The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse Nathan S. Nathan and Louis Mendel of the crime of manufacturing out of oleaginous substances and compounds thereof, other than those produced from unadulterated milk or cream from the same, an article designed to take the place of butter produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream of the same, committed as follows:

The said Nathan S. Nathan and Louis Mendel, each late of the City and County of New York, on the twenty second day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, at the City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did manufacture and cause and procure to be manufactured, out of diverse oleaginous substances and compounds thereof, other than those produced from unadulterated milk or cream from the same, a certain article designed to take the place of butter

0015 produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream of the same, a more particular description of which said article, and of the said alleged substances and compounds thereof, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given: against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the City and County of New-York, SS.:

Jedediah R. Wheeler, of No. 350 Washington street, in said City, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he is in the employ of Benjamin F. Vanvalkenbergh, Assistant State Dairy Commissioner; that on the 16th day of December, 1884, deponent, in company with Thomas R. Gray, of No. 172 Clinton street, in said City, was sent to Nathaniel I. Nathan and Company's oleomargarine factory, at No. 24 $\frac{1}{2}$ Grove street, in said City, for the purpose of inspecting said factory and seeing whether said Nathan and Company were still manufacturing oleomargarine; that on arriving at said factory deponent and the said Gray asked to be shown through the factory; that this was refused, whereupon deponent and the said Gray started to walk through said factory when Lewis Mendel, a member of said firm, told deponent and the said Gray that they could not go through said factory, and at the same time the said Mendel said to his employes "A half dozen of you men come and close the doors, and after you close the doors put these men out; that the said men did close the said door, and then put their hands on deponent and the said Gray and pushed them towards the outer door, when deponent and the said Gray walked out. That when deponent and the said Gray reached the sidewalk they met the said Nathaniel I. Nathan, and he asked deponent what kind of a reception he had in the factory, and when deponent told him, he, the said Nathan, said "Well, that is right; That's according to my instructions, that if any of you inspectors came there to put you out."
