The People
 vs
 John Gaynor
 Wm Tracy
 Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Judge Gildersleeve. Aug. 11, 1887.
 Indictment for robbery.

Charles H. Blackhurst, sworn and examined. I reside at 224 West Twenty Fifth St. and am a stair builder. I recollect the afternoon of the 20th of July; the last I remember was about 25 minutes of three. I left 7 Bedford St. going down towards Hudson St. I had my watch in my vest pocket and the chain was through the button hole; it was not a bar hook but a small clasp lock with a key stone attached. On my way from the shop going down towards Hudson St. I became overcome dazed, things dazzled in front of me. Then I got to the corner of Hudson and Houston Sts. I thought I had better sit down awhile and it would probably pass away. I sat down and lost consciousness and knew nothing until the detective handed me his card to come down the next morning. I last saw my watch and chain 20 minutes of three o'clock when I left the shop. I made an engagement at that time to meet a friend. Then I became conscious my watch was gone; it was worth $120. The portion of the chain now shown me is mine.

Cross Examined. I don't know where I regained consciousness, I think I was in the Central office with the detective. I am not able to swear that my watch and chain were on my person at the time I sat down upon the stoop in Hudson St.

Rosie Rosenberg sworn. I am going on fourteen years, can read and write and go to school. I live in Hudson street at home with my parents. I know these boys, the defendants. I know them since they used to live in Houston St. I recollect seeing the complainant, he was sitting next to our door asleep. I saw Gaynor hold his hands and Tracy took the watch and they went down to King St. Tracy took the watch from the man's vest pocket. I was about ten feet from them when they did this. I went and told Mr. McGinnis. Cross Examined. I saw Tracy take the watch out of Mr. Blackhurst's pocket. I live 378 Hudson St, it is on the corner, and it is only two doors from my house where I saw the boys. There were no persons but the boys around there. I was sitting by the door; my sister went to get some water. I know it was three o'clock because I asked my sister. I saw the policeman who arrested the boys. I have been in this Court two or three times before to testify in this case. I have spoken to the policeman about the case; when he came to our house I told him. I have not spoken with any one today about it. I came to Court with my sister. My sister was going to the yard for water and she did not see the boys take the watch.

Mr. Tracy, sworn and examined for the defence testified. I live 726 Washington St. Gaynor is a companion of mine. I remember the day I was arrested and that I was in a car in Houston St. with Gaynor; we were going down to bathe; we saw a crowd running after ~~the~~ "Chick Harrison" and got off the car; we ran as far as King St. There a few more were running ahead of us. I was arrested that afternoon by Officer McGinnis. I found out the next morning what the charge was against me. I was not in front of the premises that afternoon at three o'clock when the girl says I was. I saw the complainant first when he was running in Hudson St. calling "police" when we were running after the crowd. I took no watch from the complainant when he was lying upon the stoop. I have not been working since I left school. I worked three or four weeks in a store corner of Hudson and Houston Sts. I live with my father and mother and was never in trouble.

John Gaynor, sworn. I am fifteen years old. I have always worked at telegraphing till lately, I have worked in a Labor Organization room 260 West Houston St. watching there at night and cleaning up in the daytime. I remember the day I was arrested. I was with Tracy on a Houston St. car going down to have a bath. I got off the car corner of Hudson and Houston Sts. and saw a crowd running. I went to see what was the matter. I was arrested on the Bowery about five o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. I did not know what I was arrested for. I did not steal a watch from Mr. Blackhurst that day. I was not in Hudson St. near Houston about three o'clock that day. I was never arrested before. Cross Examined. I did not see Mr. Blackhurst running. I heard him hallooing "Police" from the stop; he was standing there. Chick Harrison was up on King St; Mr. Blackhurst was not running after Chick Harrison. I have known Chick Harrison around Houston St. about three or four months. Tracy knows him too; he is a big, full grown man. I have talked with him. I was arrested at 260 West Houston St. Tracy was not with me; he was arrested at this time. I was locked up in the station house and in the morning I was told what I was arrested for. When I was first arrested I told the officer I did not know where the watch was. I told him Chick Harrison was the man that stole the watch. He asked me where on the Bowery Chick Harrison was with this watch, and I told him I did not know. I told Judge Reilly in the presence of the officer that I saw Chick Harrison steal the watch and Tracy told the judge the same thing. Tracy and I did not steal the watch and did not give it to Chick Harrison to sell.

Mr. Tracy recalled. The officer when he arrested me did not ask me where the watch was, I did not ask him what he arrested me for. He asked me if I did not steal the watch, and I said, no I did not know anything about it; the next morning the complainant and the little girl swore that we stole the watch. I did not tell the officer that Chick Harrison stole the watch; people told me that Chick Harrison stole the watch.

Rozie Rosenberg recalled. I noticed the complainant about five minutes before the boys stole the watch. I told my sister first about it and then I told the policeman. I made no entry the time I saw these boys stealing from the man. I went up to the man and said, "Somebody took your watch. I put the chain in the pocket for him, he went up to the corner."

Mary Shelley sworn. I live 256 West Tenth St. I am the sister of Tracy. I have been living with my father and mother to about two weeks and a half ago; my brother has lived at home; he has never been in trouble before. His father is in Court.

James O'Hara sworn. I live 690 Greenwich St. and am a cartman. I know Mr. Tracy and their son. I have never heard anything against the boy. He was arrested once for making a bonfire at election time. He goes to school, he does not work at anything, his parents support him. I don't know the other boy.

John Tracy sworn. I live at 48 Washington St.; the defendant Tracy is my son. He has never been in trouble before except for making a fire. Cross Examined My boy has walked on an express wagon; he is not kept from school. I have another son who is seven years old.

John D. McGinnis sworn I am an officer of the Central office, a detective; on the 20th of July I was informed of the robbery I got Tracy at the corner of Hudson and Houston Sts., he was with two other boys. I asked him where was the watch? He said he did not know anything about the watch. I took him to the station house, got the complainant and then went to Headquarters; on the way I asked him where was the watch? He said he thought Chick Harrison had it, that a man on the other side of the way could tell it, but it seems he has not brought the man here. I locked Tracy up and went back and got Gaynor with another man on the stoop; he told me as I was taking him through Houston St. that Chick Harrison took the watch. I says, "Where did he put it? He says, "I don't know." I took him over to Headquarters and put them with a crowd of boys and this girl (Rosie) picked the two of them out. I took them down to the Court next day before Judge Reilly.

Wm. Bringle sworn. On the 20th of July I saw Mr. Blackhurst and the girl Rosie on the corner of King and Hudson St. I saw a crowd around the complainant, he was not intoxicated, but he had some drink in. I saw a chain on him. I took him to the station house and reported the case to Sergeant McGinnis, who went around and got the two boys. Cross Examined. The complainant knew what he was doing. I don't know Chick Harrison. I took a piece of chain off the complainant's ~~desk~~ person and gave it to the sergeant at the desk.

• Jerry Rosenberg sworn. I am a sister of the witness Rosie. I recollect on the 20th of July having a conversation with her; she went for a policeman. I have seen the defendants around the streets and I knew them before. Cross Examined. I did not do anything. I stood by the door and watched her when she was going. I knew she was going for a policeman. I did not see the man sitting on the steps. I knew these boys for a long time.

John McGinnis recalled. When the defendants were arraigned before Judge Reilly they accused Chick Harrison of taking this watch. I did not get the watch. I looked for Chick Harrison but could not find him.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.

My sir

I write to give you a history of Henry a prisoner now in Lombard awaiting trial for attempted murder -

I have known him since he was ten years of age - When he was ten years old he was attacked by a very severe Spinal Meningitis - (Cerebro Spinal)
He was morose in receiving his physical health - and was long afflicted by severe headaches Now having been a bright and promising boy and a great favorite with every body - he was nursed stupid & filthy and unmanageable also - Subject to fits of anger

but cowardly and mean I had not seen him until last Spring for some years. At that time he was brought me for examination.

I found him dull and stupid Complaining of nerves and disagreeable sensation in different parts of the body. He had irregular heart action - sluggish pupils and irritation of hearing. He may possibly have been to some extent malingering but he had symptoms which could not which have been simulated.

I am not by any means an expert in mental troubles but from a scientific point of view I have little doubt of his mental unsoundness. He is a moral bankrupt. He has no shame nor continued sorrow for the wrong he may have caused his family.

He is a confirmed Master-beater and habitual suppers from that habit also I think him of unsound mind and that he will probably never have a level head.
 His trouble probably had its origin in the physical injury done to the brain and meninges
 from his Cerebrospinal attack.
 At least the whole body was changed by that illness - and he has never been the same ever for a short time since. I am informed if he could be confined in some institution where he would be under discipline and have care for his physical comforts - I think it would be preferable.

Respectfully

Dear Sir,

I visited
James Gilroy who is confined

He is of sound mind and afflicted with a disease,

or later weaken his mind. It rarely produces insanity.
