Maurice A. Schuch
vs. Robert J. Rinnelle
The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York by this indictment accuse

J. Rinnelle of the crime of Obtaining goods by means of false pretences
committed as follows:
The said Maurice A. Schuch and Robert J. Rinnelle late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid on the Thirteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent felonously to cheat and defraud one

Helen M. Lewis

did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designly, falsely pretend and represent to

The said Helen M. Lewis

That there was a Theatrical Company or Combination known as the Daniel Rochat Combination and that the said Maurice A. Schuch was then and then the manager and agent thereof and that the said Robert J. Rinnelle was the treasurer thereof and that the said Combination had been engaged by the managers and Proprietors of the Boston Theatre in the City of Boston to give theatrical performances at said Theatre to begin on the twenty eighth day of March in the year 1872 that the said Maurice A.

Schuch as such manager and agent then and there had authority to engage the services of actresses to perform parts in the plays to be performed by the said Combination and to to make contracts for such services and to engage the said Helen M. Lewis to play leading parts in a certain play called Daniel Rochat not only in the said City of Boston but in all the principal Cities of United States for the term of two years at a weekly salary of four dollars and traveling expenses that the said Helen M. Lewis would have to get her wardrobe on said day because the said Company was to go to Boston on the next day and that the said Wardrobe would cost the sum of five hundred dollars and that they could not would purchase the same for said sum

And the said Hellen M. Lewis then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Maurice A. Schwab and Robert J. Runnels and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said

Maurice A. Schwab and Robert J. Runnels a sum of money to wit the sum of five hundred dollars in money lawful money of the United States of the value of five hundred dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Hellen M. Lewis and the said Maurice A. Schwab and Robert J. Runnels did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said Sum of money

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said Hellen M. Lewis of the same.

0020

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Maurice A Schwab Was not then and there the manager and agent of the said Daniel Rochat Combination nor was the said Robert J. Runnels then and there the Treasurer thereof and the said Maurice A Schwab did not have any authority to engage actresses to perform parts in the plays to be performed by the said Combination and he had no authority to make any contract with the said Helen M. Lewis and Whereas in truth and in fact there was no Combination called the Daniel Rochat Combination for which the said Maurice and Robert were authorized to act in any manner whatsoever and the said Combination had been engaged to perform at the said Boston Theatre and was not to go to Boston on the said next day and the said Helen M. Lewis had not her wardrobe for that reason

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Maurice A Schwab and Robert J. Runnels to the said Helen M. Lewis was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Maurice A Schwab and Robert J. Runnels well knew the said pretences and representations so by them made as aforesaid to
 to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Maurice A Schwab and Robert J. Runnels by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Helen M. Lewis the sum of five hundred dollars ^{in money} of the value of five hundred dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of

with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud her of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Maurice A. Schwab

and Robert J. Rummels both now here and acting in concert did with intent to feloniously cheat and defraud deponent did knowingly and designedly falsely pretend and represent to deponent that he Schwab and he Rummels were connected with the theatrical combination known as the "Daniel Rochak Combination" that he Schwab was the manager ^{and agent} and that he Rummels was the Treasurer of said combination said Schwab then engaged deponent to play leading parts in said play of Daniel Rochak in the principal cities of the United States for the and that he was perfectly reliable and that all representations made by said Schwab to deponent were true that he had known said Schwab for a number of years. That on said 13th day of March, 1882 said Schwab and Rummels called on deponent and ^{said Schwab} said to her that she would have to get her wardrobe on that date as they were to go to Boston the next day. Deponent asked them how much said wardrobe would cost where said Schwab said to deponent that as he was acquainted with the form of
