New York, Nov. 21st 1887.

R. B. Martine, Esq.,

District Attorney.

My dear Sir:-

The subpoena for Irwin to attend the Grand Jury in the case of one Ritsch, charged with illegal practice of medicine, was brought to this office on Tuesday last. The County's Society's Agent died on Monday, and the presentation of this case to the Grand Jury was therefore postponed by your office. The evidence both in this case and in that of one Eckhardt, which is also to go before the Grand Jury, is furnished by Mrs. Irwin, the wife of the deceased, who will appear now at any time in answer to ~~the~~ a subpoena. Mrs. Irwin lives at 125th Street and 10th Ave. where it would be very inconvenient for you to have her served, but if the subpoena is sent to this office a day before the case is called, I will see that she receives it, and is present to give evidence.

I am very truly yours,

4-1
The People v Court of General Sessions. Part I
Morris Ritter Before Judge Cowing. Nov. 30. 1887
Indictment for grand larceny.

Morris Rinheim, sworn and examined.
I live No 348 East Eighty Second St. I recollect being on Broadway near the Post Office on the 4th of Nov. I am an office boy in a lawyer's office, Morris Endermeir in Temple Court.
What time of day was it you were passing the Post Office on Broadway upon the 4th of Nov.?
About two o'clock. Did you have on your watch? Yes sir. Where did you have your watch? Right in this pocket. In the right hand pocket of the vest? Yes sir. Was there a chain on it just the same as that? Yes sir. Did you see this boy, this defendant? Yes sir.
Tell the jury what he did and what you did?
I was walking along the Post Office there and he was standing among a gang of boys there,
and he came up to me and snatched
my watch, and then a witness saw him pass it to another boy. You did not see him do it? No sir. What did he (the prisoner) say? He said, I can search him if he has got it. When he snatched your watch what did you say to him? I said to him, I will get him arrested if he does not give me the watch. So he began to curse and said, that I can search him; he took his handkerchief I did not care to search him. So an officer came along and I got him arrested. Did you see him take the watch out of your pocket? Yes. Did you say you had a witness who saw him pass it to another boy? Yes; he lives at 553 Paul St; he is not here today. There were a lot of other boys around there. Cross examined. It is not possible that I could be mistaken although there was a crowd of boys around there of about six or seven. I was not looking at the prisoner when he snatched the watch; after the jerk I saw him taking it; he snatched the watch from the chain. I stood looking at him while he was taking it away from me. I saw his features. I did not see him give it to another boy, but he stood still I kept my eye on him all the time. I first felt the tug and then I looked down and saw the watch in his hand; then I began to cry and told him to give me my watch and then the officer came along and I got him arrested. I stood there with him and the prisoner stood still. The other boys were behind the prisoner when he snatched the watch. I never got the watch back.

Matthew Loran, sworn and examined. I am a police officer, I arrested the prisoner on the 4th of Nov. I was going through Murray St. I saw the crowd, I went in the centre and found this boy and the prisoner; the boy was crying and he claimed the prisoner had his watch; he says, No, you can search me, I have not got his watch; quite a big crowd was around him and a boy stepped up to me, and in the presence of the prisoner told me he saw the prisoner take the watch and hand it to one of his pals. The prisoner said, I might search him, he did not have it, he did not take it. The other boy who told me that gave his name as August Heiser, I took down his address 553 Beal St. I did not give the name to the Police Magistrate. I told the boy to write it down, he wrote it down in his book and the clerk did not get it.

Cross Examined. When I came up the prisoner was standing, nobody had hold of him; the complainant was standing there at the time. There was about five hundred in a ring and a crowd of people around, but nobody had hold of the prisoner. The Counsel would not admit the value of the watch. The Court said it was immaterial what its value was.

Morris Ritter, sworn and examined in his own behalf. I live No 7 Avenue B with my father and mother; they do not know that I am being tried today. I strip tobacco. I used to work for Ottenburgh in Twenty Third St. between First and Second Aves. I have never been arrested for anything and never have been in a Station house before this. I did not steal the boy's watch. I was down at the City Hall Park and the Post office. I saw a couple of boys playing dice and was looking at them and the complainant was also. Another man was standing in front of us and he ran away. About ten minutes after that he came to me, "Young fellow, give me my watch." I have not got your watch, I said. search me. He did not want to search me I suppose because there was a big crowd around, and the officer took me. I did not try to get away. Cross Examined I recollect being examined before the Magistrate. I had been out of a job that day and was not working for a month and a half. I am in this country seven years. I only went to school one week and cannot read or write. I have been selling newspapers. I always worked and brought my wages home. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
