Larceny, and Receiving Stolen Goods.

419L

The People } Court of General Sessions Before Judge John O'Brien } Gildersleeve. January 20. 1887 Indictment for grand larceny and receiving stolen goods.
 John T. Metcalfe, sworn and examined. I live at 18 West Thirtieth St. I was the owner of a pitcher of which the remnants now shown me are a part. On the 10th of January I took it to Tiffany's to have it repaired, of having insulators put on; with that exception it was in a perfect condition. I next saw the pitcher when I appeared at the Jefferson Market Police Court I saw the remains of it on the 13th. I identified it as my property as being the same that I had taken to Tiffany's on the 10th. Cross Examined. I identified it by the peculiar formation of the head sculptured, the stamped head, and my wife's initials. The pitcher was worth one hundred dollars. John Brophy, sworn and examined. I am in the employ of Tiffany & Co. I am delivery clerk. Do you remember delivering a package at the house of J<sup>r</sup>. Metcalfe on the evening of the 12th? Yes sir. I do, along between 6.30 and 6.45. The size of the package was probably ten inches by three; it was not in a box, it was just rapped in a paper. I knew it was a pitcher, but I did not know anything about the value of it. I delivered it to Mary Green.
 I took her name as a receipt for the pitcher.

Of course I could not leave it without a receipt. She receipted for the package. Mary Green, sworn and examined testified. I am employed as a domestic servant in Dr. Metcalf's house. I could not recognize the remains of the pitcher. I never saw it but once. I know the feet, that is all. I saw the pitcher once in Dr. Metcalf's house. I gave it to the doctor the day it was taken to Jefferys. On the evening of the 12th of January two days afterwards I received a package from Brophy the last witness. I did not examine the contents. I did not see the remains of the pitcher until today. When the package was delivered to me I receipted for it. I lifted it in my hand and I was going to go up stairs with it and the bell rang and I left it down again and I opened the door and a man came and put his hand on the parcel and says, "Give me the parcel again, there is a mistake about it; it is for Thirty first St. He lifted up the parcel and went out. He did not wait to see what your desire about the matter was? No sir. Did you say anything? No sir I did not. I did not hear anything about the pitcher until the detective came back with the pitcher with him the next day. The pitcher was not missed that night. I did not look particularly at the man that came and asked for the pitcher, only that he was a fair haired and fair mustached, I did not see his face, he did not look at me. I do not think the prisoner is the man, it does not look like the man. I did not hand the man the parcel; he lifted it himself. You did not make any resistance? No sir; it was on the hall table and he lifted it. You did not say anything to prevent him from taking it? No sir.

William Cairns, sworn and examined, testifies I am a special officer attached to the Sixteen the precinct. I arrested the prisoner at 194 Eighth Avenue in a pawnshop; he had been there between 8 and 9 o'clock with the largest piece of the pitcher; those two pieces attached; they have been broken since; he had left them there and had gotten a certain amount on it; he had pawned it; he came back again to take it up, and while doing so I arrested him. When did you first see that property in the pawnshop? About half an hour previous to his arrest on the 13th of this month between 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning. I arrested him on suspicion. I had been in the pawnshop twice only a few minutes each time. I asked him who owned the property? He said it belonged to himself. I asked him where he got it.
 He said he got it on the shelf at home. I arrested him and took him to the station.

00 14

house. When I was ready to go to Court he told me then that he found it at the foot of Thirty Third street and Eleventh avenue behind some mouldings. What else did he say? He said he had seen two men going down past his own door, he had followed them down and after that hid these goods; he stole it from them.
 He had taken it from where they had left it.
 What did he say about the rest of the pitcher? He then told me that he had put the rest up in 98 Eighth Avenue - had pawned it. I went there in company with the prisoner. This property is the property which was subsequently identified by Dr. Metcalf. I traced it to Dr. Metcalf by a small foot upon which I found Tiffany's name.
 I went to Tiffany's and <sup>they</sup> found upon telegraphing to the manufactory that it was made in 1864.
 They could not tell who they sold it to. Cross Examined. I searched the prisoner in the station house. I do not think I found a pawn ticket on him, I may have, I would not be positive about that. I believe he had 83 cents in money.
 I arrested him in McLean's pawn office near Twentieth St. He had paid for the ticket which he got there and was about taking the part of the pitcher out of pawn; he told me he ~~found~~ <sup>sold</sup> the remainder in Fifteenth St, but the pawnbroker's books show that the prisoner had pawned it.

John O'Brien, sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. I will be 22 years old on the 24th of August. Where do you live? No 400 Eighth avenue. How long have you lived in the city of New York? Going on twenty two years. Who do you live with? My mother. Where are you employed? Chamberlain, Rowe & Co, packing house. How long have you been employed there? Going on nine months. Mr. Van Sassel engaged me. I worked nine months steady. Did you have these pieces of silver in your possession? Yes sir. When did you first get them in your possession? About 8 1/2 o'clock down in Thirty third St. near Eleventh avenue; it was on Wednesday night the 12th of January. Where did you find them? Behind a lot of iron mouldings down in Thirty third street near Eleventh avenue in front of an iron foundry. I was taken shot, I went behind there and found them. I don't know what time it was when I found it first. When did you take them to the pawn shop? The next morning about 8 1/2 or 9 o'clock. I pawned the two biggest pieces. I did not go in to pawn them. I stopped in two or three places to see if they were silver, and they told me "no". I did not intend to pawn it, but the pawn broker said he would let me have a dollar, he gave me a ticket. Then I got outside I was going home. I had two or three more little pieces that I did not give to him, and I stopped in another pawn office down in Fifteenth Street. I asked him if it was silver. I was sure then it was silver, he said he would give me a dollar, he asked me if I wanted to sell it to him? I said, "yes." I was glad to get the dollar. I thought when I got a dollar for the other little pieces I thought I would come back and redeem them to sell him that I went to get the property, but they would not let me have it. They said the man put a stop ticket on it. I would not have waited there if I thought it was stolen. I waited there about ten minutes and officer Cairns came in and arrested me. I did not receive the property from anybody. I never was arrested before for any offence. Cross Examined.

I live at No. 400 Eighth Avenue near Thirty first St. I generally go down to see a friend of mine James McGowan. I did not go to his house. I stood on the corner of Thirty third St. corner of Tenth Avenue. I stayed there I guess about half an hour. I did not have an overcoat on. I saw two persons coming along whom I knew by seeing them around. If I could tell the names, I would not be here today because the detective came down Thirty third St. and Tenth Ave. with me. If I had seen them, I would be clear. I got acquainted with them by playing pool up near thirty fifth St. and 10th Avenue. I saw them only once or twice. I saw them last not quite two weeks before this occurrence. I played pool with them on the Sunday before that Wednesday. I only bowed to them this evening and they bowed back. I saw the bundle that one of them had and I kind of had an idea that they were doing wrong because they do not work. I did not know it was stolen, but it just struck me something was wrong. I never heard their names at the place where I played pool with them. I heard people once or twice talk about them - wondered how they got along, the store was full at the time, they were all playing pool, I could not mention the name of any one man who made that remark. I heard the remark as to how those fellows got along, that they had money. I guess there was about eight of us around the table and they must have heard it. I know the name of one of them was Edward McCabe; he heard it. They had a package with them that there was something "crooked" about you thought? Yes sir, I thought it was wrong. I went down on the other side of the way and they went away. I was not particular about following them, anyhow I just thought I would go down there and they disappeared some place. I do not Know where I just went behind these mouldings. I don't know where they went. There is a lot fenced around where they put old iron from the rail road, and they could have went through there; they must have went through there because they did not come over my way. I went over to answer a call of nature. I did not see them after that. Had you any reason to suppose that there would be anything put there? No sir, not at that time? No sir, not at that time. I was just coming right back again home. I thought I would go behind there, and there I saw the stuff in the condition it is now in, all broken up the package looked big to me; it was done up in paper; it was dark at the time I found it. I did not immediately recognize it as the package that these men had. Any one who went where I did, could see it. I picked up the package. I hid it myself and the next morning I went down I looked at it and wondered what it was. I went to two or three jewelry stores. I asked them in a drug store on Tenth Avenue; he said it was tin. A man in Eighth Avenue said it was Brazilian silver, but another man told me it was silver and gave me a dollar. I did not know it was stolen. I did not see the initials of Tiffany & Co upon it.

00 19

William Cairns recalled. The prisoner told me of two men. I went down South Avenue to try to find two men. I have never been able to find their names; the prisoner described them; he did not tell me that Edward McCabe could tell me anything.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods with a strong recommendation to mercy.

of No. 18 West 81st St. Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 12th day of January 1881 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, from the possession of deponent, and from the said

Premises
the following property, to wit:

One Silver Watch
Pitcher
of the value of One Hundred Dollars, the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by John C. Brown.

Now here, for the following reasons to wit: That deponent left the said property at the store of Messrs Tiffany and Company for repair and the deponent was afterwards informed by John N. Brophy a Delivery Clerk in the employ of the said Messrs Tiffany and Company that he, said Brophy, delivered a package at the residence of deponent and to the a servant of deponent named Mary Green about the hour of half past six o'clock on the evening of the said 12th day of January 1881, and deponent was also informed by said Mary Green that she received on the said evening a package from said Brophy which said package was addressed to deponent, and said Mary Green further informed deponent that about two minutes after she had received said package a man to her unknown came to said premises and said "Give me the parcel again, there is mistake about it, it is for 31st Street", and she allowed said unknown man to take away said package.

Deponent further says that <sup>he</sup> was also informed by William Cairns of the 16th Police Precinct that he arrested on the morning of the 13th day of January 1881 said John O'Brien, <sup>in the act of</sup> ~~only had in his possession~~ <sup>possessing</sup> a silver milk picher, which said picher is now here shown and which ~~property~~ <sup>property</sup> deponent fully identifies as his property.

Deponent further says that between the 10th and 12th days of January 1881, there was no ~~other~~ property belonging to deponent in the possession of the said Messrs Tiffany and Company other than the said picher. Therefore deponent charges the said John O'Brien with the larceny of the property hereinbefore described.
