C. 10570

1883, 17th January, Wednesday.

Officer Wilson saw Louisa Molge sitting with two other females at the window of Madam Annie Sully's House of Prostitution No. 130 W. 27 St. about 5 P. M.; they tapped at the window and beckoned officer to come in; they were all "dressed for business," namely, dressed in pink and red jackets and white skirts; were more fully beautified with paint and powder and one wore a blond wig. It was the basement window they sat at.

On entering, officer directed Louisa to come at once to Society office, and informed the Madam, who was one of the three females, that Louisa should not be lost sight of.

Louisa went upstairs to change her clothes without the slightest demur. Nor did Madam Sully protest any. On contrary she told Louisa to go and followed us upstairs.

Madam Sully.

In the bed-room whilst Louisa was changing her clothes Madam Sully said Louisa had come there Tuesday 9th Jany., and asked if she had any room for "business." She said yes, but asked her if she had any parents and advised her to go home, and further, she repeatedly advised her to go home during the next week following. To this Louisa had replied to her, she would not go home, and she had been in "that kind of business" a little lower down the street, but had left because there were too many girls there. So Madam took her. The more readily, because Louisa had told her, or she had heard from some one, that Louisa had already been in several bad houses as early as last summer.

Brought Louisa to office 5.30 P. M.

Next day Thursday 18th Jany., took Louisa before Justice Patterson 2nd D. Court, who held her for Ex. on officer's affidavit and issued warrant against Mrs. Annie Sully, who was duly arrested by Officer Quinn of 29th Preet. and locked up at Preet. - and on following day Friday 19th Jany. she was held to answer at General Sessions under $500. See papers herewith. Counsellor Golding defended. But later Couns. Barnard assumed the management of case and Mrs. Sully was bailed out.

0558

Louisa was committed as witness to House of Detention where delivered her.

Monday 22 Jany. Supt. Jenkins considered it best to have Louisa beyond reach of ~~XXXXX~~ and mentioned matter to Justice Patterson, who accordingly had girl brought to Court and on her own affidavit of prostitution, he committed her to the House of Mercy 86th St., where she was delivered by Court officer Jolly.

See Louisa's affidavit herewith respecting Madam Sully.

Annie (or Anna as she writes her name) was Anna Meyer before marriage. Husband is Frenchman Sully Beyk (she wrote it) Sully Beck pronounced it. She is only two years in country from Germany. Is 22 years old, - small and afflicted with curvature of the spine.

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part 7.
 Timothy Sweeney } Before Judge Cowing Jan. 11. 1883 Thomas Murphy } Indictment for burglary in the
 and } third degree.
 James Morgan }

Daniel Sullivan, sworn and examined. I am an officer of the Ninth Precinct. I remember the night of the 5th of January I was on patrol duty in Ganseroot St. Messers Shook and Everard have a cellar there. Two of these prisoners, Morgan and Sweeney I know before this night, Murphy I did not know. About half past twelve on the night of the 5th of January I noticed as I was passing the cellar door a light in the cellar of 128 Ganseroot St. Messers Shook and Everard's. I thought there was something wrong, I got behind a truck in the street and waited for a while. I heard a rap on the door and Morgan came and lifted up the cellar door and called to one of the men in the cellar. "Ted," that was Sweeney. I waited a few moments for them and two men, Sweeney and Murphy were rolling up a barrel full of skits they made out of some stuff they had in the cellar. I arrested both of them, Murphy and Sweeney. Morgan was holding one side of the cellar door; he let it drop on my head and he run away; the two men were in the cellar.

0576

James Everard, sworn and examined, testified. I am a member of the firm of Shook and Everard; we have a storage cellar at 108 Gausemont St. we have ale at two prices; the lowest price is twelve dollars a cask; the ale in that cellar was our property. I know nothing of the matter; the trap door is on a level with the sidewalk. Henry P. Mooney sworn. I live at 671 Washington St. am a clerk for Shook and Everard. I don't know anything of the burglary except to see the door broke the next morning; the nails were all wrenched off - dragged out of it. George B. Lawton, sworn and examined for the defence testified. I live 77 Jane St., am in the real estate business. I know Sweetney two years or more; he has worked for me. I never heard anything against his honesty until this burglary. William Kemp, sworn. I live at 267 West Twenty Third St. am in the ice business. I know Morgan three or four years. I cannot say much about him. I always found him ^{very} steady; he has been in our employ in the summer season three or four years. As far as I know he has been honest in our employ; he has not been quite so steady during the last year; he has been off once two or three days drinking.

0577

Margaret Morgan sworn. I live at 396 Gausemont St., the prisoner Morgan is my son. I saw him and the others the day before the night they were in Shook and Everhard's cellar.
They were moving a lady in the next building next door to me. She gave them some drink. They got drunk and I guess they did not know what they were doing. I saw them drunk about twelve o'clock. My own boy went for a can of beer at that time. Twelve o'clock.
James Morgan sworn. My business is ice business and I worked in a paper factory in Twenty Third St. I was never arrested for larceny or anything of that kind before. I had been helping to move a lady that day, we had been drinking up stairs at 12 o'clock at night.
I was walking down the street and I heard a noise in the cellar, I thought they wanted to get up. I lifted the door of the cellar and the other two were talking down there. I never knew it was those two; I was talking to one and the policeman came along and caught the two in the cellar. I let the door go and walked back as far as the track and returned; the policeman took the two and he said to the other policeman to take me in. Cross Examined. I know Murphy and Sweeney. I called one of them "Ted."

I did not say when examined before the magistrate that I did not know the two men in the cellar. I did not think it was any harm to lift the cellar door for I was not there to steal. Thomas Murphy sworn. I live 122 Gansevoort St. and am a laborer. I am about two months in the country. I went along with the other boys to help to move a lady.

I got drunk in the house where we were moving; we went out there in the street. I don't know where we went from that out. I do not know how I got into that cellar. I was drunk. Timothy Sweeney sworn. I live 122 Gansevoort St., am a laborer and am in this country going on two years. I have been working pretty near ever since. I was drinking the night I moved this party. I did not know what I was doing when I went into Shook and Everhard's cellar. I first learned what I was doing when the police man arrested me. Mortimer Sullivan sworn. I am a liquor dealer and know Sweeney seventeen years; his character for honesty is good as far as I know. Magistrate C. Sullivan sworn. I saw these young men the night of their arrest in the building next to 122 Gansevoort St.; they were drinking whiskey and beer. They were not able to go down stairs.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
The Court sentenced the prisoners
to the Elmira Reformatory.
