occupation Engineer being duly sworndeposes and says, that on the 11th day of March 1888 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the daytime, the following property viz :One open faced silver watch and one gold watch chain, and one lead medalBeing in all together of the value of Sixty Dollars and twenty five cents the property of Deponentand that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Patron Walsh (now Lee)for the reason, that on said day said watch and chain were in the vest pocket of deponent's vest, which was then lying on a bed in the stateroom occupied by deponent and said medal was in a pocket box then in deponent's pants which he had on, and while he was asleep.Deponent is informed by William Howard Turner Roe the Engineer Steward of said steamship that he went to the room occupied by deponent to make up the beds and there found said deponent in said room, and that he took said vest containing said watchSworn to before me, this

And chain in the presence of said defendant and placed the same in a bureau drawer in said room. He went out, leaving said defendant there, that said Roe has only gone found said room about two minutes and upon his return found said defendant gone and said property missing. Defendant is further informed by Mark Haigh the second mate of said steamship that he saw said defendant leave the said stateroom and caused him to be arrested. Defendant is further informed by Edward Tarry a police officer of the 25th Precinct Police that he arrested said defendant and found in his possession the said medal herein mentioned which defendant fully identifies as being his and which he then had in his pocket book until he was in said room and which he afterwards missed.
 Defendant therefore charges said defendant with the larceny of the property aforesaid.

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away byJohn Ward and John Rielly (now deceased)for the reasons following, to wit: Deponent securely locked and closed the said store containing the said property about 9 p.m. on March 13 last. About 3 A. on March 14 deponent was looking out of the window of his dwelling opposite the said store and deponent saw the two defendants whom he well knew, in the act of carrying away a bag of goods out of the front

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

Plaintiffs

against

Reinhardt Wiesendanger
Defendant.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse the above named defendant of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE ON SUNDAY, committed as follows :

The said defendant, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twentieth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit : One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT :

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said defendant of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows :

The said defendant, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place, so licensed as aforesaid, unlawfully did not close, and keep closed, and on the said day, the said place so licensed as aforesaid, unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

against

John S. Wood

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said

John S. Wood,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the

Twenty-ninth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of one Susan M. Wood, in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault and to, at and against her the said Susan M. Wood, a certain pistol then and there loaded and charged with gunpowder and one leaden bullet, which the said John S. Wood, in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously did then and there shoot off and discharge, with intent her the said Susan M. Wood, thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill,, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said Susan M. Wood, in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and to, at and against her the said

Susan M. Wood

a certain pistol then and there charged and loaded with gunpowder and one leaden bullet, which the said John S. Wood, in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a weapon and an instrument likely to produce grievous bodily harm, then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully shoot off and discharge, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

JOHN R. FELLOWS,
