Mr Goff for the People

Mr House for the defendant

On motion of counsel for the People the Court directed an inquisition as to the sanity or insanity of the defendant.

A jury was impaneled, no objection being taken by either side.

Edward Bradley, called on behalf of the defendant, being sworn, (examined by Mr House) testified as follows ---

Q You are a physician ? A Yes .

Q Practising in this city ? A Yes .

Q How long have you been practising in this city ?

A 32 years .

Q Have you had any experience in cases of mental alienation ?

A Yes .

Q Have you made an examination of this defendant ? A Yes.

Q How many times did you make an examination of him ?

A Once .

Q Where was that examination made ? A In the Toombs
the last month .

Q It was to discover the condition of his mind ? A Yes.

Q From your knowledge as an expert and the examination that you made of this defendant at that time what is his condition of mind at the present moment ? A He is a demented colored man perfectly irresponsible and liable to kill anybody at any time , or destroy property without any regard of the consequences ; he has no idea what is going on now in this room .

Q Then it is your opinion that at the present moment he is entirely ~~able~~ unable to advise with counsel and is not in a fit condition to be tried for the commission of crime ?

A He is not .

Cross - exm by Mr Goff .

Q What would be the proper designation you would give to his condition ?

A Dementia ; he is suffering from dementia , and he is perfectly irresponsible ; he has no idea of right and wrong ; he talks disconnectedly , he gives the wrong answer to questions , he is deaf ; he has an impediment in his speech ; he has a thick , bullet shaped head which is indicative of insanity ; his eyes are restless and wandering ; his pulse was very high at the time we examined him . We gave him a very critical examination for 3 hours ; we were very much puzzled about some of his symptoms , but on examination made carefully we found he was perfectly irresponsible .

Q Is his condition in your opinion permanent or transient ?

A I think that he will die insane , die with softening of the brain .

Q Is it congenital ?

A That we were not able to find out . We made inquiries among people where he worked, and among those that knew him we found he was insane , his fellow workmen considered him perfectly irresponsible , but they could not give us any history of his case . He appears to me to be a boy who in infancy had had epilepsy .

Q From the formation of his head and the lack of any character bumps would you in your opinion say it was congenital ?

A From the general shape of the head ^{now} there are no marks we can distinguish ^{on} the outer plate of the skull with reference to the bumps of the brain ; in other words, we divide the brain into states and territories and not into counties and towns .

Q Then he is not subject to emotions or delusions ?

A He has delusions , but at the same time he is in a

Q In other words , he is not a sane being ?

A No sir , he is not .

He - Direct .

Q In your opinion he does not /now comprehend the situation he is in ?

A He does not in the slightest degree ; I don't think he has any idea what is going on .

The Court --- Do you think in his present condition his discharge would be dangerous to the community ?

A Very indeed .

Austin Flint , called for defendant , being sworn , (examined by Mr House) testified as follows ---

Q You are a practising physician in this city ? A I am .

Q How long have you been practising ? A About 30 years in this city .

Q I take it you have had some experience in mental alienation,

A Some .

Q Have you made an examination of this defendant here ?

A A very careful examination .

Q When was that examination made ?

A Wednesday , November 27th .

POOR QUALITY

5

Q How long did it take you to make the examination ?

A About 2 hours , or perhaps more .

Q Was anyone with you ?

A There was .

Q Whom ?

A Dr H. Bradley .

Q State to the jury the conclusions that you arrived at after that examination ?

A I made a very thorough examination under some difficulty , as the subject was quite deaf , but from his answers to questions which I made him understand , partly oral and partly written questions , and his general appearance I came to the conclusion that he was suffering from dementia , probably congenital or acquired very early in life , , and in I may express an opinion , not responsible for his actions .

Q Do you think at the present moment that he is a responsible being ?

A I have no doubt he is in practically the same condition as when I examined him on the 27th of last month I .

Q And he would not then be able to advise with counsel ?

A By no means . He did not know where he was , he did not appreciate where he was nor anything with regard to his condition as far as an infringement of the law was concerned .

The Court --- Do you think that his discharge would be dangerous to the community ?

A I think he might be ; I think he is incapable of taking care of himself and might be dangerous , although it is not probable .

Q He might be ?

A He might be .

Cross - exn by Mr Goff .

Q What is your opinion concerning his affection now , whether it is temporary or permanent ? A It is permanent I have no doubt , it is hopeless .

Q So far as your judgment goes and your opinion based upon your examination you can't state that his mental condition is transitory ? A It is not transitory I have no doubt ; I regard it as hopeless .

Q And at present he is unable to distinguish right from wrong .

A Decidedly ; he is not able to distinguish right from wrong .

Q In other words , it is an absence of mind ?

A It is a great weakness of mind . Dementia means absence of mind .

Mr House --- That is all we have to offer , and we will submit the case upon your Honor's charge .

Met Juguir first on a ship in the harbor about three months ago. I was in my boarding house.
He came to boarding house about three months ago. He was a sailor. The rule of the house was that the sailor the longest in the house should have the first ship. I got an order for six men Juguir told me he did not want a deep water ship but a cutter. When I went back about twelve or one O'clock I got a lot of men about me to tell them about the ship. I told Juguir that it was a deep water ship going to Hong Kong and that Cantari was there the longest and has a right to the first ship.
Then Juguir commenced to quarrel with Cantari about his getting the first ship. I then got up and threw my arms around Juguir and told him he must not fight. I forced him to his bunk and put him down upon it and he remained there 10 or 15 minutes. I went back to the table and sat down talking to the others. Cutan lay upon the table with his back to the door leading back in a little while Jurgens got up took off his boots and stockings and passed me. He said that he was going to the water closet. I told him to hurry and come right back and go to bed that there must be no more trouble. He passed on. In a little while I heard a shriek. I turned suddenly around and saw Jurgens' hand raised with a large knife in it which he plunged into the breast of Cutan. He drew out the knife and made a stroke at my head. I caught him by the wrist and held him. Others wrapped clothing around around the knife and took it away. Then we got a rope and tied him till the police came. Cutan never spoke after he was stabbed.
