City and County of New York, ss.

Frank McGuire of 554 West 49th Street, N.Y. being duly sworn says that on the 2nd day of Dec. 1892 Edward Maloy called upon deponent with one James Roberson, and stated to deponent that a certain cart which he then showed deponent was his, and that he desired to sell the same to deponent. Deponent then and there gave to said Maloy in exchange for said cart, another wagon and $5.50 in money and said Maloy thereupon gave deponent a receipt for the same.

Deponent further says that he has since learned through various parties that said Maloy, who has since been arrested for stealing said cart from William Wilson, is innocent of the charge of larceny and that he (said Maloy) was induced by said James Roberson, whom deponent is informed and believes is the real thief, to make the said representations to deponent, and that at the time of making such representations he did not know the said cart to have been stolen.

Teller of the East River National Bank of the City of New York, doing business in No 682 Broadway in said City.

That about half past eleven o'clock on the forenoon of the 16 day of November 1882. Michael Martin, now present, appeared in said bank, and presented to deponent for payment the annexed check, (marked upon the end cccx-) No 1331, and purporting to be drawn upon the East River National Bank, on the 16 Nov 1882, for the payment of the sum of five hundred and seven 500 dollars, to the order of M. N. Martin, and purporting to be signed by Dominick & Haff.

Deponent further says, that he discovered said check to be a forgery by the difference in the number thereon No 1331, and the number upon a genuine check of said Dominick & Haff, which deponent had paid a few minutes prior.

Deponent therefore charges said William Martin, now present, with having on said 16 November 1882, feloniously uttered said forged check as true

Examination by Mr. Ambrose H. Purdy

Q You are the paying teller of the East River National Bank?

A Yes sir.

Q And you were such paying teller on yesterday?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever see this man before? (pointing at Michael Blumenthal prisoner at the bar)

A Yes sir, I saw him yesterday.

Q Was that the first time you ever saw him?

A Yes sir.

Q What time was it?

A It was about half past eleven o'clock in the morning.

Q What took place?

A He came in to the bank and presented this check for payment.

Q Did you have any conversation with him at all?

A No sir.

Q Did you receive the check?

Direct Examination

By the Court

- Q State what you saw - relate everything that occurred up to the time of the arrest of your own knowledge.
- A Well I met this man Pettengill on 18th Street just west of 6th Avenue. He entered a lager-beer saloon there and remained in there some ten minutes and he came out alone and walked towards 7th Avenue and on the West side of 7th Avenue between 17th and 18th Street this man Pettengill entered another lager beer saloon and remained in there some five minutes and then he came out in company with Martin the prisoner here and they both walked from that saloon to the saloon on 18th Street and entered it and remained there some few minutes. Then Pettengill and Martin both came out together. ~~and~~ walked towards 6th Avenue and when near 6th Avenue they met Davis, recognized him and then passed on. This man Davis followed Pettengill and Martin and kept about fifty feet behind them. They walked through 18th Street to Broadway on the East side of the street to Union Square. And down Union Square to 16th Street on the Union Square side. When they reached 15th Street Petit crossed over. Davis was on the East side of 4th Avenue and Martin and Pettengill crossed over to the East side of 4th Avenue and walked down 4th Avenue to the Bible House; then they crossed over and went down on the West side of the Bowery to Bond Street; down the north side of Bond Street and they halted directly ^{opposite} ~~in front of~~ number 5. Davis was then on the South side of Bond Street.

Petit and Martin walked on the east side of Broadway from Bond Street to the north side of Great Jones Street. They had a conversation while standing on the corner of Great Jones Street and Broadway and Martin then left Pettingill and crossed over and entered the Bank and Pettingill remained outside. Davis was on the South West Corner of West 3rd Street and Broadway. I allowed Martin to remain in the bank about three minutes and then I entered the bank. On entering the bank I saw the paying teller examining this check and comparing it with another that had been presented by the firm, a genuine one. Then I arrested him. I didn't arrest him until Doyle, office Doyle, arrested Pettingill and Davis.

Cross Examination by Mr. J. J. Doyle.

- Q You say that when Pettingill and Martin met Davis they partially recognized him what do you mean by that?
- A They spoke to him.
- Q You didn't hear them say anything?
- A No sir.
- Q How far away were you?

A I was directly opposite.

Q And then you say that Davis went following these two men and was some fifty feet behind them?

A Yes sir.

Q Did he speak to them?

A Yes about Fifth Street.

Q Did he come up to them?

A They stopped and Davis crossed to the opposite side of the Brewery and left.

Q Davis overtook them?

A Yes for a second and crossed over to the other side of the Brewery.

Q Pettengill you say was with Martin?

A Yes sir and walked through Bond Street.

Q Did you hear any conversation that passed between them?

A No sir.

Q All you know is that you saw Martin go there to the bank with the check and present it and that he had been in the company of the other two men?

A Yes sir; that is all.

Answer.

About two weeks ago I met this man Martin in 5th Avenue near 26th Street where he engaged me in conversation and invited me to take a drink - we went from there towards 4th Avenue and stood on the corner of 4th Avenue & 26th Street for about ten minutes. I then asked him to take a drink and he refused. I then said I would go home and walked up 26th Street - he said he was going the same way - in the middle of the block he buttoned hold me and the first thing I was aware of he unbuttoned my pants and attempted to take my person out. I jumped away from him and demanded to know what he meant and he says for gods sake don't say any thing I did not mean any thing by it and without a word offered me a dollar.

~~John~~ Cook Ex of Walter Cook of No 1426 East 86th Street being duly sworn and examined says that a Saleman I did drink liquor on the 24th day of November last. I had seven drinks of Muskey during the day. I drank 3 whiskeys during the day and one in the evening, my memory is good, I had in my possession on that day ten dollars, I cannot tell the denomination, it was in Paper money, I had near ten dollars when I went into the saloon, when I went into the saloon I did not take the ten dollars out, I had two dollars and 60 cents in my change Pocket of the Over Coat on my person, I got some change in the saloon
 I had a five dollar bill changed in the saloon, I received for $4.90 in change, the change consisted of two silver dollars, two single bills, and the balance in change, I put the two trade or silver dollars in my Over coat Pocket, I also put fifty cents in my Coat Pocket. I will swear that there was $2.60 taken from Coat Pocket

When I went into the saloon I noticed I cannot swear that I saw either of the defendants in the saloon that night; there were men close to me when I was drinking at the bar, I will swear that the men standing near me did not take the money out of my pocket. I will swear that my pocket was not picked in the store; When I went out of the saloon I was stopped, I can identify the men I identified them the last day the case was on the 14th place I identified the man was in the 21st Precinct Station House. Captain Ryan did not pick them out. I picked them out. No one told me they were the men, there were about 9 or 10 men besides the defendants at the Station House when I picked the men out. I cannot say that any of the men in the Station House were younger or as young as the defendants they were older. I cannot say whether it was a dark night or not. After I left the saloon I was slapped on the face by Wad vogue one of the defendants, he laughed when he did it, he said nothing. My pocket was not picked at that time. I cannot swear positively swear that he did not pick my pocket. All four of the defendants was joking me about at the time. I cannot swear that my pocket had not been picked at the time.

I then tried to get back into the store
 I did not make any outcry, I tried to get back into the Saloon, I don't know that anything was said up to the time, I was within 4 or 5 feet of the door of the store when I tried to get back I was seized ~~by~~ by Maldroge, who put his arm under my chin I broke away from him when I ran into the Saloon, that is all that took place in relation to the case, on that day, When I got into the Saloon I shouted out that I was robbed
 I put my hand in my pocket before I went into the Saloon and discovered that the money was taken I cannot swear that while I was outside and while the defendants were getting me that the money did not fall out of my pocket

Part. 2. Rec. 22. 1883.

Pleasant P. L.

Dear Mrs. Webb

0191

City and County of New York, S.S.

Charles E. Davenport of 61 Hudson Street, being duly sworn deposes and says: that he is in the employ of the firm of Austin, Nichols and Co, wholesale grocers carrying on business at the above address, as superintendant; that on about the 11 day of November 1882 deponent gave to Michael Shelly a man in the employ of the above firm, ~~the~~ an order containing 100 doz. cans of tomatoes of the value of $1.00 ^{per doz.} for 50 cases of tomatoes, ^{and myer's} on the Merchant's Transportation
Co. at Pier 40 E.R. to be delivered to the firm of J. H. Dden & Co, 53 Canal Street.

The said Michael Shelly afterwards on said day gave to George H. McMeahan, a driver employed by said Shelly the order aforesaid, with instructions to get the aforesaid goods from said pier, and to deliver the same to said J. H. Dden & Co., and to get a receipt from them for the same.

The said McMeahan afterwards

0192

drove his truck to the store of said J. H. Dent & Co., and was seen by a clerk in their employ to have the said goods on his truck. He went into said store and asked the said clerk if the said firm wanted fifty cases of tomatoes. The said clerk told him they did not, and that he knew nothing about receiving any such goods; whereupon he went out of the said store in great haste and drove off with his truck, with said goods upon it.

The said McMeahan on the following morning returned to said Shelby, the unsigned receipt which he had previously given said McMeahan for the delivery of said goods, and the said Shelby did not discover that said receipt was still unsigned; and amongst a number of other receipts said unsigned receipt was handed to deponent, who upon an examination discovered the fact that it was not signed.

That at the time of such discovery the said Mc Melhan had been sent by said Shelly to deliver a load of goods in Brooklyn. As the said Mc Melhan did not return, said Shelly started to search for him, and found his truck and horse abandoned in the streets, as deponent is informed by said Shelly. The said Shelly then employed detectives to make up the case.

The said Shelly, as deponent believes, was informed by the wife of said Mc Melhan of sufficient facts to give him good reason to suppose that said Mc Melhan was in Boston, and thereupon said Shelly went to Boston, from which place deponent has received telegrams assuring deponent that said Mc Melhan is there and has been seen by said Shelly.

That Superintendent Walling being informed of the facts of the case, has ordered the arrest of said McMeahan, as deponent is informed and believes.

Michael Shelley, of No. 353 East 69' Street, in the City of New-York, makes the following statement:

I am a truckman and do business at No. 67 Hudson Street; on the 14' day of November, 1882, I had in my employ as driver George H. Mc'Mehan, of No. 45 Madison Street (but now in the Tombs); he had been in my employ about three months; on the 14' day of November, 1882, Mr. John H. Mohlman, of the firm of Mohlman and Eggers, of No. 339 Greenwich Street, intrusted me with orders for fifty cases of tomatoes which my driver, Mc'Mehan, was to deliver in Brooklyn; he delivered twenty five cases and the other twenty five cases he stole and sold them and then went to Boston; he sold twenty cases of the tomatoes to a groceryman in Brooklyn named Martin Holtz, of No. 80 Smith Street; Mc'Mehan was drunk at the time he stole the tomatoes; I followed him to Boston and had him arrested and he then admitted that he stole and sold the fifty cases of tomatoes, and he went over to Brooklyn two or three times to try and identify the place where he had sold them; he was accompanied by detectives Carr and Marr of the Fourth Precinct, this city, but failed to identify the place where he had sold the tomatoes. Then I got the Brooklyn detectives working on it, and I think this man Holtz must have got some clew that the detectives were after him, for he came to New York and returned the tomatoes to Mohlman and Eggers.

Geo^{as} H McMechan

This prisoner on the day before the arrest was sent with his team to Pier 4 to N.R. for Tomatoes, but did not get them. This disposes of one indictment.

He went back to the Store & was sent to Pier 1- and got 50 cases of Tomatoes, brought them to the store in the evening, these goods were left on the truck all night - the prisoner was here the next morning at 5 O'clock an early hour and hitched on his horses & took the load to Brooklyn to deliver them.

He called at one Grocery & delivered 25 cases, just half - then went to the other place and they would not take them as there was 3 cases short - He was told to take them back to the Store (these cases may have stolen in the night in front the Store)

Now comes the real trouble in this case - This man had to get up very early in order to get to the Store at 5 a.m. he eat no Breakfast, but drank

Some liquor, the liquor went to his head and he did not know what he did with the goods on the truck when he started back from the store in Brooklyn, to return to his employer.

I am sure this man is not a thief - what is wrong in this case was caused by rum - He has been taught a good lesson, and promises to stop drinking - He has a noble faithful wife who has been at his cell almost every day during the 5 weeks he has been in prison -

This man is promised work by the man for whom he worked 8 months ago.

I ask for leniency for him in view of these facts - Do not consign him to a felon's cell
