As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The defendant was in my employ and had charge of the store in which the missing property was placed - On taking account of stock the goods alleged to have been stolen were missed and defendant charged with taking them - He is of respectable family I am informed, and in view of the fact that he has been confined for some months in prison, ~~as well as~~ and that he may have an opportunity to redeem himself and become a useful member of society, I respectfully ask permission to withdraw the complaint herein made by me

Over a year ago, upon the request of the Complainant and after a withdrawal was duly filed, you directed the above case to be dismissed, and I understood from the Chief Clerk that such disposition had been made of the case.

Dear Sir :-

I am just informed that case of The People vs. Walter Stern (indecent Exposure) is on the calendar for to-morrow.

Some time since, I saw Mr. Martine about the case and with his consent a withdrawal was filed and the case directed by him to be nolle prosequed. This evidently has not been done, and I therefore trust that you will not put the case on the calendar for to-morrow or notify the defendant's father who was his bail and a highly respectable merchant. If you will let the case lie over for a week or so, I will see Mr. Martine in the meanwhile when I have no doubt his original directions in the matter will be executed.

June 21st 1888.

Cornelius Sullivan arrested for stealing watch and chain the property of Mr. Edgerton Byrnes on 6th Ave train stated to me in Tombs Prison this day - as follows -
I rode up town on 6th Ave train and noticed Mr. Byrnes (whom I knew to be a rich man having lived in the ward where he keeps his place of business) asleep in the train, I thought he was tired and had been to the races, after the train left 125th St. I took his watch and put it in my pocket, where I kept it until train reached 135th St., when I thought the guard became suspicious of me as he awoke Mr. Byrnes and asked him if he had lost his watch, at first Mr. Byrnes said, he did not have a watch, but when he was thoroughly awake and realised where he was, he felt his pocket and said his watch had been stolen, I then dropped the watch and chain into the street, between car and station platform.

I do not know the value of the watch, but the chain was very heavy and I think it was of great value.

He further stated that he had been released from Sing Sing Prison last February, after serving a sentence of three years.
