the property of Deponent and of her husband Carleton B. Valentine

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Emil Voegtlin, now here, from the following facts. At said time deponent left said box containing said property in a room in said House occupied by deponent, and shortly after it was missing therefrom. Deponent is informed by Charles Sepler, the proprietor of said House that on or about the 11th day of December 1882 said box, here shown, was found in the roof of said house and brought to him by Thomas Baren an employee in said hotel and that said box had been broken open and contained none of the above specified articles.
Deponent is informed by Eugene L. La Forge that in the month of January 1883 he saw in the possession of

Prop Irving House
NEW YORK

Sir, Will you kindly send me the name & address of young Emil Weadlin's father.
In Sep. '82 young Weadlin skipped his board bill at my house after running a bill to the amt of $17.75. On the papers he was arrested yesterday for stealing at my house.
I want to write his father & if will not settle the bill, soon as you get through with him

Judge Boutwell,
Esteemed Sir:

Pardon this presumption I would respectfully claim your Honor's attention for a few moments regarding the welfare of Emil Weigeltin!!

From personal observations, during the 15 months I have known him, I have distinguished many excellent traits, and consider him a man worth saving, and to redeem him from a prison life, and its influences. He has had entire charge of my house, during the absence of my family, which has furnished him many opportunities to be dishonest, had he been so inclined, has been kind, and attentive to me during my illness, in preference to spending his evenings, &c. where, visiting my house most every evening when in the city, in fact spending all this spare time among us, has often discussed topics of temperance, and his desires to avoid all temptations, and former associations, I know nothing of his former offense, until the present trouble, and I only know the very best of him, would

to-day trust him as quickly as any man I know.

I beg your Honor to be lenient, make the punishment light as possible.
I hope your Honor will send him to the Reformatory for I think with that seclusion from a prison life, from that encouragement, we will in a few years, observe the many excellent traits expand and see him step forth an honorable, truthful man, susceptible to the respect of all men. The good seed has taken root grant it will prosper,
and not be uprooted now when all is so prosperous for its good.

0692

He has attended the church with which I am connected very frequently, and manifested great interest, being liked by all who met him there.

Asking your Honor's indulgence, and assist him to the straight path.

Yours very respectfully,
Samuel C. Haile
