Affidavit—Larceny.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK } ss.

of No. 7 Jacob Street,

Robert Allison Newark in the State of New Jersey 11th day of April 1887

being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the City of New York,

in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, from the city of Newark in the State of New Jersey and which was feloniously brought and conveyed in to the City and County of New York the following property, viz:

ONE certain living Brown Horse of the value of fifty dollars ONE Wagon of the value of twenty five dollars and ONE Set of Harness of the value of twenty five dollars all being of the value of ONE hundred dollars $ 100<sup>00</sup>/<sub>100</sub>

Sworn before me this day of the property of deponent

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, & stolen, and carried away by George Kayler (now here) for the following reasons to wit: That on said day said George Kayler who was employed by deponent as driver took said property from deponent's Stable which is situated at said N. and Street in Newark, New Jersey, for the purpose of purchasing junk, That he did not return to the Stable on said day. Deponent further says that he was informed by William Paulus of the North side of 159th Street between Elton and Cortland Avenue in said City of New York

Robert Allison
