which with the exception of about seventy five cents is all the money he has been able to save from his summer earnings. CITY AND COUNTY } OF NEW YORK, } ss.

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, in and for the body of the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, present:

That Patric McDonald - late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid on the Twentieth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one Cornelius Collins did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said Cornelius Collins that, a certain instrument and writing, to wit, an order for the payment of money, of the kind known as a Bank Check, which the said Patric McDonald then and there presented and delivered to the said Cornelius Collins and which said Bank Check is in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

No 407 New York November 8th 1879 Second National Bank.
Pay to — John Bailey — or Bearer Four hundred & Seventy five dollars $ 475⁰⁰ / 100 Goodwin & Galt was a good and valid order for the payment of Four hundred and seventy five dollars in money, and of the value of Four hundred and seventy five dollars; and that a sum of Four hundred and seventy five dollars in money belonging to the said Goodwin and Galt was then in the possession of the said Second National Bank, and that said sum of money was then payable and could be paid by the said Second National Bank on the credit and account of the said Goodwin and Galt whenever an order in writing, signed by the said Goodwin and Galt authorizing the said Second National Bank to make such payment should be presented at the place of business of the said Second National Bank and that a certain Bank Check, in the proper handwriting of them said Goodwin and Galt and which said Bank Check was addressed to the said Second National Bank at the place of business of the said Second National Bank at Fifth Avenue and Twenty Second Street in the City and County of New York and which said

Bank Check — purported to be an order upon the said Second National Bank to pay to the said Goodwin and Galt — and to any endorsee of the said Goodwin and Galt — the sum of Four hundred and seventy five dollars in money, was a valuable security, to wit, an order for the payment of Four hundred and seventy five dollars in money, and of the value of Four hundred and seventy five dollars

And the said Cornelius Collins then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Patrick McDonald — and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Patrick McDonald, a certain sum of money to wit, the sum of nineteen dollars in money and of the value of nineteen dollars — of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Cornelius Collins and the said Patrick McDonald — did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said sum of money to wit the sum of nineteen dollars in money and of the value of nineteen dollars of the said Cornelius Collins of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Cornelius Collins by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said Cornelius Collins of the same.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Bank Check which the said Patrick McDonald — then and there presented and delivered to the said Cornelius Collins was not a good and valid order for the payment of Four hundred and seventy five dollars in money, nor was the same a good and valid order for the payment of any sum of money whatever.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, there was not then and there the sum of Four hundred and seventy five dollars in money belonging to the said Goodwin and Galt — in the possession of the said Second National Bank — nor was there then and there any sum of money whatsoever belonging to the said Goodwin and Galt — in the possession of said Second National Bank.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the said sum of money was not then payable and could not be paid by said Second National Bank on the credit and account of the said Goodwin and Galt whenever an order in writing signed by the said Goodwin and Galt authorizing such payment to be made should be presented at the place of business of the said Second National Bank, nor would the said Second National Bank pay any sum of money whatsoever upon such order so signed by the said Goodwin and Galt as aforesaid.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Bank check in the proper handwriting of the said Goodwin and Galt was not an order to pay to the said Goodwin and Galt or any endorsee of the said Goodwin and Galt the sum of Four hundred and seventy five dollars in money, nor was the same a valuable security, of the value of Four hundred and seventy five dollars in money, nor was it of any value whatever;

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Patrick McDonald to the said Cornelius Collins was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Patrick McDonald well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Cornelius Collins to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Patrick McDonald by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Cornelius Collins a certain sum of money, to wit, the sum of nineteen dollars in money, and of the value of nineteen dollars

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said Cornelius Collins with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
