Dear Sir—

Your reported remarks in the press concerning the possibility as well as the impropriety of cases being "pigeonholed" about the District Attorney's Office forcibly recalls to me a famous case that has long been waiting to await the "disposition of ^{prison} ~~land~~ cases," I mean Georgia's Hastings 110 W. 45th St.
This case affords such a rare opportunity to make a brilliant reputation that it is astonishing that none of the assistants have pushed it very vigorously.

As your remarks were unofficial it will not be considered indelicate to call your unofficial attention to this case when it may be productive of so much public good.

Dear Sir:-

An investigation by this Association as to the character of the prisoner shows that he has been employed by Harper & Bros, Publishers, (Mailing Department) for seven (7) years. Mr. Boyd the Foreman under whom Hayden worked says that during all that time he never knew him to be guilty of a dishonest action. The prisoner is a single man and has no influential friends or relatives and as far as can be learned, has never been in trouble before.

We most earnestly and respectfully recommend that he be committed to the Elmira Reformatory

Hon. Judge McMahon,

Dear Sir:

I am very much interested in Mr. J. T. Hayden, who is to come before you this morning. When I was General Eastern Manager of Swift and Company's interest (general offices #105 Barclay Street) about seven years ago, I employed Mr. Hayden as Cashier. Mr. Hayden served Swift and Company's interests under me faithfully, and has since that time up to last summer held an honorable position with them. Up to that time Mr. Hayden performed his duties faithfully and lived an exemplary life.

I have every reason to believe that his misdeed was committed only when he was under the influence of drink, and that he was brought to that point of losing his senses through drink by having fallen into bad hands in carrying through a business deal that he had on hand for the interests of his employers.

Having had an extended experience in handling men, I have grown to be very slow in asking or extending any leniency, but this case I feel stands out from the ordinary and appeals to me as being an exceptional one and deserving of your kind consideration and clemency.

Yours very truly,

President
