0336

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Jacob Candell

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME of "Shooting at another with intent to kill," committed as follows:

The said

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the nineteenth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of Francis Borge in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and to, at and against him the said Francis Borge a certain pistol then and there loaded and charged with gunpowder and one leaden bullet, which the said Jacob Candell in his right hand then and there had and held the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously, did then and there shoot off and discharge, with intent him the said thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the Crime of Shooting and Discharging off a pistol at another, without justifiable or excusable cause, with intent to injure such other, committed as follows:

afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said Francis Borge then and there being, wilfully and feloniously did make an assault and to, at and against him the said Francis Borge a certain pistol then and there loaded and charged with gunpowder and one leaden bullet, which he the said Jacob Candell in his right hand, then and there had and held, wilfully and feloniously, and without justifiable or excusable cause, did then and there shoot off and discharge, with intent, thereby him the said wilfully and feloniously, then and there to injure, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

~~JACOB McKEON, District Attorney,~~

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said Jacob Candell of the crime of Injuring another by the discharge of firearms committed as follows:

The said Jacob Candell, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully and intentionally did point and aim at one Francis George, and did then and there discharge, to at and against the said Francis George without malice a certain pistol then and there charged and loaded with gunpowder and one leaden bullet which he the said Jacob Candell in his right hand then and there had and held, and with the said Francis George, did then and there without malice wound and injure, in and upon the arm of him the said Francis George with the leaden bullet aforesaid, against the form of the Statute in premises made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

In the Matter of the Complaint of Julius Simon
= vs. =

The Inspectors of the 7th Election Dist of the 8th Assembly District and Officer
Thomas Crystal . . .

City and County of New York, Julius Simon being duly sworn says that he is of age and resides at
No. 88 Chrystie Street.

That deponent was present at the Polling Place at the 7th Election District of the 8th Assembly District on last Election day the 8th of November inst during the time the polls were open.

That when one Edward Kolb called at said Polling place to cast his vote,
Officer Thomas Crystal
asked him saying he who are ^{you} going to vote for

That Officer Thomas Crystal as deponent is informed and believes from about the first day of November ~~until~~^{till and} including election day went around among a number of the registered voters of the said District and by intimidation and use of threats to drive the parties out of business and as well to destroy their business compelled the said voters to cast the ballots handed them by said Officer.

That on the morning of said Election day at about five minutes to six o'clock deponent saw said Officer walking along with one Edmund Kolb a registered voter and when in front of said Polling Place heard the said Officer ask said Kolb who he was going to vote for when Kolb said For Steckler whereupon the said Officer stated ~~that~~ "no you wount you will vote my ticket"

 when Kolb again said
 "I will vote your ticket
 but I must vote for Steele" ~~when~~ the Officer then said
 "No you wount God damn you you will vote my ticket or you wount vote
 at all - You have no right to vote any way - If you don't vote my ticket
 I will drive your and your stand away from the corner and I will do it before the day is over"

The said Kolb then took the tickets from said Officer and went into said Polling Place and deposited them.

That the said Kolb keeps a push cart selling apples and other fruits and ~~merchandise~~ ~~his~~ on the corner of Hester and Ludlow Streets and that the said Kolb
 earns his living by means of said business.

against

Thomas Crystal

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF Intimidating a Voter at a General Election committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County of New York, on the eight day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, at the City and County aforesaid, ~~with force and arms~~ the same being the day upon which a general election was held in the City and County of New York, &c. unlawfully, at the said election did prevent and hinder one Edmund Holt, a qualified voter of the Seventh Election District of the Eighty Assembly District of the County aforesaid from freely exercising the rights of suffrage by means of threats, menaces and intimidation then and there made and used by the said Thomas Crystal to the said Edmund Holt, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said Thomas Crystal of the crime of Violating the Election Law committed as follows:

On the eighth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, there was a general election duly held in the City and County of New York as provided by law, and at the said election, one Edmund Holl was then and there a duly qualified voter in the seventh election district of the eighth assembly district of the said county, and the said Thomas Crystal, late of the City and County aforesaid, well knowing the premises, feloniously and unlawfully did then and there threaten and menace the said Edmund Holl that he the said Thomas Crystal would prevent him the said Edmund Holl from carrying on his business and would break up and ruin the business of him the said Edmund Holl, and other damages to him the said Edmund Holl, unless he the said Edmund Holl at the election aforesaid should vote the ballots selected by him the said Thomas Crystal and not those which he the said Edmund Holl then and there desired to vote, and thereby by means of the threat menace and intimidation aforesaid, the said Thomas Crystal did feloniously and unlawfully
