The said John Hor replied no, that they did not do any business of that kind there. Deponent said all right if I bring any one here which knows me will that be all right. The said John Hor replied yes. Deponent went out & shortly returned with a colored man. The said John Hor opened the door leading into the back room where Robert Hor was, and deponent then and there purchased the paper hereto annexed and marked Exhibit I, paying the said Robert Hoe the sum of five cents for the same. The said Robert Hoe, wrote the said paper and gave same to deponent & deponent paid him the sum of five cents for the same.

Deponent further says that on the 22nd day of October he again visited said premises 498 6th Ave & there again said, the said John Hoe was again at the door and said to deponent what do you want, Deponent said, I want to get in, I was in yesterday. The said John Hoe said did you come in with anybody, deponent replied yes, with a colored man. He said John Hoe then opened the door and let deponent in, saying the man is in the back room. In the back room was a black man, and deponent and the said man went to the said ~~Robert~~ ^{Richard} Hoe, and the said black man said give me 5-10-20 and deponent said give me 23.76.44 for ten dollars each both lotteries. The said Richard Hoe, thereupon recorded the numbers upon a paper, and ~~gave~~ ^{delivered} said paper to deponent, and deponent paid the said Richard Hoe the sum of twenty cents, the said paper being annexed aforesaid and marked Exhibit II

Examination before Justice Patterson
Nov 4 1886

Timothy J. Creeden, being duly sworn and examined by the court deposes
and says

Q What do you know about the premises No 26 Forsyth street?

A I do not know anything of my own knowledge about that house.

Q What is the reputation of that house? Is it a house of assignment or reputed to be a decent house?

A It has the reputation of a furnished room house. I cannot say of my own knowledge what its reputation is. I have never been in the house until this arrest.

Q You are a sergeant of Police?

A Yes.

Q There is a record in the station house of houses of prostitution of improper houses.

A Yes Sir.

- Q I want to know what the reputation of this house is - whether it is a house of prostitution or a decent house? You do not keep a record of all furnished room houses - of decent houses?
- A I will put it in this way. We have a record of furnished room houses where prostitutes take furnished rooms.
- Q Is that the case with this house?
- A That is the case of this house.
- Q Then it is a house of prostitution as far as the record goes?
- A As far as that goes - yes.

Lesson examined by Mr. Bogart

- Q Do you know of your own knowledge of any prostitutes that have occupied rooms in those premises?
- A No; I do not; Only the reputation of the house to be such.
- Q You have entered upon the station house books designations of houses of prostitution and bawdy houses.
- A We have by street and number.
- Q And separate and apart from that you have furnished room houses?

A Yes, sir. We have a classification of houses of prostitution, houses of assignation and furnished room houses.

Q You say you have houses of prostitution, bawdy houses and furnished room houses, recorded and designated as such.

A I think houses of prostitution and bawdy houses come under the same head. I can't answer the bawdy house business.

Q Assignation houses?

A The best is prostitution, assignation and furnished room houses.

Q And this is classified under furnished room houses?

A Where prostitutes engage furnished rooms - It is therefore recorded as a furnished room house.

Q Did you examine the record?

A Yes.
