The People of the State of

vs
Fred A. Levi

City & County of New York

Henry H. Ward being duly sworn says I reside at East Orange in the State of New Jersey. I am the Cashier of the Western Union Telegraph Company at its office Number 197 Broadway, this City.

The said Western Union Telegraph Company is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of New York and has a principal office for the transaction of its business at Number 197 Broadway in the City of New York.

That one Fred A. Levi of Number 145-East 117th Street in said City of New York with the intent to defraud forged an entry made in a book of account kept by said corporation, doing business at the place aforesaid, whereby the account of Speyer and Company with said Western Union Telegraph Company purported to be diminished or affected as follows

That between the 1st day of August 1883 and 0060

the 11th day of November 1883 the said Ford, A. Lewis was a clerk in the employ of said Western Union Telegraph Company at its office number 177 Broadway New York City

That his duties were to keep in the ledgers of said Corporation, which said ledgers were solely and exclusively in his charge, certain accounts of Cable Telegraph business called Special Cable Accounts. It was his duty to enter into such ledgers under the proper heading the amount of the deposits made by various firms and persons with said Corporation and charge against such deposits any drafts made upon such Corporation upon the Special Cable Account by the firm or persons making the deposits so as aforesaid for cable dispatches.

On the first day of August 1883 Speyer and Company had on deposit with the Western Union Telegraph Company, on their Special Cable Account the sum of $600+ and said Lewis did enter upon the ledger of said Corporation under the heading of Speyer and Company the deposit of $600 so as aforesaid made, and such entry appears in the handwriting of said Lewis in the August ledger page 198 and no charges appear on said August Ledger under said account of Speyer & Co in against said deposit, and in deponent is informed and believe to be true there were no debit or charges to be made.

In the September Ledger on page 193 under the heading of Speyer & Co the deposit of said firm was entered by said Levi as being $480.00, said account thereby purporting to be diminished one hundred and twenty dollars although no charges were entered against said deposit and in truth and fact none were ever made against the same during said month of August. There over not appear upon said ledger and in said account during the month of September any charges.

In the October Ledger on page 194 under the heading Speyer & Co the credit of $480+ brought over from the September Ledger appear in the handwriting of said Levi and against said deposit or credit the following entries appear all of which are in the handwriting of said Levi as I verily believe

		Speyer & Co
Oct	4	10-4-7-3-6 ⁵⁰	4 ⁵⁰	35	480
	6	20	15 10	45
	9	30	15 ⁵⁰ 4 ⁵⁰	50
	18			10
	20			50
	22	14 ⁵⁰	15 ⁵⁰	30

				418	70
				6	01
				424	71
				34
				421	70
				58	30
				480	00

That by said account the first footing is made to appear as 418.70 whereas said footing amounts to only $249.80

That as I am informed and believe to be true each and every item of said charges & debits are false and untrue, said Western Union Telegraph Company not having done any special cable business with said firm of Speyer & Co during said month of October 1883 and had received no drafts from said firm of Speyer & Co upon said account during said month of October, 1883.

In the November ledger under the heading Speyer & Co on page 194 the deposit to the credit of Speyer & Co was entered in the handwriting of said Levi as being $58.30 thereby purporting to show that from August 1, 1883 to November 1, 1883 the account of said Speyer & Co with said Western Union Telegraph Company had been diminished $541.70¹⁰ without any drafts upon said account having been made by said Speyer & Co during said time.

Frederick A. Lerie

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

----- Frederick A. Lerie -----
of the CRIME OF Forgery in the Second Degree, committed as follows:

On the twentieth day of October

----- in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three -----, at the City and County aforesaid, there was kept by a certain corporation duly organized and existing and doing business in the City and County of New York, known as The Western Union Telegraph Company a certain book of accounts of the kind commonly called ledgers, and known as the October ledger, wherein were kept and caused to be kept divers accounts of divers persons transacting business with the said corporation, and known as Special Cable accounts, and in which said accounts were entered divers items and charges in manner
following that is to say:

In the first column of such accounts
it was the custom of the said corporation to enter and cause to be entered the words, letters and figures representing the date on which the charges hereinafter referred to were incurred and contracted; and in the second column of such accounts it was the custom of the said corporation to enter and cause to be entered the amount or amounts in figures representing the charge or charges of the said corporation against the deposit hereinafter referred to, for sales messages sent and transmitted by the said corporation; and in the third column of such accounts it was the custom of the said corporation to enter and cause to be entered the total amount of such charge or charges so as aforesaid contracted and incurred; and in the fourth column of such accounts it was the custom of the said corporation at the beginning of such accounts to enter and cause to be entered the figures representing the amount of money on deposit to the credit of the persons whose accounts were so as aforesaid kept in the said book of accounts, and against which the charges aforesaid were made, and by the making of which said charges against the said deposits the pecuniary credit of such persons purported to be diminished and affected.

And on the day and in the year aforesaid, the account of a certain partnership doing business in the City and County of New York under the name and style of Speyer and Company, and being one of the accounts so kept as aforesaid in the said book of accounts of the said corporation, showed a credit of four hundred and eighty dollars.

And the said Frederick A. Serie, late of the First Ward of the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid, on the day and in the aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, feloniously and with intent to defraud, did then and there falsely make and forge in the said account of the said Speyer and Company, so kept as aforesaid in the said book of accounts commonly called the October ledger, in the third column of the said account, a certain entry, which said false and forged entry is as follows, that is to say:

By the false making and forging of which the pecuniary credit of the said Speyer and Company purported to be affected and diminished, in that by the false making and forging of said entry, it appeared and purported that on the day and in the year aforesaid, the said corporation had sent and transmitted to and on account of the said Speyer and Company a cable message and cablegram, for which the said corporation had charged the said Speyer and Company the amount represented by the said false and forged entry, to wit: the sum of fifty dollars, and that the said sum was then a charge against the amount of money so as aforesaid on deposit to the credit of the said Speyer and Company: against the form of the Statute in such
