Dear Sir :

Yours of the 11th inst. received. The above case in which you were a material witness was disposed of over a month ago, by discharging the defendants on their own recognizance. In response to my letter of a shortly prior date to their discharge you replied that you could not possibly attend the trial here, in New York, for some six weeks to come. As the defendants had already been in prison exceeding the time allowed by statute, in the absence of some good excuse, and as no other excuse for the non-disposition of the case could be furnished than your absence, the disposition referred to was necessary, the complainant in the case having first been consulted with, and declaring he had no hope of securing your presence, and that no other termination of the case seemed possible.
