Present,

THE HONORABLE Randolph B. Martine, Justice.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Charles Blau

The District Attorney having heretofore, to wit: on the fourth day of January 1892 submitted to the Grand Jury of this County, empanelled in this Court for the present term, and then in session, a certain charge against the above-named defendant for assault in the first degree.

and the said Grand Jury having, after a consideration of the evidence produced before it in support of the said charge, dismissed the same, twelve grand jurors of the said Grand Jury not concurring in finding an indictment against the said defendant for the charge so submitted, and the depositions and statements setting forth the said charge having been duly returned to this Court, with an indorsement signed by Henry S. Sherman Esquire, Foreman of the said Grand Jury, to the effect that the said charge was so dismissed.

Now, on reading and filing the affidavit of John S. Anderson whereby it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that a material witness for the People was not examined by the Grand Jury on the investigation, before it, that the charge is well founded both in law and on the evidence, that justice requires that an indictment be found, and that there is reason to believe that if the said charge is again submitted to the Grand Jury evidence can and will be adduced, sufficient to warrant the finding of an indictment, and that an indictment will be found against the said defendant for the said charge, notwithstanding such dismissal, and on motion of the District Attorney, it is Ordered, that the said charge be, and the same is hereby directed to be again submitted

Affidavits - Nelson Clark case

To Whom it may concern:

This is to certify that Nelson Clark was a student of the Newark Technical School during the years 1887-'88, 1888-89 up to January 1890. He resided during that time at 244 Walnut St and 14 Grelinghuyzen Avenue, Newark.

As a student I always found him industrious, well behaved with a good record in his studies and attendance. He was at all times of a quiet, diffident nature, and no occasion ever arose during his connection with the school when his ~~actions~~ conduct was otherwise than excellent.
