of New York,of No. 230-7 Avenue Rosie Apell, aged 47 years,occupation Saloon Keeper being duly sworn.deposes and says, that the premises No 2307 Avenue Street,in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a four story brickbuilding, the second floor ofwhich was occupied by deponent as a residenceand in which there was at the time a human being, by name Albert Apellwere BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly raising a window in a room in the rear of said floor and entering said window have climbed to it by means of a fire escapeon the 13 day of March 1885 in the night time, and thefollowing property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz: One gold watch and chain of the value of One hundred dollars. One silver watch and gold chain of the value of Forty dollars. Two pairs of gold earrings of the value, together of Fifteen dollars and a number of brace dollars of the value together of twenty-five dollars. altogether of the value of One hundred and eighty dollarsthe property of deponent and her husband Albert Apell and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Samuel Gates, now here,for the reasons following, to wit: Said Gates was at said date a lodger in deponent's premises, occupying the rear hall bedroom on said floor. At about five o'clock on the afternoon of said day deponent closed said window and went out. At about half past seven deponent returned and as she entered heard a noise in said room and entering therein, found said window open and missed said property from a bureau drawer with the exception of and found on the floor near the bureau one of said earrings. About half an hour later said ~~Samuel~~ ^{on the 22nd day of March 1885} Gates came down stairs; and ~~said~~ ^{said} to defendant "Keep quiet. Don't go back on me and you will get everything back." He gave to defendant his gold watch and chain, which defendant returned, and offered to give her sixty-five dollars in addition. Defendant is informed by Officer Adolph H. Schmidt of the 16 Precinct Police that he found on the window of the room occupied by said Gates marks as if said window had been raised and some one had passed through it to the fire escape which ran from said window to near the window of defendant's room. Said window of Gates room had been fastened so as to only open a few inches. But after said burglary it was easy to open, wide.
