 Daniel Mc-Gloin.

The defendant has pleaded guilty of assault in the 3rd degree and his plea has been accepted. He has presented a number of letters certifying to his good character.

He is a young man 30 years of age and has not, it is said, been in trouble before.

He has a wife and small child entirely dependent upon him for support. His wife says he has been a good husband and never got drunk before. He came to this country from Ireland when about 20 years of age and since coming here has learned a trade, that of carpenter. He has been in prison since March 14th, 1888. The complainant desires to withdraw his charge.

In consideration of his previous good character and the dependence of his wife and little child for their support upon him I would respectfully recommend that sentence be suspended.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

Daniel McGloin

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I further desire to say that I know the reputation of the defendant, which is very good; that his antecedents are excellent, and that he is an industrious man, married and the father of an infant child; ~~and that~~, so far as I am aware this is the first time that the defendant has been arrested or charged with any offence.

I desire to add that I do not believe the defendant had any intention of assaulting ~~me~~ or ~~injuring~~ ^{with a weapon} me on the occasion referred to in the indictment; and the slight injury which I did sustain I believe was the result of accident rather than intent.

Dear Sir,

Please take notice that on Monday the second day of April 1888, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, at a Court of General Sessions to be held in and for the City and County of New York, at the Court House No. 32 Chambers street in the City of New York, in Part Three of the said Court, upon the affidavit of which a copy is hereto annexed, and upon all the papers heretofore filed and the proceedings heretofore had herein, I shall move that the above entitled actions be set down for trial upon a day to be fixed by the Court, and that you may be required to elect which of the said actions you will first move for trial, and to give the defendant or his counsel due notice of such election.

Abraham Suydam, being duly sworn, says as follows, to wit:

I am one of the counsel of the defendant above-named. On the 6th day of March instant three indictments were filed in this Court against the defendant, one for robbery in the second degree and two for assault in the second degree.

The defendant has stated to me the facts constituting his defence to these indictments, and from his statement I believe that he has a good and meritorious defence to each indictment.

The defendant is now in prison, and is anxious to have the indictments tried and disposed of as soon as possible. It will be necessary to summon a large number of witnesses for the defence, and it will be almost impossible to prepare for trial unless the defendant has due notice of the day on which the cases are to be tried, and notice of the order in which they are to be tried.

Subscribed and sworn to before me

Abraham Suydam

this 31st day of March 1888.
