the bearer of the sum of thirty five dollars.
Deponent further says that said defendant came to deponent's place of business at said St. and Street and presented to deponent the annexed note and check deponent read the note and examined the check and suspecting all was not right asked where he said defendant came from where he said defendant told deponent that Mr. Prentiss sent him with the note to get the check cashed.
Deponent then sent his boy over to said Prentiss house to find out if the check was good, while deponent's messenger was gone he said defendant endeavored to get away but deponent prevented him from so doing until the messenger returned when he reported that the check was no good and that he ^{Prentiss} could not endorse said check and that he did not send anybody to get a check cashed. Deponent therefor asks that said defendant be held to answer and dealt with according to law.

Gartana Gerald

Scout of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Cowing, Sept. 21, 1883 Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Thomas Darlington sworn. I was called to see the complainant in this case on the 30th of Aug. It was on Sedgwick Ave. in the 24th ward of this city between Kingsbridge and Fordham. I saw he had blood dropping from his finger; several Italians motored to me and I went down to see what was the matter; they were around this man on the road side. I examined the wound; it was $\frac{1}{3}$ of an inch in width and about $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches deep; it was in the upper part of the arm, I think it was the left arm. It was not in itself a dangerous wound, but all wounds made with a pointed instrument are dangerous for the after effects if they do not discharge freely or do not heal up; they are dangerous from blood poisoning, more so than the ordinary wound. As near as I could judge it was made with a stiletto or with a narrow knife. I saw the complainant next day on Sedgwick Ave. along side of the house. I removed the stick which I put in the wound the day before in order to keep it running; he was not confined to bed; he had his arm in a sting I saw him the day after that, but did nothing because the wound was doing well. Biazio Zanfina swore and examined through an interpreter. On the 30th of Aug. I saw the prisoner. I know him; we were working together digging a well; it was between 9 and 11 o'clock. I was working beneath and he was above. I threw some earth on his head and he commenced abusing me and said, Son d'ab-h se and said, you don't know how to handle a shovel. I told him you are the same or you would not call me bad names. Then he struck at me with the shovel. I stooped down and the shovel went by. Then he commenced attacking me again and I put my shovel against me so as to keep him away and he hit himself in the eye; he ran against the shovel; then we clinched, and he was beating me and I was beating him. Then the boss came and pacified and separated us. About half an hour afterwards I was digging and all at once he came and stabbed me in the arm from behind. I saw him when he struck the blow. When I received the stab I turned around and saw him. I do not know whether it was a stiletto or a knife that he had in his hand it was so quickly done.

0169

It was to me that Dr. Darlington came. In seven days I was nearly cured. Cross examined. We had two fights. When I felt the stab I got hold of him and threw him; he was on top of me, I threw him and then we fell, the others came and he went away and I was taken to the doctor. The foreman did not discharge me after the fight was over. It was not stones but earth that I threw up. I first said that I would settle the case for fifty dollars, but when I got information from the policeman and the doctor I did not say anything more; the policeman said, "You go to Court and there justice will be done. Antonio Marinello, sworn and examined through the interpreter for the defence. I was foreman of the work at the time these men had the fight. I saw the fight. The complainant was working at the bottom of the well and the prisoner was above; the complainant was all the time throwing stones upon his hands. The prisoner said, "You are always throwing stones at me, be careful." He did not pay any attention to the warning. The prisoner said, "You must be a great pig not to pay attention to what I say," and he says, "You are a pig." Whilst they were disputing with each other the shovel fell out of his hands. Then they clinched and fell to the ground and he was underneath and the other was on top, and the complainant hit him with the shovel in the forehead near the temple. I separated them and they commenced to work again. I threw some pick axes down to the men below; and whilst I was dealing out the pick axes to the men below all at once I noticed that they had got to fighting again. I do not know who commenced the second fight. I went down again to separate them and told them to leave the well. I did not see any knife or any stabbing. They used pointed shovels in their work, but sometimes they are broken and there are kind of dents in the shovels; they are sometimes very sharp. There were pick axes and shovels around there where they had the fight. I did not see the prisoner during that fight use a knife upon the complainant. I was in a position to see if a knife had been used, and there was no knife used. I discharged them both from working in the well. At the time I separated them the prisoner had no knife in his hand. The complainant said he would settle the case for fifty dollars. I said, "no, this case will go into Court. Cross Examined.

0171

I am the brother-in-law of the prisoner. I saw them when they were fighting upon the ground. I did not see the beginning of the fight. I did not examine the prisoner's pocket, but there was no knife around there. The prisoner lived in my house. The officer came to me and asked me where the prisoner was. He was not home the first night and I told him I did not know where he was. I saw the wound about 20 minutes after the second fight. I was out in the country at the time the prisoner was arrested. I was working in Kingsbridge. Francis Agiri sworn and examined through the interpreter. I was present at the time the fight took place between the prisoner and the complainant. I saw it from the beginning to the end. I did not see any stabbing; they were on top of each other, but I did not see any stabbing. I did not see the actual fight. I saw them on top of each other. I helped to separate them; the prisoner did not have a knife in his hand at the time I separated them; there was no knife upon the ground. I am no relative of the prisoner. Cross Examined. I afterwards saw the wound on the complainant's arm. In the well I did not see that the man was stabbed, but up stairs I saw that he was stabbed. I did not see his wound, but I saw that his arm was wrapped up. I was working in the well with the laborers. I was in the well during the entire fight.

Nicola Marino sworn and examined through the interpreter. I saw the two fights between the prisoner and the complainant. I did not see the prisoner stab the complainant. If he had done so I was in a position to see it. I was close by. I was working in the same well. I saw the complainant strike the prisoner with a shovel, he cut him close by the eye; he was bleeding. At the time I assisted in separating them the prisoner had no knife in his hand. There was no knife on the ground where they had been struggling. Cross Examined I saw the commencement of the second fight. The complainant did not receive a knife wound. Gartano Gerald, sworn and examined.

Through the interpreter. I was working on the "shelf" above; the complainant was beneath me, and two or three times he threw shovels of dirt on me; he threw stones also and hit me in my hand. Here is the mark where the stone hit me. In four days I could not work from the bruise I recieved from the stones. I said, "What are you doing? cant you be careful? do you want to injure me?" The complainant said, Come down stairs I will kill you. One wad brought on another and he hit me with a shovel in the eye. It bled much. My handkerchief was full of blood from wiping off the blood. He first hit me with a shovel and then he scratched me with his fingers on the face. Then he said, "you come down stairs and I will kill you." He pulled me down from the shelf above and he hit me in the eye with his fist. We clinched and we fell to the ground and rolled one on top of the other. Did you during either of those fights stab him with a knife? No sir, I did not have any knife with me. Cross Examined. I did not after the first fight go behind the complainant and stab him in the arm. I did not see a wound on his arm after the fight was over. I was wearing only my pants and shirt. There was not a stiletto in my coat. I only had a handkerchief in my coat. I was living with my brother-in-law the foreman of this gang. I was arrested four days after the fight. I was working in the upper part of the city. I came to my brother-in-law's in the evening. I had a room there, it was near the door outside on the second floor. I did not have any other place to go but here, only one night I did not sleep there I came there because I was injured myself and I had to be home. Did you not tell the officer at the time of your arrest that you were a boot black, and you never had worked at Kings Bridge? I cannot speak English. I did not understand him. Were you not taken by an officer to Inspector Byrnes and did you not speak to Inspector Byrnes through an interpreter? Yes sir, there was an Italian who spoke to me. Did you not tell Inspector Byrnes through the interpreter that you were a boot black and you knew nothing of this matter, and you had never worked at Kings Bridge? I did not say that to this man. I do not speak English. I am a married man and have been in this country for two years. Mr. H. Dakin examined in rebuttal by Mr. Requier. I am an officer and arrested the prisoner about the 6th or 7th of Sept. at 143 Sullivan St; that is where the foreman of the gang lives. I asked him where the prisoner was. When I arrested the prisoner he said by motion that he shined boots. I motioned to him if he ever used a pick or a shovel? No, he shined boots. I took him to Inspector Byrnes

ORIGINAL

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of ~~assault~~ in the third degree.

Court of General Sessions of the City and County of New York.

The People of the State of New York, on the Complaint of Henry Fessler
vs
Richard B. Gibbons.

City and County of New York ss:

Henry Fessler, being duly sworn, says that he is the person upon whose complaint, the abovenamed Richard B.
Gibbons was indicted herein. That said Gibbons was in the deponent's employ for several months as clerk in deponent's business upon an agreed salary.

That while so employed, in or about July 1883, said Gibbons appropriated to his own use the sum of $38.70/100 and became indebted to deponent in $142.70/100, including such $38.70/100 aforesaid.

That the said Gibbons has made full restitution for all moneys misappropriated from deponent.

Deponent further says, that while in his employ, he considered said Gibbons to be a young man of good character, until the offence herein complained of was committed; and deponent understands said Gibbons has repented his crime and regrets his action of misappropriating

the deponents' money.

Deponent further says, he believes that the family of said R. B. Gibbons are respectable people, living in this city; and deponent believes it would be better for the defendant, as he is a very young man, if mercy were somewhat shown him now, and he be not compelled to suffer imprisonment and the society of criminals.

Deponent, therefore, respectfully submits to the Court that it should suspend sentence in this case; believing that Justice will be satisfied by so doing.

The People of the State of New York, on the complaint
vs.
Richard B. Gibbons.

City and County of New York ss.

Richard B. Gibbons
being duly sworn says that he is the defendant above named that at the time of the taking of the moneys alleged in the affidavit of the complainant hereto annexed there was due him from the said complainant $55⁰⁰ salary, and the money he misappropriated, belonging to plaintiff, he spent while on a drunken spree, and would not have done so if sober, and that deponent very much regrets his action towards the complainant, and faithfully promises this Court that he will in the future lead a good life and not commit any crime.
Deponent further says that he is of the age of 21 years, and was never arrested for any other crime, and that his parents and family are greatly grieved already on account of his arrest on the charge herein, and that deponent would be ruined for life if he was sentenced to imprisonment on the
