OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AGAINST
John Knover

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

John Knover
 of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said John Knover, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty sixth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety- three, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Matthias Jacobs, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said Matthias Jacobs.

That a certain paper writing which he then and there produced and delivered to the said Matthias Jacobs was then and there a good and valid bill of paper money of the United States, and of the value of fifty dollars.

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said

John Hoover

did then and there feloniously and fraudulently obtain from the possession of the said

Matthias Jacobs, the sum of fifty dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of fifty dollars.

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said

with intent to deprive and defraud the said Matthias Jacobs.

of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper writing was not then and there a good and valid bill or paper money of the United States, and was not of the value of fifty dollars, but was wholly worthless.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said John Whover to the said Matthias Jacobs was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said John Whover at the time of making the same then and there well knew;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said John Whover in the manner and form aforesaid and by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Matthias Jacobs, then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

against

James A. Aronson

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse

James A. Aronson

of the crime of keeping a room for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, committed as follows:

The said

James A. Aronson

late of the Fourth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the thirteenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track, owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously keep a certain room in a certain building there situate, for the purpose of therein recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Second Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

James A. Aronson

of the crime of knowingly permitting a room to be used and occupied for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, committed as follows:

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, being then and there the ~~owner~~ of certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms, unlawfully and feloniously did knowingly permit the said room to be used and occupied for the purpose of therein recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed, and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Third Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the crime of keeping, exhibiting and employing devices and apparatus for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, committed as follows:

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, being the ~~owner~~ of a certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously therein keep, exhibit and employ, divers devices and apparatus (a more particular description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) for the purpose of recording and registering bets and wagers, and of selling pools, upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of beasts, to wit, horses; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Fourth Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the crime of becoming the custodian and depository, for hire and reward, of money staked, wagered and pledged upon the result of trials and contests of speed and power of endurance of horses, committed as follows :

The said - James H. [illegible]

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, and not upon any grounds or race track owned, leased, or conducted by any association incorporated under the laws of this State, for the purpose of improving the breed of horses, where racing was then lawfully had, being then and there the owner of a certain room in a certain building there situate, with force and arms, did unlawfully and feloniously therein then and there become the custodian and depository, for hire and reward, of certain money, to wit: the sum of 2500 dollars in lawful money of the United States of America, which said money was then and there by one James H. [illegible]

James H. [illegible] staked, wagered and pledged upon the result of a certain trial and contest of speed and power of endurance of and between a certain horse called Seo [illegible] and divers other horses (a more particular description whereof, and of each of them, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown) thereafter to be had, holden and run on the day and in the year aforesaid, at a certain place and race track situate at Shelton [illegible] in the County of Flanagan in the State of Georgia and commonly called the Shelton [illegible] Race Track, and which said trial and contest was had, holden and run on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the place and race track aforesaid (a more particular description of which said trial and contest, and of the circumstances and manner of, upon, and in which the said money was so staked, wagered and pledged as aforesaid, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Fifth Count, And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said James H. [illegible] of the crime of recording and registering a bet and wager, committed as follows :
