The People
vs John Smith
and Frank Simsky

Court of General Sessions Part I Before Judge Gildersleeve Dec. 21. 1883. Indictment for burglary in the third degree and petty larceny.

Isaac Grossman sworn and examined I do business at 29 West St. Yankee notions and all kinds of small ware, hosiery gloves &c. My store was broken open two weeks ago, the show window was emptied and undershirts, gloves and stockings to the amount of ~~three~~ ^{eighteen} dollars were taken; a piece of linen worth three dollars was taken, gloves worth three or four dollars, about a dollar's worth of cuffs.
I live in the rear of the store. I closed the store about ten o'clock at night and everything was in order and when I saw the window between six and seven o'clock it was broken. My son went to the station house and notified the police; the window was not broken when I went to bed.

James Link sworn. I am an officer of the 13th precinct. I was on duty on the 10th these premises in West St. are in the 13th ward. I saw the prisoners about five minutes to three o'clock in the morning going down through Ridge St. I was standing on the corner of Delancey and Ridge Sts. talking to another officer. There was two walking ahead and one behind, and the one who was behind had a large bundle. I asked him what he had in the bundle? and he told me, "what you wipe your face on." I asked him what was that? and he said, "towels." "Where did you get them?" "I got them off my boss. I am taking them to his house." It was the boy Shinsky said this. While I was conversing with him the other two boys walked ahead, I did not stop them at all at the time, but I recognized them. I looked at them pretty close, it was right under the gas lamp. While I was talking to him I was tearing the bundle with my hand; he carried the bundle in his hand. The first thing my hand came in contact with was with some woolen gloves. I says, "That don't look much like towels," and the next thing was mits. I finally decided to take him to the station house and we examined the goods there. After he was locked up I came out on the other side of the street and saw the other two; as soon as they saw me they ran and I ran after them; one ran up an alley and the other one that was on the street I kept in sight and caught him after chasing two or three blocks. I gave him to another officer

0777

0778

while I went up the alley looking for the other one. The other officer searched him and found a large knife I saw the knife I did not see it found. I heard all the three talking going down but I could not tell what they said. I did not know where the goods had been taken from when I arrested the boy with the bundle, but I afterwards saw the property shown to the complainant at the Court and he identified it as his; it was the same property as was found in the bundle. I examined the premises of the complainant and found the glass of the show window broken - a window connected with the building. Cross Examined. I could not tell the exact time when the complainant came to the station house because I was at the Court with my prisoners. I saw him at Court. Sinsky did not state when he was arrested that he was on his way to work; he did not state that he had picked up those goods on East Broadway; he told me those goods were "crooked". He did not tell me he saw two boys running away with those goods. There were three boys in all; the other boy got away. I told the Sergeant I did not know whether Sinsky had stolen them or not. I took him out to take him to his boss' house, as he had said he was taking them to his boss' house and he said, "There is no use of your taking me any further, they are crooked." I brought him back.

Isaac Grossman recalled. I have seen these boys together many times in Hester St. they have snatched goods at my table outside and then I put them in the show case.

Frank Sinsky sworn and examined in his own behalf. I live corner of Henry and Governor Sts. and peddle lemons. I buy them at Hamburgers, corner of Washington St. and Park Place and sometimes get up at two o'clock in the morning. I was going there the morning I was arrested. I saw two young men running in East Broadway and somebody running after them. I saw them drop a bundle and I picked it up. I told the officer I was going to Hamburgers with the bundle. I did not tell him where I got it. I was never arrested before. and lived here since I was born with my parents. I did not tell the officer that the goods were crooked, but that two young men dropped the bundle and I picked it up. I have never been around the complainant's store. Smith was found "not guilty" and Sinsky "guilty".
