against

Lawrence Phoenix.

Before Hon. Frederick B. Smyth, and a Jury.

Indictment filed September 12th, 1887.

New York, September 29th, 1887

APPEARANCES:- For the People, Assistant District Attorney, Ambrose H. Purdy.

For the defendant Alfred Steckler, Esq

Mary Doyle, a witness for the People testified:-

I reside at No. 347 East 60th Street, in this City on the top floor in the rear rooms. My family consists of my husband and two children. On the 26th of June, I saw the prisoner whom I have known for 15 years. I went to bed that night about half past nine o'clock. I locked the door. I awakened at 12 o'clock at night by a noise of the door being shoved in. the door which leads into another apartment in the front. Myself and my husband jumped up and we caught this defendant standing right over us, near our bed. I opened the kitchen door and as I opened it this man passed me, and ran out into the hall. My husband struck him with a club. We found some clothing which had been hanging on the rack piled up and laying on a barrell in the room.

Cross-examination.

Mrs Fagan occupies the front rooms and she was home that night; to my knowledge there was two men in her place; they were drinking in the front rooms. I

I saw a young man named Jimmy Hughes get down for beer. I saw the prisoner in the house early in the evening, but didn't see him go down for beer. The people were noisy in the front room. The door which lead into Mrs Fagans room was locked.

Lawrence Phoenix, the defendant testified:-

I am 20 years of age and reside with Mrs. Burns at N6. 347 East 60th Street,. I was in Mrs. Fagins house in the front rooms on the night in question. I got there about half-past eleven o'clock; there were three other young men there and they asked me if I would go down for a pint of beer, and I went down and got it . We had a good many of glasses of beer, as there were a good many pints ordered. When we were drinking, I heard a woman scream and I says to another young fellow "There's something the matter in the hall". I went out and when I went out this man Mr. Doyle hit me with a stick and knocked me senseless. I ran up the stairs, went down through the next house, and went home. I did not break open the door of Mrs. Doyle's room. She said before Judge Powers that three of us were in her rooms. Nobody in my presence forced open that door. I didn't see the door open. I went down stairs for beer four times.

Cross-examination.

I was in this ladies room, standing near her bed as she has testified. I was surprised when her husband struck me with the club. I never saw Mr. Doyle before that night. . . My business is a peddler. I don't know<sup>3</sup> anything about this ladies clothing being piled up on a barrel. I was arrested in 1884 for homicide; it was at the Cleveland Election; a lot of boys tackled me and I hit a boy and the boy died. I was convicted of Assault in the Third Degree and got a year in the Penitentiary. I ran away because I didn't want to get arrested for a thing I didn't do.. I ran up to the roof because I thought if I went down stairs that man would kill me with the club.

0404

James J. Nolan, for the Defendant, testified that he had seen the defendant working around the streets in his neighborhood peddling and he was apparently trying to make an honest living.

THE JURY FOUND THE PRISONER GUILTY.
