The People
vs.
John Leinhan.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Cowing.

January 1, 1837.

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

John Brady sworn and examined. I live in 157 Washington Street, I saw the defendant on the 10th of January, I was in Vesey Street going down Greenwich Street on my way home, it was about three o'clock in the afternoon, I had a watch and chain on me at that time, I had the watch in the watch pocket of my pants and I had the chain under the button of my vest, it was snatched out of my pocket by the prisoner, he came and walked deliberately forward and gave me a shove at the same time and when I went to get it I put up my hand and I hallooed, I did not see it in the prisoner's hand, I never saw it until I was in the Station House, he ran and I ran after him, I said, stop thief, he has my watch, and he ran, it was a silver watch, the watch was worth five dollars to me, I did not see the policeman grab the prisoner.

Cross Examined. I had some drink in me but not enough to prevent me going home about my business, I was excited in the Station House, I fell down when I was shoved, when the watch went I was shoved and fell at the same time, I slipped on the sidewalk, got up and was going on about my business, this was in Vesey Street between Broadway and Greenwich, it was pretty convenient to a new building that is going up there, I do not remember a great crowd being there, it is not true that the prisoner saw me drunk and picked me up, I tripped and my foot slipped and then when I was walking on he grabbed the watch in my pants, he did not help me up, I did not strike him, he ran along Vesey up Dey, I didnot see the man after he turned the corner until I saw him in the Station House., I cannot tell if this was the corner of Church Street, I am not very familiar with the streets, I went into the Station House along with the crowd to see about my watch, I missed my watch the minute I found him grabbing me, I was going down toward Greenwich Street from Broadway, to the best of my opinion he turned the left hand corner on the down town side and that was the last I saw of him, I heard that he was caught and I went into the Station House, I was excited, I had some drink and it got the best of me, I was held because I was excited, I do not deny I had drink in me.

William Savage sworn. I live 105 Ninth Avenue and am a night watchman, I was in Vesey Street on the 16th of January about three o'clock and saw the prisoner and complainant there, I saw the complainant fall down opposite the tea stores and the prisoner was coming up and he offered as I thought to pick him up and when the complainant got up the prisoner was running away, he went up through Vesey and Church to Tulton Street, the complainant got up and I saw the chain hanging down on his vest and he halloed thief, he has got my watch, I called to an officer at the corner of Tulton and Church Streets and the prisoner got by the officer just then, I gave chase and got the prisoner before the officer and on the way going up Tulton I saw him throw the watch in the gutter, as soon as the officer caught him he says, what is the matter with you, I aint got no watch, I said to the officer, I know where the watch is, I brought him down and he picked it up right where I saw the prisoner throw it in the street. I did not see the prisoner take the watch, there were others running after him as well as myself.

Philip Fitzsimmons sworn. I am an officer of the second precinct and arrested the defendant on the 15th of January corner of Fulton Street and Broadway about three o'clock in the afternoon, I saw a man run past me and turn the corner, I looked the other way and saw the crowd running and one was hallooing watch, the defendant passed me pretty lively, I went in chase and the watchman passed me and he caught him at the corner, the prisoner said when I got him, what is the matter I haven't got no watch. We went back and the complainant found a watch in the gutter and identified it as his.

John Leihan sworn in his own behalf: I was walking up Vesey Street and on the corner of New Church and Vesey Street the complainant fell and I raised him to his feet and brushed him off, he hit me right away and I hit him back and ran right away for I didn't want to get into any trouble, I had work to go to to-morrow, I ran up to Fulton Street to see a policeman, I did not see any until this witness stopped me and I stood till the policeman came up and went right along to the Station House, I remember noticing the complainant's chain hanging out of his vest, I did not take his watch, it would have been possible for his watch to have swung from his pocket from where it was found. I was convicted once for stealing a horse blanket and sent to the Penitentiary for five months.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
