Indictment filed June 13th 1890.
Indicted for Grand Larceny in the second degree.

New York, June 30th 1890.

APPEARANCES: For the People Asst. Dist. Atty. J. W. Goff
For the defendant Mr. W. H. Buttner .

JAMES DYCHE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a catere and waiter and live at No. 117 W. 30th Street in this city . On the night of the 2nd of February this year A box containing jewelry was stolen for me at my house . MY wife was lying dead in the house at the time I missed the box . The box contained all my own and my wifes jewelry; among other jewelry was a horse shoe diamond pin belonging to my elf . . I valued this pin at $50. During the night previous to the 22nd the defendant had been sitting up with me and he was in and out of the kitchen where I had placed this box . I did not see the defendant take the box. He went away from my house the following morning and did not return or two days . I sent the defendant to the Country Club at Pelham to attend to some business for me on the 22nd in the morning . It was the night between the 21 t and the 22nd that this box was missed by me . After my wife was buried I made a complaint at the police station and in consequence of information obtained by the officers the defendant was arrested . I went to the jewelry store of Mr. Donnelly and identified my pin. He told me that this defendant in company with another man had brought the pin to him and he had bought it. The defendant was searched in the station house and a number of small articles of jewelry found on him. I recognize the jewelry now shown me as part of the property which was contained in this tin box and which was stolen from me. I cannot be mistaken in my identification of the articles of jewelry.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I have lived in New York city twenty-five years and have all that time been in business. I have always kept this jewelry in this tin box.? After my wife died I placed it on a shelf in the kitchen. I did not discover that it was gone until the morning of the 22nd. When I discovered its loss I spoke to different people in the house about it, but none of them had seen it. The defendant was absent from the house at the time I missed this box of jewelry.

HENRY DONNELLY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a jeweler, doing business at No. 497 Sixth Ave. I have been in business for fifteen years. A few days after the 22nd of February the defendant in company with another young man came into my store. The defendant introduced the other gentleman, saying, "This young man is a friend of mine, he has lost some money on the races, and he desires to sell his diamond pin. I paid the man $70 for the pin and he went away.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The defendant came into my store in company with the young man who had the pin. They both went out together and in an hour's time the young man returned and said he would sell the pin at my price, $70. The defendant was not present at the time I paid over the money for the pin.

THOMAS F. HAYES, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a detective officer attached to the 19th Precinct. The complainant made a complaint at the station house about the loss of his property. In consequence of information given me by another party I arrested the defendant. I searched him and found a pair of cuff buttons on him which the defendant afterward identified as his property. The defendant positively denied that he had stolen the property and claimed the property belonged to him.

D E F E N C E .

WALTER B. MOORCROFT, a witness for the defendant, sworn and testified:

The defendant is my uncle. I have known him since he was a child. His reputation for honesty, and for truth and veracity is good.

JAMES MOORCROFT, the defendant, sworn and testified:

I am forty-nine years of age. I have never been arrested, except once for being under the influence of liquor. I have worked as a waiter for some of the best families in this city. I am acquainted with the complainant and was employed by him at the time of this occurrence. On the night of the 21st of February his wife was dead, and I sat up with him all night. On the following morning I left the house by his orders to go to the country club at Pelham. I went to Pelham on the nine o'clock train on the 22nd. I remained there all day and returned back to the complainant's house in the evening. I did not steal this tin box of jewelry, nor did I have anything to do with the stealing of it. Some few days after the 22nd I was in a pool room, and I met a young man in there who told me he had lost all his money betting on the horses. He showed me a diamond pin in his scarf and asked me if I knew of any place where he could dispose of it. I took him over to Mr. Donnelly's store and introduce him to Mr. Donnelly. I then went out of Mr. Donnelly's store and I do not know whether the young man sold the pin or not. I have not seen the young man since. The cuff buttons which were found upon me belonged to me. I purchased them twelve years ago for seventy-five cents.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I state positively that the cuff buttons found on me are mine; there were two pair of cuff buttons found in my pockets. One pair I bought in England, and the other pair I bought in Nassau St. for seventy-five cents. I state positively that I did not steal the tin box and know nothing of its whereabouts. I may have seen it if it was around the house, but have no recollection of what it looked like. I have always been a waiter and have references from the different famiels for whom I have worked. There was another young man named George sitting up with the complainant and myself on the night of the 21st. I could not say whether he was in the kitchen on this night in question or not. I was somewhat under the influence of liquor at the time I was arrested. I could not tell you the name of the place in Nassau St. where I bought the cuff buttons. I have worn these cuff buttons while I have been in the employ of the complainant and he has seen me wear them. I have never had any dispute with the complainant; we have always been good friends.

0020

GEORGE FITZPATRICK, a witness for the people, in rebuttal.

I am a waiter by occupation, and on the 22nd of February last was in the employ of the complainant. I have known the defendant for some time but have never seen him wearing the cuff buttons which have been produced here. I was the person who sat up in company with the defendant and the complainant.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.

five dollars and twenty five cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of five dollars and twenty five cents, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Simon Friedenstein.

And the said Harmon J. Morton did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said Simon Friedenstein, by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Simon Friedenstein of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper writing which he the said Harmon J. Morton so as aforesaid then and there produced and delivered to the said Simon Friedenstein was not then and there a good and valid order for the payment of money, and was not of the value of seven dollars and sixty nine cents or of any value, but was then and there wholly worthless.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Harmon J. Morton to the said Simon Friedenstein was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said Harmon J. Morton at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Harmon J. Morton in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Simon Friedenstein
