The People. Court of General Session. Part I
 John W. North vs. Before Judge Cowing. June 12. 1893 Indictment for burglary in the second degree.
 Kyria Lask, sworn and examined testified.
 I live at 104 Essex street in this city and lived there on the second and third of June. I am a clothing ironer. I occupy the top floor of the house in the rear yard.
 I have a room and bed room. My father-in law and a man by the name of Balstock were there. There are two windows in my rooms looking out into the yard. There is a fire escape there but only to the first floor, and there is no ladder from the first to the yard. On the night of the second of June I went to bed at eleven o'clock. I locked my doors and both windows were hooked.
 Did you have any money in your pants pockets? I had no money in my pants.
 The pants were lying on the table and in the pocket of the pants was 85 cents.
 A man slept with me named ~~Jack~~ Bialastok ~~Bialastok~~; he is in Court. In the night time did you see anybody enter your apartments? I saw when the thief came. I saw him in the rooms at two o'clock in the morning. I got awakened by ^{the noise of} some one when they shoved up the window. I could not see very well. There was a lamp burning, but I was awakened from a deep sleep. I could not see what he took from the table. I saw him take something from the table. I saw the prisoner's head. He came in first and then he went out, and about five minutes afterwards he came in the second time. The first time I ~~did not~~ ^{did not see} him in the room, but I saw him climb out of the room, getting out of the room on the fire escape. Five minutes later he came in again; then he came into the room. I was so frightened that I could not speak. I saw that he was about to take the watch out of the vest, and then I got up in my bed. When I got up in bed then he jumped out through the window on the fire escape. Then I shoved the window up more and commenced to holler. Instead of going down the ladder he jumped down from one fire escape to the other. When I hollered, "the thief is here," then all the neighbors around opened the windows. He jumped from the fire escape on the roof of the water closet. The water closet is near the fire escape. From the roof of the water closet he jumped into the next yard. I saw when the other man got him in the yard. Another man came out in the next yard and caught him and I saw him from the window when he caught him. Then that man jumped out on the fire escape did you go and examine the windows and see what condition they were in? I saw the windows; they were not broke but they were shoved up. You say that you saw him trying to take your watch out of your vest pocket? Yes, I did not speak to him. What was the value of that watch? I paid fifty rubles for it - it is worth about forty dollars. What did you do then, did you go to the station house? I ran down stairs then in the yard. Then the policeman came and took him to the station house and I went to the station house too. When you went to the station house did you see a pocket book there? Yes, I saw it. It belongs to Bialstock, the man who lived with me. When the defendant was searched he had the pocket book in his own pocket; he had another pocket book also, he said it was his own.

Cross Examined. I saw Bialstock turn the catch and shut the windows. I shut it down myself and Bialstock turned the catch. I am positive the defendant was in the apartments. I saw him; the lamp was burning. The detective searched him in the station house and found the pocket book on him. He Bialstock sworn and examined, testified I live at 704 Essex Street and was there on the 2nd and 3rd of June. I went to bed at 11 o'clock. The last witness and a man named Lockett was also in the place. I turned around the catch and pulled down the blinds before I went to bed. About three o'clock in the morning I saw the prisoner come in. My pants were on the table and I had 85 cents in the pocket book, a receipt for a registered letter, a lead pencil and the key of my trunk. The defendant took the pocket book out of the pants and was about to take the watch and chain out of the vest when we commenced to halloo, "a thief is here". Then he jumped out of the window out on the fire escape and from there went to the next yard and was caught. I saw my pocket book afterwards in the station house and identified it as mine. The defendant pleaded guilty to burglary in the third degree.

Hon. Delaney L. McCall.

~~District Attorney.~~

Dear Sir:

I fear that your office has been used as an instrument by a cunning old man to wreak personal revenge. In the Morhouse legging case, whereby through a conspiracy with a lawyer of shady reputation of the town of Berlin garbled testimony was brought before the Grand Jury which resulted in an indictment of Mrs Morhouse for legging, she was arrested, brought before Judge Conroy & remanded to the Tombs. She is an innocent woman. The facts are she married in 1864, her husband left her that year and after an absence of 7 or more years she consults a lawyer and is advised that she is entitled to remarry.

In the meantime she received nothing from him. In fact the man himself married two years later (1866) and has now a family of five children the eldest 26, and has grandchildren. As a matter of fact he committed bigamy, and the woman Mrs. Marsh was legally entitled to marry after 7 years. and yet she is in a felon's cell. I have never heard of a more monstrous act of injustice committed in the name of Law.

Because she would not love this old man who brings the charge he has sought revenge, and has done

so by hardworking the officials of your office.

The lady now in the Tomb is a Mason, her second husband who died some three years ago was ^{also} a mason (she lived with him 19 years).

The brother-in-law
of the lady is held in high esteem by United States Senator Murphy, from whom you ~~will~~ will no doubt hear in relation to this matter.

The old man Marshouse who has fooled your office is the blackest kind of a Republican, calls every Democrat a thief and unworthy of respect, and holds the place of a petty watchman in the Custom House. He is a sneaking, cunning old hypocrite, and one look at him is enough to show his true character.

But all this ~~is~~ not repair the wrong that is being done to the innocent woman who now languishes in the Tombs.

Warehouse
Certainly ~~some steps~~ should be taken to have her trial brought up at once to establish all these facts. But I do not believe you will ever get the former husband to appear in New York again, for fear of his own arrest.
The dirty work of revenge against this woman by Warehouse has been done through him and the danger of shady reputation at Berlin N.Y.
and your office has been made the cat's paw. It only shows what crimes can be committed against the citizen in the name of Law.

Charles A. Morehouse being duly sworn says that he resides at 11 Perry Street in the City, County and State of New York - that on or about the ~~city~~ second day of June 1891 at his then residence No. 149 East 84th Street New York City this Deponent was married by Rev. Charles Norton to a woman who at that time was known by the name Mrs. Sarah E. Burrows and who before said marriage represented herself to this Deponent to be the widow of Russell Burrows, then deceased -

Deponent further says that subsequent to said marriage this Deponent was informed by several persons that the woman known as Sarah E. Burrows was the wife of William Hull, of Berlin Remsen-sacker County New York and that said Hull was living at Berlin at the time of said marriage - that she had not been divorced but had separated from said Hull a number of years ago and intermediate between such separation from Hull and the marriage with Deponent said woman Sarah E. Burrows had lived Concubinage with and as the putative wife of said Russell Burrows and was never married to said Burrows.

Deponent further says that Julius D. Rogers, who lives at Berlin, New York has several times informed this Deponent that he Rogers knows that said William Hull was alive after the marriage between Deponent and said Sarah E. Burrows because he said Rogers has talked with him since said marriage at Berlin, N.Y. and said Rogers further informed this Deponent that he, said Rogers, knew said Hull and said Woman Burrows while they were living together as man and wife at Berlin years before her marriage with Deponent, and Deponent fully believes the whole statement of said Rogers.

Deponent further says that he is informed by Samuel Austin of Tribes Hill, Montgomery County, New York and believes, that about thirty years ago said Austin was present before Justice of the Peace William Snyder, of Poesten Kill Remsen County, New York and witnessed the marriage by said Justice of the Peace Snyder, of the woman Burrows, whose name was then Sarah E. Breer and (who was the same woman that was married to Deponent as above stated) to said William Hull of Berlin, N. Y.

Deponent further says that said Rogers hereinbefore mentioned further informed Deponent and Deponent believes that said William Hull told him said Rogers that he Hull had married said Sarah E. Greer and had never been divorced from her and this was said by said Hull since the marriage of said woman Burrows to this Deponent.

Deponent further says Mrs. Eggleston, who resides at No. 211 West 17th Street New York City, has lately informed Deponent that, in a conversation with said woman Burrows in the year 1891 while Deponent was keeping company with said woman Burrows - that said woman Burrows requested and cautioned said Mrs. Eggleston not to inform this Deponent that she, Burrows was ever married to Hull or that Hull was alive as it might make trouble between her and Deponent and that said Hull was then married to another woman and was then living at Berlin New York and if the facts became public it would injure her chances of marrying any respectable person.
