wound,

with intent to kill the said Michael, — thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Jeremiah Murphy
of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Jeremiah Murphy, — late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said Michael Murphy — in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and with the said with a certain knife — Michael —

which the said Jeremiah — in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a weapon and an instrument likely to produce grievous bodily harm, then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, cut, stab and wound, against the form of the statute in
and their dignity.

I am twenty eight years of age, married and live with my family upon the top floor of the premises No. 486, Grand Street in the City of New York, and have so lived there since last May, 1887. I am in the employ of the Bullerick Publishing Co, at No. 40 East 14th Street, as their Shipping Clerk.

I left home on Sunday, the 25th day of March 1888, after Dinner and about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, I went up to Harlem, on the B. Avenue Elevated R.R.

I went into different saloons and had drunk a good deal of Beer. I got to ~~Bowling~~ Street, near First Ave. to my mother in law's about midnight or night before, my brother in law and myself went out into McGuire's Saloon and from there my brother in law accompanied me to the B. Avenue Cars, where I parted with him and took the injured man to Grand Street. I do not know whether I came directly through Grand Street or whether I stopped on the way. but I do know that I did not ride that night from Grand Street, it was snowing and sleeting.

I had been in the Hallway but a has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

William Murphy and John McCarthy

(both now living) from the fact that at about the hour of 2.30 PM of said date while deponent was standing at the corner of Rector and Division streets she was approached by the said defendants who were in company, that said McCarthy seized hold of deponent's arm and that said Murphy did snatch said property from the person of deponent, dress and run away with the same in company with said McCarthy

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against
William Murphy
 and
John Mc Carthy

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse
 - William Murphy and John Mc Carthy - of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said William Murphy and John Mc Carthy - late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the second day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- eight, in the day time of the said day, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms,

One watch of the value of fifty dollars, and
One chain of the value of fifteen dollars -

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Annie Solomon on the person of the said Annie Solomon then and there being found, from the person of the said Annie Solomon then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

0822

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said

of the CRIME OF RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS, committed as follows:

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms,

One chain of the value of fifteen dollars—

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Annie Solomon

by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen, taken and carried away from the said Annie Solomon unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have; the said

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels and personal property to have been feloniously stolen, taken and carried away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

JOHN R. FELLOWS,

District Attorney.
