The People. } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
Wm H. Graham } Before Judge Geldersleeve April and } Indictment for burglary in the third degree <sup>25-1883</sup>
John Lucas }
William F. Lewis, sworn and examined. I live in 242 1/2 5th St. Brooklyn. I have been working for Mr. Lewis No 6 Bond St. New York.
I was employed down stairs in the saloon as bar tender. The premises were broken into on the 4th of April between 11 and 12 o'clock in the day. I left there the night before about 12 o'clock and got there the next day about 12 o'clock; the premises were broken at that time - a pane of glass was broken out. The doors were fastened by a key and two bolts, I had the key with me; the glass was broke and the bolts were shot back. I should judge there was a thousand dollars worth of property in the store consisting of liquors and cigars. There was ten boxes of cigars, eight or ten bottles of liquor, a set of pool balls and some other things taken valued at one hundred dollars; the property was owned by Mr. Lewis, my uncle. I saw some of the property afterwards in the station house, which was stolen from this place; it was shown to me by officer Golle. You know nothing of who broke and entered the store of your own knowledge? No sir, I do not.

0350

Cross Examined. I got there about 12 o'clock. Carrie Banks sworn. I was stopping at 42 Bond St. I was there on the 24th of this month. I saw the prisoners that day at 6 Bond St. Mr. W. H. Lewis' drinking saloon. I went in there and I seen them with all these goods on the counter all ready to take out. There was a pane of glass broken and the door was open. They had the things on the counter - pool balls, eight or ten bottles of liquor, eight or ten boxes of cigars and some shirts, collars and cuffs, an overcoat, and two pairs of boxing gloves. Graham was behind the bar and Lucas was in front of the bar; they looked very well under the influence of liquor. I went in for four bottles of sarsaparilla for a lady friend. I asked them what was the matter with the place, it looked so broken open; they told me the Sheriff had been there and seized it. This was 12 o'clock in the day. I went away and left them in there. Cross Examined these men did not try to run away; there was nobody else in the stove at the time but them. I had not been drinking anything but sarsaparilla. I was subpoenaed as a witness at the Jefferson Market Police Court. I made the same statement before The Magistrate that I have made now.

0351

Julius A. Golle sworn. I am an officer of the Fifteenth Precinct. I arrested Graham on the afternoon of the 4th of this month about 3 o'clock and Lucas at about 9 o'clock in the evening of the same day. I first received information of the burglary about one o'clock in the afternoon of the day it occurred. I arrested Graham in the saloon No 6 Bond St. and Lucas on the Bowery between Houston and Blacker Sts. I recovered at 109 West Third St. in a room occupied by a man named Richards six or seven boxes of cigars, several bottles of liquor, a pair of boxing gloves and some collars and cuffs. Mr. Lewis found a set of pool balls on the corner of West Third St. and Sixth Ave. The property I found was identified by Lewis. When I was taking Graham to court he said that he knew all about it, but he would explain it in court. I asked him what the facts were? He said that a man was in there and said that the place was taken possession of or something of that kind.

Lucas said he was drunk and that he did not know anything about it. He said he had been drinking a couple of days. Graham claimed that he had left a satchel at 6 Bond St. and was going back to get it.

John Lucas, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. On Wednesday morning April 4th I went up the Bowery with the intention of meeting a friend of mine and he visits No 6 Bond st. I went there to find him but he was not there. The place was opened and the window broken. Half a dozen gentlemen were in there and lager beer men taking away kegs. I wanted to get a drink and there was no bar tender. Then I saw Mr. Graham and a young fellow went behind the bar and gave us a drink. I saw half a dozen of bottles in the counter. I went out and between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening this officer came up to me in citizens' clothes and asked me what I was doing at 6 Bond st. I told him I did not remember being there. I have never been arrested in my life before for anything. I don't know anything at all about packing up goods. I remember seeing Graham there. William H. Graham sworn. I am a piano forte tuner and worked in this city for Hebers, Haines and others. On the night previous to my arrest I was requested to repair the piano at 6 Bond st. and remained the whole evening to oblige the company till 4 o'clock in the morning I left my valise containing a full kit of tools there and went back in the noon time, 12 o'clock to get it. I found the place broken open. I saw Lucas there and he asked me to help him to remove some half empty bottles to West Third St. I did so, and returned to 6 Bond St. where I was arrested. I never got my valise.

0353

Adam Wahn, a piano forte dealer at 80 East Houston St. said he knew Graham 18 months and that his character is good.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny against Lucas and acquitted Graham.
