Chas. Galetzki

Officer Michael Shields will swear that he arrested defendant at No 154 Forsythe Street New York on the 5th day of December 1887 about seven O'clock in the evening. I saw Galetzki was in the room where he found defendant. Took him from there to the Eldridge Street (11th Precinct) Station House, where he was locked up. On next morning took <sup>him</sup> to the Essex Market Court.

Paul Galetzki will swear:

I was married to Charles Galetzki seven years ago last May (1887) at Rumiada in the Government of Kieff, Russia by a Rabbi, whose name I do not remember. We have had three children by Galetzki, two of which are dead, the one living is a girl of 19 months. He left Russia about 20 months ago with understanding he would send me money to come to America. He wrote me subsequently that if I was ready to come, (this was about five months ago) to come on, I replied that as soon as the baby was well enough I would. Receiving no further tidings I started and arrived at Seattle Garden Dec. 1/87. First time saw him here was at Essex Market lunch. He owned up that I was his wife, that he did not know what had come over him that he should have been found with another woman. He was willing to live with me and take care of me and the child. I saw the woman named Lena in Court, she saw me crying, and said to me what is the use of crying, if he is your husband take him along I have no claims on him. My marriage certificate is in Russia.

Lena Galetzki will swear:

I was acquainted with Charles Galetzki about two weeks and was to have been married to him. We occupied an apartment of two rooms at 202 Goosyke Street. I slept on lounge in one room, and he on a bed in the other room. Had no intercourse with him whatever and never was solicited by him.

Was engaged by him as housekeeper at $3.00 per month, found my own provisions. I do general housework when can find it to do.
I was married to Shulem Buch-holtz at Dembitz in Galicia, have not heard anything from him for about five and half years and do not know where he is. I did not make a Complaint in any Court, nor did I sign one. The Complaint you show me I did not sign and know nothing about it. I did not know what Galtzki was arrested for.

Remarks:

I learn that the original charge against Galtzki was one of abandonment, and there being another woman around it ~~was~~ a Complaint was taken for bigamy.

- 2 That the party who is said to have performed the Ceremony between Charles and Lena, was not an authorized person, is a fact of fact and general fact among the Polish Jews, and is now somewhere in Massachusetts.
- 3 That Galetzki is a quite a hard working blacksmith, and a pretty good fellow; and this is most likely a case of oppression.

From the facts above stated do not see how a conviction could be had

He was boisterous & used very profane language. I know the defendant orderly. I have always travelled with him since I became acquainted with him. I am very friendly to him.

Never had any trouble with deceased.
On ~~Monday~~ Wednesday night Nov. ~~25~~ I was in Madison St. bet. Pike & no bad feeling between Green & Crowley. I only played one game.

They played three games. In the first game I was the 1st one got out. The deceased was 9 and the accused was 4. I was the deceased's deal and he picked up a trump and ended the deceased and gave 6 points to the accused Green. Then it was the accused's deal, and he made a point on his deal, making 7 points altogether. The accused got out of the game at 10 points and left the deceased at 7 points & deceased claimed that the accused was not out - having only 8 points. To satisfy him the accused said "We'll take

He sent out for the pint of beer. They started a third game and Crawly was struck when he wanted to renew the quarrel. We then left the house, the three of us going out together. We walked to the Cor. Birmingham & Henry St. The deceased got very noisy there and an Officer appeared at the same corner. We walked from there to Cor. TESTIMONY.

John Fogarty being sworn says:
I reside at 592 Water St. & am a shipping clerk at 193-4 West St. I did not know the accused or deceased. On Nov. 3/87 about 10 PM I saw 4 men coming down from Birmingham St towards Pike. They all seemed to be the same party as I thought. I can't identify the prisoner. I was standing in a doorway. One of the men had a jumper on & another had a coat on. They walked 10 or 15 feet ahead. Behind them were two men apparently drunk.
The first men were apparently sober. The two last men were scuffling each other or as I thought boxing. When they got to within two doors from where I was one of them picked up an Ash Can and fired it at the other man.
Then they clunged & boxed with each other. Then the deceased ran into the middle of the street & fell down on the car tracks. I don't think the accused followed him over there to the tracks. Then the deceased came over to me, where I was standing in the door. He did not say a word. I saw blood coming from his arm. It was coming out in Arteries. I thought he had fallen down & hurt himself some way. I got a hold of him & brought him to the corner of Pike & Madison Sts. I saw he was bleeding badly. I took a handkerchief out of my pocket & bound it round his arm to stop the flow of blood. & brought him to the Station House. He did not say a word to me till he got to the Station House when he said "You are a good friend of mine." The deceased was not brought to the Station House while I was there. The only man who could have done the stabbing was the man who was quarrelling with the deceased. The other two men were 10 or 15 feet ahead.

Leary Precinct says: I made the arrest in this case, I arrested Patrick Green at his residence 35 Madison St. on the night of the stabbing. He the defendant stated to me that they were playing cards in Albert Bennett's house & had a quarrel over the game and ~~it~~ was settled there without trouble, but when they went to the street Green stated that Crowley threw him over a pile of bricks & hit him on the nose & then afterwards picked up a metallic Ash Can and threw it at Green and that to defend himself he cut & deceased. I asked him what he did with the knife he said he did not know The men were about the same size Crowley may have been a little taller but not so stout, Green looked home as if he had been drinking. He was asleep on a mattress on the floor when I arrested him. I took a statement from the deceased as per Exhibit No 1.

wards, & then across forearm from right to left, severing all the im-
