Edward Kelly for many years.

I know them to be most respectable people and feel very sorry that the boy through evil associations has brought such trouble and disgrace to his family.

His present diffculty may be a lesson to the boy; and I believe with his parents that a short term very long term would be a punish-

The "Terror" of Bankers and Brokers.
"This is a good arrest," remarked Justice Smith, at the Tombs Police Court to-day, when George King, better known as "Frenchy," whose photograph is numbered 1,531 in the Rogues' Gallery, was arraigned at the bar. He is a notorious thief. Since his return from the State Prison, where he was for ten years, a few months ago, he has so successfully played the soap game on bankers and brokers that they nicknamed him the "Terror." His plan is to enter an office with a box of soap in his hand, and when it happens that the office is unoccupied he takes whatever first reaches him. In this manner James Snyder, a clerk in the broker's office of Herbert & Allen, at No. 72 Broad street, was robbed of a gold watch, chain and locket of the value of $200. He reported his loss to Inspector Byrnes, who placed Detective Sergeant Hardy and Dorsey on the case. The detectives found him last night and arrested him. He was placed among twenty people at the Tombs Police Court this morning for identification, and he was promptly recognized by Mr. Snyder. Five other brokers recognized him, but, deeming that the one complaint against him was sufficient, they left without making any complaint. Justice Smith held the prisoner in $2,000 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. The detectives hope to recover all of the stolen property.
