To His Honor Judge J. H. Smith
Recorder of the Court of General Sessions
New-York City

Your Honor!

In June 1881 I was brought before you, on a charge of abduction & blackmail, and being guilty of both, was duly sentenced by your Honor for a term of 7 years and 6 months imprisonment and an additional fine of $250. -

The sentence imposed on me expired on the 5th July last, but having no means to pay the fine, I am still kept in prison, to work off this fine, at making vests at the rate of one dollar per day. -

Before my time expired, I wrote to the complainant in the case, Mr. Strasburger, No. 15 Maiden Lane, begging his pardon for the wrong I intended or done him, telling him of my incapability of paying that fine, and asking him as a favor to see your Honor, in view of having this fine released. - Mr. Strasburger promised to do so, and as I was further informed has done so, though without the hoped for success.

Now, as a last resource, I appeal to your Honor directly, hoping that you will grant my request. -

Your Honor are aware, that I was a very young man, at the time of my conviction, and though I knew, that I had done wrong, was not aware of the enormity of the crime nor the road it would let me to

Five years have elapsed since then, and during this prison life have strictly obeyed the rules and regulation in vogue here and have succeeded in establishing a solid character for honesty and industry, in fact, have become one of the best workman of this institution; as the Warden and the Deputy will testify. - If good behavior and cheerful industry, while in prison, meritt any favor (and I am told that they do), may I beg your Honor, to show me mercy and release me from this fine.

I assure your Honor, if you will release me, that I will go to work at once, and thanks to the trade I have acquired here, have no doubt, but that I will earn an honest competency. Mr. McCaffrey, late Supt. of the State manufacturing Dept. here, now Manager of the N. Y. store, Broadway 689 has assured me of his assistance in procuring employment.

Before the expiration of my time, my mother, who resides at Leipzig, Germany, sent me 75 doll. as a help towards a new life, but when I heard of your Honor's refusal to remit this fine, by advice of some people here, applied to Mr. B. M. Beckwith, a lawyer of Plattsburgh, who wrote me, that your Honor had no power to remit this fine, but was matter for the court of common pleas; further that no part payment of a fine would be accepted, that if I had 249 dollars, I could not be released, but must serve the whole 250 days. I then paid him 50 toll. all I had left and he promised to do all in his power to procure my liberty, and now, 10 weeks after the expiration of my sentence, he done nothing towards my release. It appears that a prisoner is a legal prey for any one, who under pretence of helping him may have access to him!

I have no friends in this country, (but it being yet Summer, and the tailor trade brisk and comparatively easy to procure honest employment,) do I beseech Your Honor in vain to give me a helping hand towards a new life and to set me at liberty, or must I empty this bitter cup to the dregs and be discharged in the Winter, when trade is dull and the chances to procure employment at a premium and starvation and temptation at a discount? —

Hoping that your Honor will show me that mercy and release me from this fine
I am

Very Respectfully Yours

I arrived at New York on the 25 Oct. last on the same vessel with Mr. Stran. In the course of the month of Nov. I became acquainted with Mr. J. Ragert as he was about to leave the firm of Fried. Keppel on B'dway opposite City Hall.

In Berlin I casually met Ragert at Luid's Depot (business) though I previously had business dealings with his father ^{the same} (or several times) here in New York. Ragert often brought me in contact; but one Sunday morning I met Ragert as I went to 54th St. to pay my respects to Mr. Str. & family.

P. said he was taking a walk to the Park and in consequence our paths lay in the same direction to 54th St. In this way only I remember having told P. on his enquiries anything about Mr. Str. affairs. If I am not mistaken I met P. at a but dealers place and on his questioning me, how my visit had turned out I spoke to him about things in general. I believe I last saw P. on Saturday before Christmas. About 3 or 4 weeks ago I met P. on B'dway for the first time since then.

He had a package of "booklets" with which he said he intended to go peddling. He accompanied me, and told me of his sad condition, I then gave him a dollar and promised to help him to return to Germany with me. (or take him to Germany with me). From that time R. daily visited me and I helped him as long and well as I could. Every time I gave him any money he promised to repay me either here or in Germany. He further stated that he expected 240 Thalers from a rich uncle in Altona and 100 Ths from his father, and from his bride (intended) at Hannover a fortune amounting to about 10,000 Ths. So he often spoke of the Straubing family and if I still visited there and how Miss Rpelten was getting on. I asked him what business that was of his, whereupon he smilingly answered, that he should like to start a love affair with her. Then in the course of the conversation he said, that he intended to "strike" the wealthy Mr. Straubinger. I told him to try it. 'Good, I'll do it,' was the reply, I looked at him smilingly and he said, well, you can reach him with threats of all the same! I asked him how, and he did not reply but simply told me to keep quiet. I at first took it for a joke, but at last I saw he was serious.

Day after day we went out together and twice I saw a man who to all appearance was an Israelite, who wore a short full beard and dressed in blue clothing. This man met B. & myself twice, they exchanged a few words, - I passed on. He asked me once, if a child could not be easily kidnapped, I said "no" and asked him what he meant. All he answered was, that with a wagon the thing would be easy, for instance if I acted as driver, he and a third person would take her from the street by force. I surmised this was meant for Mr.

Strassburg's daughter, and said "No. Sir!" - these were my words, and ~~the~~ then changed the subject of our conversation.

He asked many odd questions for instance when services commenced at the Temple on Friday. I told him I did not know that would enquire and I ~~believe~~ I did enquire at the Cafe Campanopolitane.

but am not certain. So days passed till March 26th when the rooms at 52nd St. were rented, as he said for a family well known to him named Dubois; "I might go and rent them, it was all the same," I did this without, knowing his object.

On this evening he told me to give him a hat box and picture folio (or map) he wanted to put things in to bring to me so that he could put them in my big trunk preparatory to our departure for Europe. On Sunday early he said, we should get the key ~~the~~ which was missing from the rooms rented.

We went out, and he sent me to the housekeeper to get it down. I went up and they told me it was mislaid. I told him this. We walked through the streets for 45 minutes and eventually reached Lexington Av. where I left him at 11.30. I took the car for 29 Stanton St. and took my dinner there. Then I passed his house for the purpose of getting him as I had invited him to play a game of Pincel at Hofmanns 29 Stanton St. He said "he'd see." At last he came to

Evenings he came to Hofmann's where I was playing Biriackel with that gentlemen same as every evening. He staid a half hour and then left. On monday afternoon he told me of his "adventure" as he called it. I have already told Mr. Rtr. this.

Since that time I avoided S. whenever I could, Hofmann's know that.

There was not a word said about the Str. affair. I avoided this too!

On the 6th of Apr. he gave me a letter to Mrs. Rtr. asking me to tend to it.

I did this without knowing its contents.

On the 7 of April I was walking along first Ave about 11 o'clock with S. when the gentlemen I mentioned before joined us. We went to about 40 Rtr when in a zig-zag way we reached 61 St and 4th Av. when I got sick of the thing and I told R. I wanted to eat something and leisurely walked through 61st St.

I expected R. to follow me as I thought he had noticed that their behavior had displeased me. A few moments passed when R. joined me, we entered through to about Madison Av. where I again told S. that I was hungry. whereupon he said I should go, but should meet him later at 59th St. and 6th Av. - he wished to go along Madison Av. He told me en passant that when he stopped to urinate I was to fire a pistol. I did so at 5 Ave bet. 58 & 61st St. I shot even twice. Before I did this I could see S. on Madison Av. He raised his hand in a salute, which I imitated.

Greatly honoured ladies!

You will pardon me if I allow myself through this to put myself into nearer relation to you.

I, the writer of this a born pole was drawn into the intrigues of the nihilists on account of the invidious disposition of my race against the Tsar of Russia.

I clung with eagerness to this enterprise as the circumstances of my generation as said above always called forth the desire of vengeance against the tyrannizing of the people as in Russia.

Besides, I receive as secretary of this "Ausspos" of the nihilists very high remuneration which make my life very comfortable and for which I have only to deliver every written translation in every language.

this is now the writer of this.

Now we will go further!

The transactions with your husband count back already six months, I know of course all details.

The correspondence showed itself to be without result, and hence your daughter properly should have been carried away this day eight days ago which I however prevented, as I advised they should at present try it with attempts of threatening. This was managed by a stupidly managed attempt to fetch away your daughter from school. Of course this should fail. Really Rosa should have been taken direct from the street in a carriage by force or kindness and then away, never to be seen again. I prevented this!—

There upon threatening letter without result. Last Thursday night vengeance should have been had against Mr. Str. by throwing a bomb.

I prevented this!

As Mr. Str. went home with the boy, one of my colleagues noticed the newspaper in his left pocket and called out "The Envelope" immediately orders were withdrawn.

All this was my work. -

Now you ask, why this interest. I am the only Israelite in the division of the sixteen, the others are all Catholics, therefore I concluded to warn you.

Now my ladies, in fact I can do no more, I can only warn and warn, until may be it is too late.

Meanwhile there is to be taken a new resolution until Tuesday night -

Indeed I shall always warn - inform you what is going to be done, still I fear that the following resolution will be adopted.

The 4. Sect (^{ingrancy} ~~sect~~) consisting of 6 men will be ordered by their own discretion, by their own resolution to handle the tools of their goddefs. -

Then even I can not warn any more, as everybody will act for himself.

Then I can advise you no more. - In the mean time do not let Rosa go out of the house either alone or with Mifs. S.

home at night time.

What your husband could do in regard to your safety, I do not know myself, as to the persons, the honour of execution of their arbitrary resolution is more than the value of their life.

This your friend writes to you! Should it be possible for you to comply with the wishes and demands of the N., even in a reduced way, why then you certainly could enjoy more peace and safety than now, when I, if in your position really could not shut an eye.

Could and would you do the beforesaid, why then I would try to enter into a mediation.

Herewith I inform you that yesterday's resolution was adopted.

I have succeeded in turning things so that this resolution shall not be in force before Thursday. You have to take the ^{the Hon. & Co. question} ~~questioned~~ at once into your house and envelop it, so that eventually (if my chief consents) it can be fetched away or disposed of, certainly in not too reduced circumstances.

In the Matter of the Petition of Felix A. H. Vogel, for remission of fine.

To the District Attorney of the City and County of New York;

Please take notice that upon the petition, of which the annexed is a copy, and the certificate of Isaiah Fuller, Agent and Warden of Clinton Prison at Dannemora, I shall move the Court of General Sessions, in and for the City and County of New York, on the ^{6th} ~~15th~~ day of ^{December} ~~November~~, 1886, at the opening of Court on that day, or as soon thereafter as Counsel can be heard, for an order remitting the fine imposed upon said Vogel by Recorder Smythe in said City of New York, on or about the Twentieth day of June, Eighteen hundred and Eighty one, upon said Vogel's conviction for the crime of Abduction and attempt to blackmail.

Yours &c. Miller & Savage
Attys. for Petitioner.

0152

To

^{Quinn's Petition}
The Court of ~~Session~~ ^{for the} City and County of New York:

Your petitioner respectfully shows, that he was born in Germany in the year 1860, that he came to this Country, landing in New-York in the month of 21st Oct 1880.

That in June 1881 he was convicted, in the Recorder's Court of the City of New York of an attempt to commit the crime of Abduction, and a few days after, and before sentence upon such conviction, and, as he believes, on the 20th day of June 1881, he was convicted on his plea of guilty for an attempt to blackmail, both of which offenses were a part of the same transaction.

That for the attempt to blackmail he was sentenced to be confined at hard labor at Sing Sing State Prison for the term of two years and six months, and for the attempt to abduct for the term of five years, to commence at termination of the first sentence, and to pay a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars, and to stand committed until such fine was paid.

That by virtue of said sentences your

Petitioner was conveyed to said Sing-Sing State Prison, where he remained confined at hard labor until July 9th 1881, when he was removed to Clinton State Prison, at Dannemora, where he has ever since been confined at hard labor.

That for good conduct your petitioner has earned commutations of sentence, and that he is informed by the officers of said prison that he will have served out both of said sentences on July 5th 1886, but that he will be held in confinement until said fine is paid not exceeding two hundred and fifty days.

Your petitioner further shows that he is utterly destitute of money or property with which to pay said fine, and that it is utterly impossible for him to pay the same, that he is a stranger in a strange land without friends to aid him, and unless said fine be remitted he will be confined for the whole two hundred and fifty days, after the expiration of said term of sentence.

That your petitioner was never before convicted of any crime, or arrested upon any criminal charge, that he is now 26 years of age only —

and your petitioner prays this Court to remit said fine and direct his discharge at the expiration of the terms of his said sentences, or for such other order or relief as to the Court shall seem just.

Am 25 October bin ich hier in New York auf demselben Schiff wie
 Mr. Str. angekommen. Ich kam dann in Lüneburg an. Am November Johann Sager aus Berlin, der damals im Gefängnis zu verlassen, kam. In Berlin habe ich Sager wieder gesehen im Gefängnis Lüneburg Depot gesehen, weil ich in einem Notar geprüfungs zusammen, jeder eine Sonntags Vorrichtung bei S. als ich nach der 54^{te} Str. ging um meine Aufzeichnung der Familie Str. zu machen.

 S. gab mir einen Spaziergang nach dem C. P. Entwerfen mir zu
