Honorable Judge Martine

I write these few lines to you and hoping that you will see justice done me as I am not looking for any Clemency as I have been found guilty and am already sentenced. As there are a few facts in my case I call your Honor's attention to them. The officer in my case as my wife told me to day went to my house last Sunday afternoon and after asking her to send my little boy for some whiskey she refused and after asking her she told him she was not that kind of a woman and then he took out his to her she then ordered him out of her house he then told her that she would be sorry for it my children was in the other room at the time and the officer was in full uniform at the time I tried to get my wife to go and make a complaint against him but she is afraid to do so as she was afraid he would do her some harm another fact I would like to call your attention to is when the officer

POOR QUALITY

was on the stand he committed Perjury he swore that he saw me getting over the fence and saw me have the pants in my possession this said officer was not the man that arrested me the man that arrested me was riding on an 8th Avenue Car and he transferred me to the officer in my case at the corner of 125th Street and 8th Avenue six blocks below from where I was arrested standing with two other officers as "it was on his Post that the crime happened. I do not write this to seek any sympathy in my case but would like to see justice done to my wife and children as I could not go on the stand and testify as I have been in prison before
