THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Andrew Zingold

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse Andrew Zingold of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY, in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Andrew Zingold, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 21st day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine, at the City and County aforesaid, being then and there the clerk and servant of agent and trader of one Robert Blaseintz, and as such agent and trader and as such clerk and servant then and there having in his possession, custody and control certain moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Robert Blaseintz, the true owner thereof, to wit: the sum of fifty dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of fifty dollars the said Andrew Zingold, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, did feloniously appropriate the said sum of money to his own use, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Robert Blaseintz of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof; and the same moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Robert Blaseintz did then and there and thereby feloniously steal, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
