Part III Judge Martine

THE PEOPLE
vs.
ISAAC FIERMAN.

F A C T S .

On March 20, 1893, the accused made a statement in writing to Bernard Epstein, one of the firm of Epstein, Friedland & Co., doing business under the name and style of the Boston Guarantee Shoe Mfg. Co., at #116 Duane Street, in the City of New York, which statement was fraudulent, in this, namely: He stated that he owed $200., for merchandise; that his total assets, consisting of merchandise on hand, were of the value of $1700., and that he had a net capital of $1500. The falsity of the statement consists in this: That the accused then owed Morse & Rogers, a firm of whole sale shoe dealers, doing business at #234 Duane Street, in New York City, $285.40; he also owed at that time Claflin, Thayer & Co., a similar firm, doing business at #196 Church Street, in the City of New York, over $100. By means of this statement he obtained goods from the Boston Guarantee Shoe Mfg. Co., amounting in value to about $100. He then proceeded to sell his entire stock for $500. A warrant was procured for his arrest for grand larceny and a hearing had before a Police Justice, at which hearing the accused admitted that he had received the goods obtained by fraud from the Boston Guarantee Shoe Mfg. Co., Upon these facts he was also indicted for grand larceny. It is believed that a conviction can be had if all the witnesses are called, and the case carefully tried.

WITNESSES:

BERNARD EPSTEIN, of #116 Duane Street. He will testify as to the statement in writing.

PINCUS FRIEDLAND, #116 Duane Street, the salesman who took the order for all the goods from the accused, and saw the accused sign the statement in writing upon the faith of which goods of the value of $67.85 were delivered to the accused.

FRANK S. FLAIG, book keeper of Morse & Rogers, of #134 Duane Street, will testify that at the time of the statement in writing and of the alleged fraud, the accused owed Morse & Rogers for goods $285.40.

H. G. NORTON, bookkeeper of Claflin, Thayer & Co., of #196 Church Street, will testify that at such time the accused owed Claflin, Thayer & Co., for merchandise over $100.

Adolph The Bill of Sale given by the defendant is filed in the Register's Office of New York County, May 1st, 1893, and is as follows:-

Isaac Fierman,	Consideration $500.
to Adolph Hershkopf.

As this is only a copy, it would be necessary to subpoena Hershkopf, the <sup>vendor</sup> ~~grantor~~, to produce the original Bill of Sale, and the Bill of Sale on file in the Register's Office should be produced on the trial.

Hershkopf's address is #58 Norfolk Street and #14 Jefferson Street.

STATE OF NEW YORK.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, SS:-

BERNARD EPSTEIN, of 428 East 58th St New York City of the age of Thirty years wholesale dealer in Boots and Shoes, being duly sworn deposes and says: that on the 28th day of March, 1893, at the City of New York, in the County and State of New York had feloniously stolen and vearied away from possession of deponent, in the day ti,e the following property, namely:-

2 Fifty-seven pairs of Shoes of the value of $67.85, the property of deponent, David Levy and Koppel Friedland, comprising the firm of BOSTON GUARANTEE SHOE MANUFACTURING COM-PANY, and that this deponent has probable cause to suspect and and does suspect that the said property was feloniously taken stolen and carried away by one Isaac Fierman, from the following facts and circumstances.

3 That on or about the 20th day of March, 1893, the said
Fierman made a statement in writing, signed by him the said Fierman, which is hereunto annexed, to which deponent begs leave to refer, and make a part of this affidavit; that such statement was made by said Fierman in the presence of deponent, and was made at deponent's request by the said Fierman, in ord er to inform the said deponent as to the financial condition of said Fierman, and as to whether or not said deponent would, on behalf of his said firm, sell the said Fierman goods upon credit.

Thereafter on the 28th day of March, 1893, said Fierman called at the place of business of said deponent and ordered fifty-seven pairs of shoes of his, deponent's said firm to be delivered to the said Fierman at his place of business No. 200 Delancy Street, in the City of New York, and the said deponent, relying upon the truth of the statement of the said Fireman, and not knowing anything to the contrary parted with the above described property, and delivered it to said Fierman without receiving payment therefor in advance. That deponent has since learned that said statement in writing so signed by said Fierman, was false and untrue at the time of such delivery, and also at the time of making the said statement, and the following facts upon which deponent bases his information; At the time of such statement the said Fierman stated in writing that his liabilities were $200.00 and that he had $1700. worth of stock, making his net capital $1500.00; that at the time of making such statement of the $200.00, which the said Fierman claimed to have as his liabilities, $150.00 was owing to deponent's said firm, and $50.00 to Wallace, Elliott & Company.

That deponent has just ascertained that on the 20th day of March, 1893, the said Fierman was indebted to Daniel P. Morse, doing business under the firm name of Morse & Rogers, in the sum of 285.<sup>40</sup> Dollars, and that said Fierman was also indebted to the firm of Claflin, Thayer & Company, in the sum of $100.00; that as appears by a bill of sale filed in the office of the Register of the City and County of New York, made and executed by the said Isaac Fierman to Adolph Hershkopf, that on the 18th day of April, 1893, and the said Fierman sold all his stock of Shoes i the Delancy Street store cocsisting of about 1000 pairs of Mens Shoes; 2200 pairs of Ladies Shoes, and 200 pairs of Youths, Boys and Childrens Shoes, and shelving and other fixtures for the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, and deponent has also ascertained from said Firms of Morse & Rogers, Claflin Thayer & Company and Wallace, Elliott & Company that the said Fierman was largely indebted to them and since the time of such bill of sale has not paid anything to said firms.

Deponent therefor charges that said property was feloninously stolen and carried away by said Fierman, with the intent to cheat said firm.

W h e r e f o r e deponent prays that a warrant be is sued to apprehend said Fierman, and that he be dealt with as the law directs.

As complainant in the above case I respectfully ask the Court to permit the withdrawal of my complaint against the above named prisoner. The prisoner has been imprisoned for upwards of seven weeks and the statement that he signed was executed on the 2nd of December 1892.

That subsequently to that time the defendant obtained various goods and merchandise from me.

That the statement of December 2nd 1892 was the only statement in writing that he ever executed to me.

That I understand that this is the first time the defendant has ever been charged with any crime and I cheerfully recommend the defendants discharge. I have been informed by the defendants friends since his arrest that he did not intend to wrong me.

That deponent and his brother on or about the first day of November 1892 bought the jewelry store 1443 Second

In the latter part of November 1892 a salesman from the complainants came to see us and after showing us some goods we consented to buy some.

He advised us to go down to their place of business and look over their entire stock.

In the meantime the complainant shipped some goods to us

Then on the second day of December 1892 I called at the plaintiffs place of business in Maiden Lane and bought some more goods amounting altogether ~~for~~ to $300. and from time to time we bought goods on four months time.

The first bill became due on the fourth of March 1893 amounting to $~~53~~<sup>53</sup>. This bill was paid promptly, then the next bill was due in April amounting to $173.

Not having the necessary cash on hand we asked the complainant for time and he refused to do this, and suddenly an attachment was levied on our place and the officer who levied the attachment took away the goods of the complain-

This case is referred to me by the acting District Attorney and after a full investigation I find that the same charge has been disposed of by the Police Commissioner, <sup>in favor of defendant</sup> before the case of some witnesses who would be brought to court
upon the trial of this indictment and I am therefore agree with the finding of the Police Commissioner
and the complainant says that he was to blame. That he was drunk. He wishes to act argue his complaint.
I therefore recommend
the dismissal of the indictment.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Edward F. Fitzgerald

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

At the time of the alleged assault I and a companion were disorderly in teasing a member of the Street Cleaning Department. Being told by the officer to move on I told him I would when I got ready. My companion and I were both drunk.

The officer arrested me, and in doing so struck me twice on the head but not severely. I may have resisted arrest. I wish to withdraw this complaint as I feel that I was to blame.

McManus refused to go. I
