exculpation?

Answer. I thought I could open an account in the bank in time to meet the payments

At the time I drew that check and gave it to Simpson, it was well known to Simpson that I had no money in the bank; it was done by me as an accommodation to Simpson and he promised to deposit the money to make it good, and said he would, if necessary, mortgage his piano to get it. I did not receive one farthing of benefit from the check and he promised from day to day to make it good.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AGAINST

James H. Demarest

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

James H. Demarest

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree committed as follows:

The said James H. Demarest

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 28th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Albert Kupper of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Albert Kupper

That a certain paper writing in the words and figures following to wit:

No.

Paterson N.J. June 22nd 1888

First National Bank

Pay to the order of T.J. Simpson

Seventy 00/100

Dollars

$ 70.00/100

J.H. Demarest

which he, the said James H. Demarest then and there produced and delivered, and caused to be produced and delivered to the said Albert Kupper, was then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money and of the value of seventy dollars; that the said James H. Demarest who was the maker of the same, was then a responsible person, and then had an account with and had on deposit in the First National Bank of Paterson in the State of New Jersey, funds sufficient to meet the said order. And the said Albert Kupper — then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said James H. Demarest — and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said James H. Demarest, the sum of forty dollars in money, lawful money of the United States, and of the value of forty dollars, and one hundred and fifty glass bottles of the value of ten cents each — of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Albert Kupper —

And the said James H. Demarest, did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said Albert Kupper by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Albert Kupper —

of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper writing which he, the said James H. Demarest so as aforesaid then and there produced and delivered, and caused to be produced and delivered to the said Albert Kupper was not then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money, and was not of the value of seventy dollars, or of any value, whatever, but was in truth, then and there wholly void and worthless; and the said James H. Demarest was not then a responsible person, and did not then have an account with the said First National Bank of Paterson, and did not then have on deposit in the said bank funds sufficient to meet the said order or any funds whatever.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said James H. Demarest to the said Albert Kupper was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said James H. Demarest at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said James H. Demarest in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Albert Kupper then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

The People
vs.
George Downs.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Martine.

Thursday, August 9, 1888.

Indictment for grand larceny.

Julius Werner sworn and examined, testified: I am an upholsterer and remember the 27th of June of this year, I was working in my basement 217 West 25th Street and I heard music and a procession passing by and my son and wife and I went out to see the procession, we did not go out in the street, we stood inside the railing, it was just around nine o'clock in the evening; we were looking at the procession, I felt a grab here (pointing to the vest), so I took hold of the young fellow wrestling with the other hand, I was trying to save the watch but I was not strong enough, I had a watch and chain, this man the defendant, got the watch and chain, all that was left was the bar, I valued it at about forty dollars, I saw the young man when I grabbed him the moment he was stealing the watch outside the railing, I never saw him before, I was not able to hold him, my son stood alongside with me and he jumped over the railing and was following him. There is an electric light there right across the street. I next saw the defendant about half an hour afterwards in the Station House. I am positive he is the man. He was not alone when I went to the Station House, there was about seven or eight people around in clothes like him, four stood in one row and three or four around him, I was kept in the captain's office and they called me out and they advised me if I saw the man I described I should take hold of him, I went right up to him and I seen it was him.

Cross Examined. The young man who took my watch had a black sack coat on, a dark vest and I am sure he had a straw hat, the electric light was about one hundred and fifteen feet away from me but across the way there is gas light. I told the officer on post soon after it happened and he said I had better report it at the Station House, which I did, the detective notified me to go to the Station House to see if I could identify anybody, he stated to me that he had arrested a man whom he thought answered to my description, he did not tell me that he had got the man, they told me if I did not see the person in the room I should walk out; the boys were standing shoulder to shoulder, I did not notice whether or not they had straw hats on them. The detective told me on the way up to the Station House that the man whom he arrested whom he supposed answered to my description did not have any straw hat on but that I should not mind the straw hat, I should look more to the picture (face) than to the hat.

Paul R. Werner sworn. I am salesman for Baumann Bros. furniture house, I remember the 27th of June, saw the defendant that night, I was there that night to visit my father 207 West 25th Street; we heard music and went out and stood by the railing to see the procession, I was standing there with my father and mother and my father was about six feet away, I saw there was a lot of people upon the sidewalk, a kind of stoppage, I looked around and I saw my father grabbing the young man, that is him positively (pointing to the defendant). I looked at him carefully, I says, "Pop, what is the matter", I seen him grab the Defendant, "has he got it?" He said, Yes; I jumped over the fence after him and in the crowd he disappeared, he went toward Seventh Avenue and I could not see him, I saw him in the Station House about half an hour after that the detective told us to come to the Station House, he thought he had the party from the description that we gave him; we went to the Sergeant's room, we waited fifteen minutes and the detective came in, he said, "there is four in a line," I think he said, "we put four straw hats on them", he said, "identify the parties if you can, never mind the straw hats, the man we arrested had no straw hat at the time." My father went out first and I went over and put my hand on the same party, the defendant at the bar. The Detective gave us no intimation of what position the defendant occupied on the line.

Cross Examined. Detective Logan told us they had a man according to our description, he said the party he arrested had no straw hat on at the time, I did not look for anyone with derby hats on, I knew that the defendant would have a straw hat on when I went in. I have seen the young man before who is now pointed out to me, he came to my house after his brother was arrested. I was perfectly sober on the night my father lost his watch, I live in 37th Street between 7th and 8th Avenues, I went past a saloon and I stepped in and inquired for this young man, I put his name and address in my pocket-book before I met him on this night in question. I did not say to this young man that I was willing to settle the matter for twenty-five dollars and get the charge withdrawn, I did not subsequently say that I would settle for a lesser sum, I remember asking this young man where the defendant got his smooth face, where he had been shaved, he was perfectly smoothed face the night he was in front of my father's house. I noticed that he was dressed dark that night but did not look at his clothes particularly. I could see by the electric light.

John Carey sworn and examined. I am an officer of the municipal police and arrested the Defendant, I asked him where he had been an hour ago? He said up at 28th St. and 8th Avenue in a saloon and had a drink. In the Station House I told him what he was charged with and he denied it, I searched him and found nothing, I arrested him from a description given by the complainant and his son about twenty minutes afterwards. I was present when the identification of the prisoner took place. I got three other parties as near his size as I possibly could, three of them wore straw hats and one of them a derby, I don't know his name, a young man I picked up in the street, and placed them in a line. The old man and his son identified the defendant without hesitation. When I arrested the defendant he did not have a straw hat on but a black or brown derby, he was standing on the corner of 28th St. and 7th Avenue with a party of young men. The complainant told me the man who robbed him had a straw hat. I did not tell the complainant and his son that I had placed a straw hat upon his head. He was not talking to any particular person, he did not try to run away, he did not have a chance. There is an electric light on the corner of 25th St. and 7th Avenue.

Frederick Meyers sworn and examined in behalf of the Defendant. I am living at 305 East 52nd Street and am a restuarant keeper, I know the Defendant, he entered my employ in 1884 and stayed with me till 1887 and last September I opened store again in Park Avenue and went down to Coney Island and got the defendant from Mr. Olney and he worked with me till February or March until I was obliged to give up the business on account of removal. I trusted him with my books and money for four years, he has always been honest and upright.

George Downs sworn and examined, testified: I am twenty-eight years old, I was arrested six or seven years ago and sent to the State Prison for two years; when I came out I worked for Mr Meyers during the last four years, I have never been arrested during that period for anything, Mr. Meyers has intrusted me with his business. The night the complainant swore I stole his watch I was at 28th St. and 8th Avenue between the hours of five and nine o'clock, I was having a glass of beer, I walked up again toward 7th Avenue on the uptown side of 28th St. and sat down at the paper factory for half an hour near 7th Avenue when the officer came along, I was sitting with another man. He said, "do you belong here", and I said no; he says, "there has been complaints made against people sitting around here and you had better take a walk up on the avenue or you might get yourself in trouble." I stood by a liquor store speaking to a man named John Kennedy and I saw Detectives Carey and Logan. Detective Carey walked over and said, "hello, I want you"; I said, "what for?" He said, "I can't let you know till you get to the Station House." I walked between Logan and Carey and when they got to 25th Street Carey said, "take him down to the house". I immediately walked down 25th Street for the prosecutors; Detective Logan said to me, "we have got a dead rap against you." They took me down to the Station House and the Captain and the Sergeant were behind the desk. Detective Logan said there was two witnesses would come and say they lost the watch and that this man, meaning me, took it. They brought me in the back room and Detective Carey took the two gentlemen that is swearing here and put them into the ante-room and had the door ajar. He went out again and brought in three boys who had straw hats on, I had on my derby hat, they put us all together and they put me on the lead to march out first. Before that Detective Carey said to me, "here is a straw hat, you had better put that on, the other boys have got straw hats and you had better wear one. Before that I did not know that the young man who stole the watch wore a straw hat. I said first, "I will wear my own hat", the detective said, "no, you had better wear this straw hat." Detective Carey put the straw hat on me and as soon as I went out the Captain, the Sergeant and Carey got around me and Detective Logan was standing alongside the two complainants and as much as pointed me out and put up his hand. The old gentleman looked at me and said, "that is the man" and the captain, the sergeant and Detective Carey commenced to grin and laugh. The son came up and said, "that is the man. They locked me down; Detectives Carey and Logan came down and said, "can't we do anything for you, tell who the rest is and I will get you out." I said, "I know nothing about it, I don't want to be bothered with you. They said, "all right, if you can stand it we can", and they commenced to laugh. I never wore a straw hat in my life but once and that was an old one when I was painting last winter.

Cross Examined. I had nothing to do with the larceny of this watch. I was sent to the State Prison in 1882 for the larceny of a watch and chain taking it out of a drunken man's pocket. The man John Kennedy of whom I have spoken is a coachman and works for a man on 8th Avenue between 28th and 29th Streets. I was taken in the back room of the Station House and stayed there fully fifteen minutes, I saw the complainant come in, I could not say if he saw me, he must have went in the room, I did not see where he went, the door was open and Detective Logan was with him in the little ante-room. I was set up in a row with the other boys, I seen the complainant and his son standing at the door, the door was open on ajar and Detective Logan was with them, they were in the ante-room behind the Sergeant's desk; Detective Carey, Captain Grant and the Sergeant were arranging us and Logan was talking to the complainants, I did not hear what he said, Carey was nudging around me all the time, he put me on the lead furthest away to the street, I was the smallest, I know Detective Carey well, he was not the officer who arrested me before. I was with John Kennedy in 28th Street on the night this larceny occurred, fully thirty-five or forty minutes, I was speaking to him when I was arrested, I guess it was about twenty minutes to ten when I got to the Station House, Kennedy was with me when I was at Beck's and he was with me in the saloon on 28th St. and 8th Avenue,

McKenney's; every evening I go in there, Kennedy was the only man who was with me but there were plenty of people drinking in there. Kennedy is still Mr. Meyers coachman but he is not in Court, I told my counsel about Kennedy; from the time that I left this saloon until I was arrested I was with Kennedy, I was in the saloon I guess about half past eight o'clock, I was sitting down at the factory steps about half an hour. The complainant said he lost his watch five or ten minutes after nine, I was down at McKenney's at half past eight, it was not ten minutes after nine when Detective Carey was standing on the 28th St. corner by a telegraph pole with Logan, I was in McKenney's place I think about ten minutes and prior to that I was standing on the corner of 28th Street and 7th Avenue, I was there all the evening for that matter, I was arrested I suppose about fifteen or twenty minutes after I left Beck's factory and I think it was about twenty minutes of ten when I got to the Station House, I think I was arrested twenty-five minutes after nine. I am perfectly sure that I saw the Werners standing in the door of the ante-room looking at me while I was being arranged in line. The time this straw hat was placed on my head by the officer I was not aware that the man charged with this larceny wore a straw hat, not till afterwards. I have a recommendation in my pocket from Mr. T.P. Olney.

By consent the following recommendation was put in evidence. "Coney Island, July 13, 1888. To whom it may concern: I can cheerfully recommend George Downs as a steady, Honest and hard-working young man, he having been in my employ for eighteen months and giving me excellent satisfaction in every respect. Respectfully, T. P. Olney, Monte Christo Hotel."

Julius Werner recalled by the District Attorney.

It is not true that when Officer Carey was placing the Defendant in line with three other young men that the door of the room in which I was standing was open and that I was looking at him. There is no door there, it is an open place altogether. When I came in they all stood in a row, I could not see the Defendant before that. It might be about ten or fifteen minutes that I was in the Station House before I went to identify these two men. I repeat that the Detective told me that the man whom he had arrested had no straw hat on at the time but he told me I should not mind the straw hat. The officer did not state to me in the room that he had placed a straw hat upon the Defendants head, I heard my son state that Officer Carey did say that they had put a straw hat on this man's head. It was about ten minutes to nine that I went out of my basement in the evening to witness this parade. There was not much of a crowd passing when I grabbed hold of this young man, he struggled with me about a minute to get away and the people walked on the sidewalk, there was nobody stopped, it was all done so quick, I was not strong enough to hold him, I did not call upon anybody to hold him, I made no outcry; the very moment my son cried out, "has he got it", the young man had broken away from me and then my son jumped over the fence.

Paul Werner recalled. It is not true that while Officer Carey was arranging the boys in line that my father and I stood in the ante-room and looked at them, I did not see any door there, I was not standing where I could see them, all I could see was the Sergeant's desk in front of us, I am positive that persons in the other room could not have seen us. It strikes me that Officer Logan told me that he put a straw hat on the defendant. Before that Detective Logan said, "never mind the straw hat, when we arrested him he had no straw hat on. I am not in the habit of becoming intoxicated and have never been arrested for intoxication, I was pretty drunk on this night, not on the night of the robbery but on the 12th of July, after we left the Court I met a lot of drummers on 14th Street and we went out and had a nice little time.

Testimony in the Court to the Honorable Judge

Officer Carey was recalled and described the rooms in the Station House, and said it was impossible for the prisoner to see what he said he saw.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Leslie DuRoi

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I have known the defendant & have been in his company several times for two months prior to his arrest. The night I lost my property - we roomed together. I know of his character & believe that he played the good & intended to redeem them. He came to me before he was arrested to tell me he had played the good, and for $35⁰⁰ they could be redeemed. The defendant is a young man of excellent character. He comes from a good family and I am informed that this is the first time the defendant has been in any trouble. I feel that if the Court will permit me to withdraw the charge the defendant will never again get himself in trouble. I have received all the property the defendant took from me the night I missed the same.
