TESTIMONY.

Officer John J. Cassin P.H. Precinct being sworn says: On May 24/88 about 1 P.M. I was passing Cor Spring & Sullivan St. I took notice of the prisoner Henry Cairns running through Spring St & a crowd following him As soon as he saw me he stopped I could not find out what was the matter, & I asked him what was the matter & he said he had a little mess round the corner.
Some one in the crowd said he had stabbed a man with a dung fork. I went around to Macdonald St & saw a man lying on the sidewalk, I asked the deceased if the prisoner Henry Cairns was the man who had stabbed him, I asked him if that was the man who had done the stabbing he said "Yes." In the meantime another officer had been ahead of me & had sent for an Ambulance When I found out that I took the prisoner to the Station House, When I came back they were putting Thomas Jagan in the Ambulance

And I again asked him if it was the prisoner who stabbed him & if he would make a complaint against him if he got better and he said Yes. I did not see the stabbing, I asked the prisoner and he said he had thrown the fork, dung & all, on the wagon not intending to injure the deceased.

Henry Rubins being sworn says:
I reside at 273 Spring St. I am foreman of the Livory Stable <sup>449 Sullivan St</sup> where this happened. It is owned by W. H. Thorp. I did not know the deceased only that he came after dung that day. I have seen the prisoner come after dung several times. I was in the back of the stable when going on 2nd. When I heard the deceased and the prisoner having hard words I could not hear what they said as I was too far off. I looked up & I saw the fork going down on the floor. I saw the deceased getting down from his cart & I saw & I saw him walk out to the sidewalk. Then I saw the prisoner get into his cart & drive away. Then I saw the deceased go after the cart.
He ran after it. I stood outside & did not see any more till I saw the officer coming up Prince St. with the prisoner Later on he came to the stable.

I reside at 149 Sullivan St. I am a Coach driver employed by Mr Pinckney. I did not know the deceased. I was standing outside the door of the Livery stable 149 Sullivan St. bet. 1 & 2 P.M. don't recollect the date. when I saw the prisoner come out the door - get on his Cart & drive off.
He did not appear to be in a hurry. He went down Avon. I remained there all the afternoon. I saw the deceased run down the street & bleeding. This was immediately ~~after~~ after the prisoner got on his Cart & drove off. He did not say anything to me as he passed. I did not hear him holla. He ran after the cart.
I asked the foreman of the stable what was the matter & he said a man was stabled. I did not see the occurrence & don't know anything of the cause of it. I did not hear them quarrel.

to work with, I know the prisoner about the same, I was at the stable down in the dung hole at the time. There were three of us there. The deceased Jagan Chased a man away. There were 4 carts sent there. Jagan & I arrived first. The prisoner came the 4th. Another man came before that & Jagan told him he could not get a load & he had better go away. We are specially sent to ~~the~~ a place to get manure.
There were about 6 loads of dung there.
Jagan said to the prisoner "You might as well go too, as you won't get a load. The other man had left." Cairnes then took off his coat & vest & jumped down the hole saying "There's plenty of stuff here for all of us." The prisoner & Jagan had a couple of words together.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I was more at fault than the defendant (my father) in the matter of the assault and the punishment I received at his hands I deserved more or less.

Did not know at the time the complaint was being framed in the Police Court that I was taking steps in an action so serious to the defendant my father as it now turns out to be. I have no desire or right to press the charge and desire to withdraw same and exonerate my father.

The defendant was a little under the influence of drink, he came into my store to buy some goods, and the trouble arose from my refusing to sell him any thing, I could have avoided being assaulted, as I could have got out of the way, but I fought back at him, and I know he would not strike me if he was sober, I made inquiries about his character and found he was a hard working man, and never was in any trouble before, therefore I do not desire to prefer the charge against him, I never swore in the Police Court that he had thrown the scales at me, I said he threw the scales off the counter on the floor, we are since the best of friends.
