This Agreement shall remain in full force during the period of 2 years from the time at which said line and instruments were delivered to said party of the second part in good working order, as aforesaid, ~~and can only be terminated before the expiration of said period upon the payment by party of the second part of all dues for service rendered previous to date of cancellation and one half the rental for the unexpired term of this contract.~~

The People
vs. William Hayden

Court of General Sessions. Before Judge Corwin. December 3, 1879.
Indictment for burglary in the third degree.

Lewis Kriegelmann, sworn and examined testified. What is your business? Gents furnishing goods. Where do you do it? No 76 Chatham St. under Sweeney's hotel. On the night preceding the 16th of Nov, what time did you close your store? I open Sunday morning until 12 and keep it closed till 6 o'clock.

I light the gas and keep it closed altogether till the next morning. It was between Sunday night and Monday morning it was broken open. Sunday night the premises were locked in the usual way. There is a railing on the show window and there is a lock on the bottom. I put it up every night when I close up the store; the window was in good condition when I left it the night before I was notified what had happened at 1 1/2 o'clock at 90 Madison St where I live; then I went to my place 76 Chatham St. and I found my window broke and the railing that goes across the window was splend apart; the railing was put on the window instead of shutters to protect it from burglars There was property of value in the store such as suspenders, handkerchiefs, under clothing

0423

I don't know anything about the prisoner getting into my place. John J. Nolan sworn and examined. I am an officer in the Fourth Precinct. I have charge of a section of the precinct and I do my tour in citizens clothes nights. I ~~was~~ standing at the corner of Chamber St. and I saw the prisoner going to the window of 76 Chatham St.; I stepped into Spelman's corner almost opposite, to see what he was doing and I was standing there probably a minute or half a minute and I heard a crash and I went over there and arrested him. Was any one else there? No one passed. What time was this? It was about a quarter past one in the morning. I did not hear the glass ~~break~~ but I could hear the railing, it sounded to me as if he was after dropping the railing that goes across the window. In what condition did you find the railing and the window when you got there? I found the window broken and the railing pulled apart. I found this stone right under the window. I took the prisoner to the station house; the lock of the iron railing dropped through the grating under the window into the sub-cellar; the window was broken and a hole was made in it as large as a hen's eff. What did the prisoner say when you asked him about it? He said he did not do it, he did not do anything, that another man ran along. Was there any other man running along? No sir. You were in a position to see? There could not anybody pass up or down from where I was standing. Cross Examined. To the best of my belief it was about  $\frac{1}{2}$  to one o'clock in the morning. I think it was not before one. Where did you arrest this man? Right in front of 76 Chatham St. At the time that you arrested him what was he doing? I was crossing to him; he was doing nothing, as I was coming across the street to him he started across to me. Where did you arrest him? Right opposite the window. On the sidewalk or on the street? Right off the curb. He was going towards William St. Was he? No sir. He was crossing Chatham St. To the opposite side of the street and you arrested him there? Yes sir. Did you see him put his hand to that window? No sir. I could not see; there was an awning over the window. I saw him come from the door above it and go to this window. I could see the form of a man there, I could not see what he was doing. It was not dark; there is a lamp in front of 78; it was dark certainly, it was night. I am positive there was no one

0424

0425

I don't know anything about the prisoner getting into my place. John J. Molare sworn and there but him. William Hayden, sworn and examined testified in his own behalf. I belong in New Orleans; by trade I am a cigar maker but I have been following the sea for a year and a half as cabin boy and assistant cook. I arrived in New York on the Wednesday prior to the arrest. Mary Kelly worked on the corner of William and Chatham Sts.; it is an oyster saloon. I went there and left eight dollars with her so that I would not spend it. I went up the Bowery and came back again; she told me to come down at 12 o'clock, but the woman who keeps the house told me not to come down till one. I went into a shooting gallery and stayed there till 11 o'clock, and then I walked down to the corner of Chatham and Roosevelt Sts. and got some supper; at the time of my arrest I was going to see this girl; her place is about two blocks from where the place was broken open. I have never been arrested for any crime except once for being drunk. Did you touch that place? No sir. Did you put your hand to the iron grating or anything, did you break the lock, were there any burglars tools found in your possession when you were arrested. No sir. Mary Kelly swore that she knew the prisoner and that she worked at an oyster saloon corner of Millham and Chatham Sts; the prisoner came to see her that Monday about 11 o'clock and she told him to come back at one o'clock; he gave me eight dollars to keep.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
