THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

AGAINST

Bernard Rardide

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Bernard Rardide —

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree,
committed as follows:

The said Bernard Rardide,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twentieth day of June, — in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Sarah Cousins, who was then and there the tenant of certain apartments
in the building, there situate, known as number 67 West 105th Street, which were then and there owned by one Arthur S. Smith, to whom she the said Sarah Cousins then owed the sum of twenty six dollars for rent for the said apartments for the month of June, 1892, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Sarah Cousins, —

That the the said Bernard Rardide was then and there an authorized collector for the said Arthur S.
Smith, and was then and there authorized by him to collect and receive from the said Sarah Cousins the said sum of twenty six dollars in payment of the rent of the said apartments for the said month of June 1892, for and on behalf of the said Arthur S. Smith.

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said

Bernard Partida —

did then and there feloniously and fraudulently obtain from the possession of the said Sarah Rousin, the sum of twenty six dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of twenty six dollars, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Sarah Rousin, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Sarah Rousin, — of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Bernard Partida was not then and there an authorized collector for the said Arthur E. Smith, and was not then and there authorized by him to collect or receive from the said Sarah Rousin the said sum of twenty six dollars in payment of the rent of the said apartments for the said month of June 1892, for and on behalf of the said Arthur D.

Tind.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Bernard Rardide to the said Danda Rousier was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said
Bernard Rardide
at the time of making the same then and there well knew;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said
Bernard Rardide,
in the manner and form aforesaid and by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Danda Rousier, then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and pro-

Antonio Matza went into James Moods' Saloon at 156 Mott Street between 7 and 8 P.M on May 24. Salvatore Costa was standing outside drunk. Costa said to Matza "go to hell". Matza said "Go to hell and 1/2". Costa again said "Go to hell" and Matza then placed his hand on Costa's coat lapels and Costa struck Matza with key upon the hands several times. Matza said "Go away, don't make any trouble" and then went inside for a glass of beer. Costa was then pushed away by the saloon-keeper.

Then Costa came in. Matza said "If he wants to kill me I have a razor" and at the same time pulled out his pipe and held it in his hand. He then lit his pipe.

Costa came in and stabbed him in left side twice and in back once.

Matza knocked knife from Costa's hand and picked it up. Doctor in Elizabeth street has knife now.

Officer George R. Jacobs - 10th Precinct

It was reported at Station House that there was trouble in Mott Street on Night of May 24 - about 8 P.M the officer arrived at 156 Mott Street - saloon-keeper and his wife told the officer that there had been no trouble in the place - afterward found out that Matza was cut - at about 9 P.M. went Matza's house 113 Elizabeth Street and found Matza lying in bed - his wounds had been dressed by doctor -

Found Prisoner July 15 at tailoring shop in West Broadway where he worked - Asked Costa through an interpreter why he cut these men and he said because he was drunk.

Before

HON. JAMES FITZGERALD,

and a Jury.

Tried JULY 20TH, 1892.

Indicted for INJURY TO PROPERTY.

Indictment filed JULY 13TH, 1892.

APPEARANCES:

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY BARTOW S. WEEKS,

For THE PEOPLE.

MARK ALTER, ESQUIRE,

For THE DEFENCE.

JOHN DOWNEY, THE COMPLAINANT, testified that he kept a liquor saloon at 500 East 115th street. He remembered the 8th of July, 1892. The defendant came into his saloon on that day, about half-past eight o'clock in the morning and asked for a glass of beer, which was given to him. Another man came into his, the complainant's, saloon under the influence of liquor, and the complainant refused to sell him drinks and was compelled to put him out. The defendant said to him, the complainant, "You couldn't do that to me, your son of a bitch." The complainant said to the defendant, "If you don't behave yourself, I will have to put you out." The defendant tried to hit him, the complainant, with his shovel, and he, the complainant, went from behind the bar and threw the defendant out of the saloon. The defendant attempted to hit him the complainant again, but missed him and broke the panel of the door. The defendant followed him into the saloon. He, the complainant, went behind the bar and got a club, and again put the defendant out of the saloon. He told the defendant to go home, and the defendant turned around, as if to go away. He, the complainant, walked back in the saloon. Just then the defendant broke the plate glass window with his shovel. He, the complainant, did not see the defendant when he broke the window.

In cross-examination the complainant testified that he had known the defendant by sight for about one year and nine months, but the defendant had been in his saloon very seldom. He, the complainant, had never seen the defendant working. The defendant was pretty nearly drunk when he came into the saloon.

OFFICER HUGH O'NEILL testified that he was attached to the 29th police precinct. He heard of the affair about nine o'clock in the morning. The complainant, told him, the witness, that the defendant had broken the window, and he, the witness, went to the defendant's home and arrested the defendant. The defendant was intoxicated at the time of his arrest, and he, the witness, did not have any conversation with the defendant in regard to the case.

FOR THE DEFENCE, CORNELIUS CURTIN, THE DEFENDANT, testified that he lived in 117th street and was a married man. He was a longshoreman and had been working as a longshoreman for nine or ten years. He had never been in trouble before. On the day in question he was not drunk. He went into the saloon of the complainant and had a glass of beer.

He did not know what caused the trouble between the complainant and himself. The complainant drew a club and told him to get out of the saloon, and the complainant clubbed him, the defendant, nine or ten times. He, the defendant, lifted the shovel to strike the complainant, but missed him and broke the window. He was on his way to work at the time and had the shovel with him. His, the defendant's, arm was in such a condition from the blows of the complainant that he could not use it.

In cross-examination the defendant testified that he had not had a doctor to attend to his arm. There were a couple of men in the saloon at the time of the clubbing, but he did not know who they were. He was only put out of the saloon once. He had never had any words before with the complainant. After leaving the saloon, his arm pained him and he drank. He, the defendant, had inquired of the complainant for a certain man who used to frequent the complainant's place, and the complainant ordered him, the defendant, out.
