and is engaged in business at No 18 Exchange Place in said City; that heretofore and on the 31st day of July 1887 deponent read an advertisement which was printed in the New York Herald newspaper of said 31st day of July 1887, which said advertisement is hereto immediately attached and made a part of this affidavit.

A RARE CHANCE FOR SOME PERSON To get one of the biggest bargains that has ever been offered in New York City, $500 cash will buy the elegant Jr., by Grand Bashaw, dam Lady Hunt, by Starlight, son of Blood's Black Hawk, out of a mare by Downing's bay Messenger, second dam by Mambrino Chief and sister in blood to the great Lady Thorne. Bashaw, Jr. is seven years old, 15½ hands high, very stylish and handsome; has a full mane and tail, fine limbs and feet, and in fact is a perfect horse free from fault or blemish; color bay, and he weighs somewhere near a thousand pounds, and he cost the present owner's husband a little over a year ago $1,200, and he is a much better horse now than what he was then; he is a square, level trotter; needs no boots or too weights; will stay and trot all day; he is a very excellent polo horse, and will make a good and valuable horse for road or track purposes; he is a horse of great advantage and his fast trot is worth $2,000. For sale by Mr. Simpson at Lexington, Ky. who can trot a mile in 2:25; he has won several heats in 2:25 at various provate and is warranted perfectly sound and kind. A lady can drive him up to his full speed in perfect safety. This horse is a grand specimen of his kind and is a real bargain. Call on Mr. Simpson at Lexington, Ky. and see him and he will tell you all the details.

that deponent relying upon the truth of that said Edward Knight said said horse to be <sup>shown</sup> ~~exhibited~~ to deponent and upon deponent's request to drive the horse on trial said Edward Knight objected and told deponent that if the ~~horse did not come up to~~ he would guarantee said horse to be perfectly sound in every particular and free from ticks or vices in the stable and in harness, and that he will trot in two minutes and twenty six seconds and that if said horse did not come up to said guarantee that he said Edward Knight would refund the money paid for him and as an further assurance of that fact he told deponent that he was amply responsible for said sum of money that he was the <sup>son of the widow owner of the horse said and had power from his mother through the attorney of the estate to act for her in that matter</sup> ~~owner of the stable as which deponent owned the property on which the said horse and stable was then was said of the horse and lot on which it was located; and that deponent took no risk in the the front thereof; and of the lot on which they both stood that~~ deponent has been informed and only believes that said Edward Knight wilfully and ~~with malice aforethought~~ intentionally deceived deponent and made false representations to him to persuade him to purchase said horse and so charges the fact to be; that deponent has also been informed and only believes that said Edward Knight is a man of notoriously bad character and makes his living by practicing just such deceptions as before stated and that he is known to the police of this City and Brooklyn under various aliases to arrested for practicing such deception as hereinbefore stated; that ~~when~~ ~~on the expiration of the two days mentioned by said John Doe~~ deponent returned to said premise demanded his money as aforesaid he was informed that said Knight was out of town

The complainant was cheated not by any false statement of facts, but by reliance upon Held. "Here may have been a fraud but certainly no false pretense."

To constitute the offense of obtaining money by false pretenses, two things are essential, to wit: a false representation as to an existing fact, and a reliance upon that representation as true

People v. Tompkins, 1 Park, 224.

People v. Miller, 2 Ib. 197.

See also Ranney v. The People, 22 N.Y. 413.

The mere statement of the defendant M<sup>r</sup>. Knight, that the horse (if worked a little) would trot in 220, is not a false representation as to an existing fact, nor is it a false pretense within the provisions of the Statute, for the reason that it is a statement in the nature of an opinion, of a trial of speed, to be exhibited or tested.

The image is a high-contrast, black-and-white photograph of a textured surface, likely the cover or endpaper of an old book. A prominent vertical crease or fold line runs down the center of the image. The surface is covered in a dense, irregular pattern of small, dark, and light spots, giving it a grainy, aged appearance. The lighting is dramatic, with deep shadows and bright highlights that emphasize the texture and the central fold.

so I took up the cloth I got from Myers - it was a large roll of dark blue cloth. I sold it to Knapp for a suit of clothes & four dollars - after I sold it I saw Lirly & Cavanaugh & told them about it. and then Lirly and Cavanaugh started around Myers.

0919

they afterwards told me they got a roll from Myers and took it to Koloski's and sold it for six dollars -

Cavanaugh was living at 304 St between 6th & 7th Ave.

0920

The frame in regard to Kehoe

 About a week after the leaving from Myers on Saturday morning we three went to Joseph Kehoe's store between 47 & 48th st - on 7th ave - Cavanaugh and Lirly our case of denim was as good as then all three of us went over Cavanaugh walked up to 48th st corner and I asked a boy at the door of paint shop to go down and get some putty - and Lirly went into the store and got two rolls of cloth, the three of us went down on 6th ave car & got off at 8th st - Cavanaugh went down Broadway, and Lirly & I went to Koloski's with cloth and sold two pieces for $5 - we went down to the car of 36th street and divided the money with Cavanaugh

0921

Thomas Lirly - 123 west 24th st, Francis Cavanaugh first suggested to Mc Grane and I that we ~~could~~ make some money - we were walking by the Meyer's place, and he raised his hat and told me there was a chance and I went in and got a piece of cloth it was about 5-0'clock. Cavanaugh and I wrapped it up in a piece of paper and took the board out, and we took it down to Kotowski's store. all three of us went in sold it for $4.50 or 5, and divided the money between us.

Mc Grane told me that he afterwards took another large piece from the Meyer's which he took to Max Knapp. and he said he got $4 a a suit of clothes, about a week before this I was in Knapp's with Mc Grane who was selling a coat that belonged to his mother he sold it for 75 cents, Knapp then asked us if we were 0922

crooked and we said yes, and he said if we brought him any crooked stuff he would buy it.

Then Mr. Grane told us that he had got the cloth from Myers, & sold it.

Cavanaugh & I started up to Myers store this was late in the afternoon and I went in and took another piece. I gave this to Cavanaugh and the two of us went down to Koloski's, and went in and sold it for $6.

Swirl Statement in regard to Kelovs.

In going by Kelov's, Cavanaugh walked along the corner. Mr. Grane asked a boy at door of paint shop to go for some putty, and then I went in to Kelov's store and got two pieces of cloth. We all went down on 6th ave. and Cavanaugh went down Broadway - and Mc Grane and I took the clothing & sold it to Koloski - and then went down to 36th ~~st~~ 7th ave and met Cavanaugh and divided the money ~~$5.00~~ which we got for it.

Samuel Meyers

The cloth mentioned as taken from me by Mc Grane was blue diagonal worsted good about 24 yards and worth from \$3 $\frac{1}{2}$  to \$4 per yard. worth upwards of \$60. (this amount to Knapp)

There was nearly a full piece of single width Cashmere 18 or 20 yards. \$1 $\frac{1}{2}$  a yard say \$36 - (went to Koloski's)

I can't state positively the value of last piece taken I should say 12 to 14 yds worth about \$3 $\frac{1}{2}$  per yard say \$40 -

Hon Judge Smith

Dear Sir

I see by the papers that Mr Koschitzki is held for swindling.

I am one of his victims holding a draft on the First National Bank Wilkesbarre Pa. for fifty dollars on which he succeeded in getting eight and 8/10 dollars He ordered a quantity of pipe to be sent to Henry P. Langman and paid his draft. I telegraphed the Bank - answer came back "no account." The goods were not shipped since then 0951

I have received a postcard from him directing me to send him my bill of expenses to # 164 So Clark St. Chicago Ill.
I did so stating he could have his draft by sending a P.O. Money order. I still hold his paper and am willing to do all that justice demands.

Yours Respectfully
Geo. D. Adams
