of No. 414 East 5th Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that the premises No. 414 East 5th Street, 19 Ward, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a Tide building and which was occupied by deponent Jacob as a dwellin<sup>g</sup> house were BURGLARIOUSLY and entered by means of forcibly creating open the door leading from the hall way on the second floor to the apartment of deponent Jacob, with the intent to commit some crime at about midnight of the forenoon of the 26th day of February 1870 and the following property feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, viz.:

One Ladies Black Cashmere Suit of the value of Five dollars

[Large empty curved line]

the property of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed, and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by Eva Ackerman, now here.

for the reasons following, to wit: That at said time said apartments were securely closed and fastened and said property was within said apartments. That about noon on said day deponent discovered that said door was broken open and said property stolen and carried away as aforesaid. That said Eva thereafter 0539

Admitted to deponent that she, Cora, stole said property and pawned the same, and she, Cora, then delivered up to deponent a pawn ticket which ticket represented the stolen property aforesaid.

William, <sup>deponent's office</sup> ~~deponent's office~~ of No. 178 Broadway Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 11th day of March 1880 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent, <sup>And from his person</sup> the following property, viz: One gold watch of the value of Seventy five Dollars,

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

George Adams
Now here for the reason that deponent was passing upon Broadway when the prisoner pushed against him at the same time deponent felt a tug at the chain attached to the watch upon looking at the chain he found <sup>that</sup> his watch was gone Deponent immediately took hold of the prisoner who had said watch in his overcoat pocket and who ~~returned~~ returned it to deponent after a while saying take your damn watch
