Know all men by these presents,

That I, John Wunderlich

Now, therefore, in consideration of one dollar and other good and valuable consideration to me paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, I do hereby sell, assign, transfer and set over unto Consumers Brewing Co of New York City successors or assigns, said license, together with all money due and to become due thereunder, and all rebates to which I am entitled on said license, and all claims or demands of every kind for the recovery of any part of the license fee paid therefor under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 112 of the Laws of 1896, known as the "Liquor Tax Law."

To have and to hold, with all benefits, profits and advantages thereof, unto the said Consumers Brewing Co their successors and assigns, in as full and beneficial manner as I, by virtue of the said license, may or might have if this assignment had not been made; and I hereby make, constitute and appoint the above named assignee my true and lawful attorney irrevocably, to demand, sue for, collect and receive in my name or otherwise, but at the said assignee's own proper cost and expense, any and all moneys which are due or shall hereafter become due from the City of New York upon the said license, or by reason of the termination or surrender thereof, and to execute and deliver any quittance, receipt, satisfaction of judgment or other document which may be good and sufficient, or requisite or proper for that purpose.

And I, as an inducement for the payment of the consideration hereinbefore referred to, hereby state, represent and warrant that I am the sole and exclusive owner of the said license and all rights and claims accruing thereunder, and that neither the said license nor the claim hereby assigned has been previously assigned, hypothecated, or in any wise encumbered.
