This boy was in our care for one year from March 15th 1881 for truancy, and from the age then given, by his parents, he is, now, between fifteen and sixteen years of age, and his case demands sterner discipline than is afforded by the Juvenile Asylum. Dear Sir. I learn that Thomas Brennan who is to appear before you today for trial on the charge of burglary, is a son of Dan Boyle a laborer who has worked for me on our Stave

know the boy, but if you can show any mercy to him, in case of conviction, it would be of service to a worthy man and his family whose wife is an invalid. The father assures me that his son is innocent of the crime with

Dear Sir,

About six weeks ago the house where I board, No. 34 West 17th. Street, was entered by two burglars at about half past two o'clock in the morning.

Mr. Horace Bacon, who also resides in the house, a policeman called in, and myself pursued them into the sub-cellar.

One escaped and the other man we captured. He gave his ~~name~~ name as George Brown.

The prisoner admitted he had a confederate actually present.

Mr. Bacon appeared as complainant, also went before the Grand Jury.

I took the trouble to go with Mr. Bacon before the Magistrate, and gave my name as a witness.

I did this so as to be sure to obtain conviction of burglary in the first degree. We were informed we would be notified when the trial should come off.

Hearing nothing Mr. Bacon made inquiry at your office, and found that the prisoner had pleaded guilty to burglary in the third degree and was sent up for four years and a half.

He certainly was guilty of burglary in the first 0146

degree and subject to a much severer sentence.

We stood prepared to furnish the People with all proof necessary, and do not understand why the prisoner was not tried.

If you will explain how this case took the direction it did, you will greatly oblige,
