deposes and says, that on the 25 day of August 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the daytime, the following property, viz:

One Horse Collar and one pair of Coachman's Trousers, the whole being of the value of Fifty Dollars $50.00

the property of

Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by George C. Wade (Worker) from the fact, that previous to the above date defendant was in the employ of deponent as a Coachman; that deponent discharged defendant on August 29, 1892; and after he had left deponent missed said property and deponent is informed by one John Turner, of No. 30 West 53 Street, that he, said Turner, saw defendant take said property from deponent's stable, located at No. 550 - 7th Avenue, in this city, on said date and go away with it; that deponent is also informed by Officer Phelan, of the 22nd Precinct Police, that the defendant brought him to a saloon No. 1578 Broadway where said affiant found a pair of Coachman's trousers which deponent identifies as part of the missing property. Therefore deponent accuses defendant of having stolen said property and prays that he may be dealt with as the law directs.

New York, September 23, 1892.

Honorable Frederick Smyth, Recorder.

Sir:-

I have the honor to submit the following report relative to Patrick Walker, charged with robbery:

He resided at No. ¹⁴⁰ East 22nd Street with his mother who is a hard working widow woman; her husband died sixteen years ago. She has five children and all of them are good with the exception of Patrick who has been led away by bad company.

About 4 years ago, when he was quite young he got into trouble for passing counterfeit money and served one year in Elmira Reformatory.

The neighbors in No. 409 East 22nd St. say the family is very quiet and the boys go in and out peaceably and they have never annoyed them.

His mother says he worked in a button factory and also that he done odd jobs from time to time.

Enclosed I hand you a copy of his conviction in the United States Court.

Respectfully submitted.

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

George Williams

for the reasons following, to wit: that on the above date about 3 o'clock in the morning deponent woke up and saw the defendant going out of his rear window. Deponent ran out of his bed-room door and caught defendant as he was leaving the house by the door leading to the street.
Deponent is informed by his wife Ellen Halpin that she closed said shutters on the night of the 19th of August 1892 and that she also recognizes him as the man she saw leaving her room by the rear window.

Wherefore defendant charges the defendant with the property of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

John Williams (now here)

for the reasons following, to wit:

Defendant came into deponent's store at 335 West 17th Street on said date to buy some article. During the purchase the defendant had an opportunity to see where deponent kept her money in an inner room. Defendant gave deponent an order to put up some candy and he went out saying he would be back in a few moments to get the candy. While deponent was putting up the candy she heard a noise in the back room and then saw the defendant there and he was hurrying out from near the trunk where defendant kept said money. Defendant caused the arrest of the defendant and defendant is informed by Policeman Daniel J.

Moloney who arrested the defendant, that a short time after the defendant was arrested, a roll of money similar to that stolen from defendant was found on the floor of the saloon near where defendant sat. Defendant charges defendant with burglary for the reason that the only way he could have entered said premises was by raising the rear portion of said room. by which window defendant made his exit from defendant's

BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

CATHERINE WOGAN.

STATEMENT OF CASE.

Mrs. Catherine Wogan, or Vogan, is charged with the ABANDONMENT of child James Wogan, aged 14 months, on Sept. 4th, 1892, at the premises No. 604 West 49th Street, in violation of Section 287 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.

WITNESSES:

Mrs. Mary Gebhardt.
Officer Schultes of N. Y. S. P. C. C.
Officer Dalz of 25th Precinct.

MRS. MARY GEBHARDT, of 604 West 49th Street, will testify:
That a woman known as Vogan (the defendant) on Sept. 4th, 1892 living at same address, left baby James Vogan, aged fourteen months with her, while she went out to obtain some beer; but "that she never came back".

OFFICER SCHULTES of 108 E. 23" St., an officer of The N.Y.S. P.C.C., will testify:
That, in answer to a dispatch, he called at P. H. Q. on Sept. 5th and was informed by Sergeant on duty that a child, named James Vogan, aged 14 ^{months} ~~years~~, had been brought there by Officer Murphy of 22nd Precinct, who had received same from the above mentioned Mrs. Gebhardt, who stated that its mother had abandoned it. That officer then called at 604 West 49th Street, and ascertained from tenants that child's mother, the defendant, Mrs. Vogan, or Wogan, did not belong there, but had been temporarily stopping with a Mrs. McManus of that address, had left child in care of Mrs. Gebhardt, gone out (she stated) for beer, and "never come back". Officer was informed that defendant's general character was that of "a perfect bum", and that she had no apparent means of support. Officer also ascertained from a Mrs. Gregor, living on 11th Avenue, between 42" and 43" Streets, that Mrs. Vogan, the defendant, had some time previously called on her, and after she had left a waist and dress had also gone.

OFFICER WILL FURTHER TESTIFY, - that he was informed by two women, living at 604 West 49th Street, who will testify if necessary, that defendant, on a former occasion had abandoned a child in her mother-in-law's front hall; that the mother-in-law took the child in but that it afterwards died.

Witness will also testify that on Sept. 6th, 1892, he reported result of his examination to Justice White at 2nd District Police Police Court, who committed child James Vogan to Dep't of C. & C. That he (Witness) later took child to Supt. Blake of C. & C., and

Officer Dalz of 25th Precinct will testify to arrest of Defendant, if necessary.

N. Y. GENERAL SESSIONS

THE PEOPLE

AGAINST

CATHARINE WOGAN.

PENAL CODE, § 287.

BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

BRIEF HISTORY OF WOGAN FAMILY.

JULY 23RD, 1890.

At 2-30 A. M., an officer of Society arrested one Carson Vogan, aged 11 years, of 219 West 26th Street, while sleeping in basement of "Press" building. Boy claimed that parents John and Cassie lived at above address with other children William 15 years, Lillie 8 years and George 17 months. Protestant. Officer later called at address given but could find no such family, - boy being held at Tombs Court for examination until following day.

July 24th, A. M., Mrs. Cassie Vogan being present, case was presented to Justice White, who cautioned woman and then discharged son to her.

AUG. 12TH, 1890.

At 11-05 A. M. dispatch received that 19th Precinct would have case in court (2nd District) at 2-00 P. M.

On afternoon of August 12th, 1890, officer at court mentioned found that dispatch referred to the arrest of Carson Vogan and one other boy for stealing lead pipe from an unoccupied building. Vogan then claimed to reside at 585 Eleventh Avenue, and an investigation by our officer at that address ascertained that boys parents John and Cassie were both alive, man being a laborer, family Protestant, and otherwise as in previous case.

On August 13th, 1890, officer reported to Justice O'Reilly at Second District Police Court result of his investigation, who ordered complaints of juvenile delinquency made out and then, on their mothers' affidavits, committed both boys to the N. Y. Juvenile Asylum.

FEBRUARY 23RD, 1891,

Justice McMahon at Fourth District Police Court requested Society to investigate case of John Vogan of 604 West 49th St., rear house, second flight up, who, at Society's office, stated that he desired to place son, Carson, 11 years old, in an institution as he had no one to care for boy. Other children -- William 13, Lillie 8, and George 1 year and 8 months -- were being cared for by grandmother at address given. Man claimed to be a stone-cutter and worked in Weehawken. Was willing to pay towards his support if boy was committed. Wife, Catharine, he stated, was a drunkard and asserted that her whereabouts was unknown.

On February 24th, 1891, officer called at above address and ascertained that man's general statement was true; that wife was then awaiting trial at Special Sessions for larceny; and that Carson was a very wild boy and had been arrested several times. Man's name is Wogan (not Vogan). Directed to court.

Feb. 26th, 1891, on our officer's presentation of case to Justice Ryan, at 4th District Police Court, and on the father's affidavit of juvenile delinquency, child Carson was committed by the Justice to the New York Juvenile Asylum, court commitment being given father for delivery at Institution.

JUNE 23RD, 1892.

Anonymous complaint received, stating that babies were left alone all day from 6-00 A. M. until 11-00 or 12-00 P. M. and otherwise neglected and illtreated by their drunken mother at 606 West 43rd Street.

Officer, on above date, called at address given and ascertained that complaint was true; that it referred to a Mrs. Catherine Vogan (or Wogan), who was living with husband John, a stone cutter, and children Lillie 10 years, George 4 years and James 4 months. Husband drank somewhat, but worked rather steadily in Hoboken.

On June 24th, at 8-30 P. M., officer again called at Vogan apartments (consisting of two poorly furnished rooms), found that woman had been on a "tear" that afternoon and was then convalescing; man was at home, having just arrived from work, and admitted that wife drank. Officer, being afraid to leave children Lillie and George with woman, brought them to Society's Reception Rooms and served notice on both parents to be in Second District Police Court on following day.

On June 25th, 1892, man appeared in 2nd D. P. Court, where officer went with children. The case was presented to Justice Grady; but, as the man showed letters of recommendation from his employer and from Ex-Assemblyman Kerrigan, presented facts that he was able to properly care for them, and promised that he would do so, that he was about to move to Hoboken and that wife would not be allowed longer to have anything to do with them, - the Justice cautioned man and delivered the children into his custody.

The defendants Lewis & Stapp were employees of Clarence Wolfe. Wolfe had furnished gold lions with the compensation. The fact that gold which Wolfe claimed, and in the possession of that claim, he openly and avowedly went and took the articles, this would constitute no crime (S. 118 Penal Code) though when he entered the premises, in possession of the gold lions, it would constitute a crime. This enactment could not be so construed. When the money is independently of any technicality, I do not know G. Lawrence, could possibly be held in the case & therefore recommending that the indictment be changed to a charge of receiving stolen goods.

certain house, known as No 25 8th Street in said City situated in the 13th Ward, the same being a dwelling house, in which there were at the time of the said setting on fire, human beings, to wit, Jacob Seidel and Rebecca Goodman, tenants renting apartments in said house.
— in that the said Mayer H Rothbaum did feloniously set in his room two separate fires, using candles therefor, one fire being set in the front part and the other fire in the rear part of such room in the basement, used by said Rothbaum as a shop, the fires being now twenty feet apart — Further that said Rothbaum was the last person to leave and lock up such basement near the time above mentioned taking the keys thereof with him and subsequently unlocking the door on being informed of the outbreak of fire in the said basement.

Further that the property of said Rothbaum was then and there insured in The Manufacturers' and Traders' Co-operative Fire Insurance Company of N.Y. and Kings Co. under policy No 15007, dated July 26 1892, in the sum of $1000.00 and in The National Exchange Co-op. Fire Insurance Co. of N.Y. and Kings Co. under policy 5738, dated August 8, 1892.

in the sum of $1000.⁰⁰/₁₀₀, making $2000 ⁰⁰/₁₀₀ insurance, which amount was and is in excess of the value of the insured property contained in such premises.
All of which is ^{set} forth on information and belief.

Wherefore defendant prays said
Rothmann may be dealt with according to law

COUNTY OF NEW YORK, BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN, SS:

" 2 LAWRENCE F. WOLFE, being duly sworn, deposes and says; that he is the defendant in the above entitled prosecution; and was on the 26th day of September, 1892, indicted by the Grand Jury of New York County, for the crime of burglary in the third degree. That on or about the 18th day of August, 1892, deponent was arrested on a warrant issued by Police Justice Ryan, and appeared before the said Justice for examination. That pending said examiation, deponent was committed to bail in the sum of One thousand ($1000.00) Dollars; and that deponent's wife, EMMA WOLFE, became surety on the bail bond for said amount.
That pending said examination, and before the day for which it was set down, deponent left the jurisdiction temporarily, and his bond was thereupon ordered forfeited. That deponent resided without the State of New York for a period of about one (1) year. That the facts constituting the alleged crime for which deponent was held for examination, and subsequently indicted, are as follows:--

" 3

That on or about April 20th, 1892, deponent entered into a partnership with CHARLES A. FRENSKY, (now known as French) the complaining witness herein, for the purpose of carrying on the business of painting and decorating. That subsequently and on or about April 21st, 1892, one PATRICK B. HANLON, employed deponent and said Frensky, under a written contract subscribed by deponent and the said Frensky, as partners, to paint the interior and exterior of premises known as No. 448 West 54th Street, in the City of New York. That thereupon deponent and the said Frensky, proceeded to do said work. That in the course of the completion of said work, a dispute arose between deponent and the said Frensky, owing to failure of the said Frensky to pay the employees, and for material used in the painting of said premises. That deponent was requested by the said Frensky to advance him the sum of Forty ($40.00) Dollars, whereupon deponent insisted that the scaffolding and falls, which belonged to the said Frensky, and which were used in the course of said work, should be delivered to deponent as security for the return to him of the said loan of Forty ($40.00) Dollars; whereupon the said Frensky pointed to the said scaffolding and falls which were then on the front wall of said premises, and said to deponent that thereafter, all of said scaffolding and falls should be his, to hold as security for the return of the said money. That the said scaffolding remained on said premises for a period of four (4) days, after they had been given to deponent, and constructively passed in his possession; and during said period, the said Frensky recognized deponent as the owner of the said property, by stating at various times to persons with whom the said partnership were doing business, that the scaffolding belonged to deponent. That at the end of said four (4) days, the said Frensky took the said scaffolding and falls into his actual possession, and stored the same in premises No. 337 West Broadway, in the City of New York, where the said Frensky was doing business under the firm name and style of "L. GEORGE & CO." That upon learning that said scaffolding and falls had been removed by the said Frensky, deponent went to the said premises, and believing that he had a legal right to take his property, wherever he should find it, forcibly entered said premises with the aid of two of his employees and removed said scaffolding and falls; and certain other property belonging to deponent viz: a carpenter's plane, and seven paint brushes. That thereafter deponent was arrested and charged with the crime of burglary as hereinbefore stated. That deponent begs leave to refer to a copy of Notice of Lien hereto annexed, and to a letter written by said Hanlon, showing that the said Frensky and deponent were partners.

That deponent now resides at Kensico, New York, and has resided there for the past four (4) years. That deponent is Twenty-seven (27) years of age, and has been married for the past six (6) years; and has always lived with his wife during said period, except for the period of about one (1) year during which time deponent was out of the jurisdiction, and for a period of about seven months, during which time deponent's wife lived as a domestic.
