MICHAEL HARRINGTON, the defendant, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Q (By Mr. Purdy) Harrington, with the exception of being convicted for assault and battery, in the Special Sessions, were you ever convicted of any crime but that ?

A No sir.

Q This man--you saw this complainant on the stand, and heard his testimony ?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you, on the 13th day of April, with Sullivan, rob the 0147

Q How do you know that you were home with your head upon the 13th ?

A Because I was there in the house for four days--for three days after he got arrested--Sullivan.

Q After who got arrested ?

A Sullivan.

Q The 13th of April was on Saturday, I am told. How did you know he was arrested ?

A I got told when I was going down to the hospital, on Tuesday night.

Q Who told you ?

A Some one in Baxter Street.

Q And you had been there three days before that ?

A Yes sir, Friday night I come out from the hospital, and went home. I couldn't stay out. I didn't go out until Monday or Tuesday night--I ain't sure which.

Detective Sergeant Frink: The complainant says it was Saturday night, Mr. Purdy.

Mr. Purdy: All right; thank you. It was Saturday night. Now you recollect when you were arrested, on the car, by Officer Murphy ?

sir.

Have you known Murphy how long ?

0148

4

A Since I am a boy.

Q Since you were a boy ?

A Yes sir.

Q And now what did Murphy say to you, the first thing, when he arrested you ?

A He asked me did I get the watch.

Q What watch ?

A Some watch--and he said that Sullivan had got ten years for it, and I said I didn't know nothing about it.

Q Then what did he say ?

A And then he said something else. I didn't know what he was talking about. And he fetched me up in headquarters, and they didn't speak to me until the next morning, when I got identified. They put me in front--three men and myself, and put me on the end of the line, and he come in and looked at me, and says, "That's him," and I said to the man, "Are you mistaken? I am the wrong party.. I never seen you before in my life," and they pushed me downstairs, and put me in the cell again.

Q And there were only three men with you, and you were on the end of the line ?

5

A Never in my life.

Q Well, Murphy says that you told him you had, and, if he would let you go, that you would get the watch, and you would buy a new watch for the complainant ?

A So help me God, I never told him anything in my life like it.

Q Was there anything about getting him to see your mother ?

A I sent word to my mother that I was arrested.

Q Is that all ?

A Yes sir; I sent a little boy that was in Crosby Street.

Q And did you say that you wanted to go home to see your mother ?

A No sir, never did in my life.

Q Now you say you are not guilty of this crime ?

Q No sir. So help me God, I am not guilty. I never seen the man in my life before.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

(By Mr. Dawson) But you did know Sullivan ?
knowed Sullivan--yes.

ong had you known Sullivan ?

0150

A Since he was a little child.

Q Then you grew up in the same town--the same community--is that so ?

A Yes sir.

Q Schoolmates and playmates together, through your whole life ?

A No sir, he never went to school with me.

Q He never did ?

A No sir.

Q Sullivan knew your name ?

A Yes sir.

Q Knew you well ?

A Yes sir.

Q What was the Doctor's name at the hospital, that treated your head, at that time ?

A Doctor--Doctor Gowrie or Gower.

Q Have you got him here as a witness ?

A No sir.

Hon. Frederick Smyth,

Recorder, City of N. Y.

Dear Sir:-

In relation to the Chas. Harris case, whose character you requested me to investigate, and who pleaded guilty before you on Wednesday, Jan. 22nd, 1890, I beg to state that he is a well known thief and was arrested under the name of Samuel Lavinsky in company with Charles Berg, on March 1st, 1889 for picking pockets, and was sentenced in Special Sessions to 6 months in the Penitentiary. Berg who was sentenced with him at the time has since been arrested for picking pockets and was sentenced to 4 years in States Prison by your Honor. Charles Harris alias Samuel Lavinsky frequents the neighborhood of Chrystie and Canal Streets, where a great many thieves congregate. The certificate of his conviction in Special Sessions, is hereto annexed.
