Answer.

About the hour of 2 1/2 o'clock on the morning of the 29th of July last, the deceased came to the basement door of my shop and dwelling. He joyfully broke open the door. There were two other men standing on the walk while he was breaking the door. I saw the deceased speak to the other men before he broke my door. He took the door open and was in my basement, when I shot him believing myself in danger of my life. After being shot the deceased jumped out and the other men ran away. The deceased stood in the area until some other men came along hour of 2 1/2 o'clock A.M. of said day deponent and three friends were passing through Grand Street near Varick Street. That deponent heard a shot fired and then heard a groan and looking into a basement area-way at Morris St. 2 Grand Street, deponent saw a man, named Henry Reardon as deponent is informed, standing in said area with his hand over his breast. That the prisoner Michael Curry now here, was coming up the basement steps in this shirt and pants and the injured man, Reardon, said to him "For God's sake don't kill me" That said injured man then staggered across the street and fell down. That one of deponent's friends said to the prisoner, Curry, "What is the trouble?" and Curry said "I shot the man." Sworn to before me this John O'Neill

TESTIMONY.

Dr. N. J. B. Meserve being sworn says: At the St. Vincent's Hospital on August 11/84 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon I made an autopsy on the body of deceased. The bullet had entered the right breast four inches from the median line and entered the upper lobe of the right lung where it was found.
The right pleural cavity contained ~~two~~ ^{three} ounces of fluid and one quart of clotted blood. The right lung had collapsed. Pleurisy was well marked. The pleura was much inflamed and thickened. The left lung was tied down by old pleuritic adhesions and a quart of bloody serum in the left pleura. The pericardium contained about three ounces of bloody serum. All the other organs of the body were normal.
Death in my opinion was due to Exhaustion from ^{Internal} Hemorrhage following pistol shot wound of the right breast.

Officer John Dougherty, 1st Precinct being sworn says, On July 29th about 2.40 AM I was told by a man names Terrence Burns that a man had been shot in Grand St. I found Harry Pindon lying on the south side of Grand St opposite No. 7. I was told that he had been shot by a man now in the basement of No. 9 Grand, I went over to the basement and found Mr Curry. I asked him what he shot that man for he said to me that the man was trying to wedge my door in, and he said look where he broke the door in, he showed me a sort of an iron hook that was on the floor and I found a screw in the door frame, there was another screw the same as the one that I found in the frame the other one was in the centre of the door.
 I asked him when the shot was I found a six shooter on the shoe-makers bench and Curry said that was what he had shot him with.
