LOUIS HERMAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 67 McKibben Street, Brooklyn. On the 6th. of May 1892 I saw the defendant Dudley at about three o'clock in the afternoon in Pell Street near the Bowery. I also saw the complainant who was intoxicated standing in the middle of the street. I saw Murphy and Dudley pull the defendant around into Pell Street. Murphy was behind the man. They took him in Pell Street about three or four doors from the Bowery. I saw Murphy give the complainant a punch in the eye. When the man fell down I saw Murphy get hold of his watch and take it and put it in his pocket and walk across to the other side of the Bowery. I followed him. All this time Dudley was behind Murphy and had hold of the man. At the time Murphy took the watch Dudley was about three or four steps away. I afterwards saw Dudley pick up the man. I did not see Murphy say anything to Dudley at the time they were both there. I followed Murphy up to Broome Street near the Bowery when I saw an officer there to whom he told what occurred and he arrested Murphy.

Cross-examination:

I first saw this man Dudley in Pell Street near the Bowery. There was nobody with him but this man Johnson, the complainant, who was intoxicated. I did not see Dudley do anything to the man. It was Murphy who struck the man in the eye, knocked him down and took the things out of his pocket. I do not know what occurred when I left the place to follow Murphy. This occurred at about quarter of six o'clock in the evening. I was on an errand at the time this occurred. I did not say in the Police Court that this happened at half past five o'clock.

JOHN B. GNETTER, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at Bloomfield, New Jersey. On the 8th. of May 1892 I was in the City of New York looking for work. At about twenty minutes past six I saw the complainant Johnson coming down the Bowery. He was in company with Murphy, Dudley and another man. He was intoxicated. I saw Murphy get the complainant into a hallway of a liquor saloon. Afterwards they took him out of there and went into Pell Street near the Bowery. They took him into a hallway there and afterwards came out. Dudley and Murphy were in company. One of the boys who was with me went up to the hallway to see what they were doing, but he was chased away by Dudley. I saw Murphy while the complainant was in Pell Street put his hands in Johnson's pocket and take something out of them. Then he went away and one of the boys followed him. He was afterwards arrested. Dudley remained for a time in company with Johnson and was afterwards arrested. I did not notice Dudley take any more part in the robbery than simply to stand there. He was in company with these men at the time.

Cross-examination:

I work in a livery stable in Bloomfield, New Jersey. I had been out of work for about a month before this occurrence and came to New York nearly every day looking for work. I was walking up the Bowery when I happened to strike on these men and I watched them. I worked in Lyons' restaurant in the Bowery for a few days. That is the only place I have ever worked in New York. I am positive that I saw these men in company together. I did not see Dudley take anything from the complainant. All I saw him do was simply stand with the complainant before and after Murphy took the things out of his pocket. After Murphy took the things out of his pocket he went away and one of the boys followed him. I followed him myself as far as the corner.

HENRY BATZEL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live in Bloomfield, New Jersey. I have known the complainant Louis Johnson for about eight years. I also know John Gretter, the last witness, and have known him for about four years. I was in New York on the 6th. of May 1892. I saw Dudley and Johnson and Murphy on the Bowery near Pell Street. Gretter was with me. It was about six o'clock. We were walking up the Bowery and Gretter says to me: "There is a Bloomfield man", pointing to Johnson. I said: "Yes, that is the reason we watched him. When we got into the hallway

I went up to look for what they were doing and Dudley came up to me and gave me a kick and told me to go on about my own business. The complainant was under the influence of liquor. I saw Murphy go into his pockets and take his watch out of his pocket. Dudley was standing there at the time.

Cross-examination:

I do not know whether Mr. Johnson had his property at the time he got into Pell Street. I had not been with the defendant and did not know anything about it. I came over to New York that day in company with the witness Gretter. We were walking about the City looking for work.

JOHN FOLEY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 11th. Precinct. The defendant was brought to the Station House by another officer. I arrested the defendant Murphy at about half past six on information of a boy that he had robbed a drunken man on the corner of Pell Street and the Bowery. I searched Murphy and found a watch in his pocket. I took him to the Station House. I saw Dudley in the Station House on that night about 12 o'clock. He said that he was not one of the party.

DAVID W. BATH, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 11th. Precinct. I arrested the defendant on the Bowery on the night of the 6th. of May last. He was intoxicated. I arrested him because of his intoxication and locked him up in the Station House. Afterwards the complainant was brought into the Station House. This man was placed in line and one of the boys positively identified him as one of the men who was with the complainant on that afternoon.

Cross-examination:

I arrested this defendant at No. 9 Bowery. He was in a liquor store at the time I arrested him. He was not creating any great disturbance, but he was very much intoxicated.

LOUIS JOHNSON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live in Bloomfield, New Jersey. I was in this city on the 6th. of May 1892. I am the complainant in this case. I had a silver watch in my pocket on that day and some money. I remember going into a saloon in the Bowery, getting a drink and after that I remember nothing that occurred.

Cross-examination:

I am a painter and paper-hanger in Bloomfield, New Jersey. I came over here on the day in question to buy some paper and went to several houses in the City for the purpose of purchasing it.

DEFENSE:

EDWARD MURPHY, one of the defendants, sworn testified:

I live at No. 25 Bowery in this city. On the 6th. of May I was walking along the Bowery. Johnson came up and spoke to me and wanted me to go and take a drink. I went along with him, went into a shooting gallery, came out and took him back along the Bowery. When we got between Bayard and Delancey Streets he started to quarrel with me. He struck me and I struck him. Afterwards I got him into Pell Street and I took this watch out of his pocket. I struck him because he struck me. One of the boys who has testified here followed me to the corner of William Street and had me arrested by an officer. The defendant who is now on trial did not help me to rob the complainant. He was not with me, nor did he aid me to commit this crime on that day.

Cross-examination:

Murphy is my right name. I did not see Dudley on that day at all. I saw him the following morning when he was under arrest. I had no conversation with him about this case.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of robbery in the first degree as a second offense.

The People
vs Leroy DukeCourt of General Sessions Part I Before Judge Fitzgerald May 24, 1892
Indictment for attempt at grand larceny.

Ole Olsson, sworn and examined, testified. I live No. 658 East 134th street. I am dealing in real estate. I own the premises. I recollect the 28th of April. In the neighborhood of ten or eleven o'clock I was round the premises. I was looking after some business I had to do and I was out of the cellar for about ten minutes, and afterwards I went down again in the cellar and I found my private cellar and Mr. Tilford's private cellar broken open also. I looked into my cellar and found nobody there. I looked at the opposite side of my cellar and I saw Mr. Tilford's broken open. I got hold of the hasp and pulled the door open and I caught Leroy Duke in Mr. Tilford's private cellar standing by the trunk. I took him out of the cellar without saying a word to him except I says, "What are you doing, breaking open the cellar and trying to rob me." He said nothing until he got up on the sidewalk. I took him up on the sidewalk; he said he was footing. I took him from my premises up to 136th street and I gave him in charge of Officer Doyle of the 33rd precinct. I believe Mr. Tilford had a good many things in it. I do not know what he had because I did not look in the trunk at all. When I got back I went into the cellar again to Mr. Sifford's cellar, and I found a revolver and a cold chisel; a little while after the officer came also and he found a razor there, officer Dunn; he took charge of it. There were things lying around there which were taken out of the trunk I suppose he did not have a chance to take them; there was gloves, a coat and a handkerchief. Mr. Sifford said in Court that he owned the property. Mr. Sifford is here. I did not miss anything out of my cellar. What articles were in your cellar? I had tools, carpet, awnings, and materials which we use for a flat. The carpenter's tools, the carpet and the awning belonged to me. I valued all the property at about sixty dollars. How far was the defendant from the tools that you speak of at the time you arrested him? I should judge between two and three feet because it is divided up into private cellars, each family has a private cellar. There are eight families in the house beside myself. I had never seen the defendant before to my knowledge.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

Cross Examined This was the south east corner of 134th street. At that time had you been cleaning in the cellar? Yes. I was taking care of the property myself in the morning. I lost no property. When you arrested the defendant did he tell you he ran in there to hide? No, he did not, he did not say anything until he got up on the sidewalk, he said he was fooling. How long had you been out of the cellar before you came down again? I had not been out of the cellar over ten minutes. How many people are there besides you that have access to the cellar there in that house? There are ~~eight~~^{several} families in the house beside myself - there is a grocer man, he has a separate cellar. The front door leading into the cellar is always kept open, we open the door in the morning at half past six or seven o'clock. The defendant made no resistance when he was arrested. I did not ask him if he wanted to go, I took him right along. Then I turned him over to a policeman on 136th street and Ellis ave. There was none of my property taken away. The place was broken into, the staple was drawn out. When you were down there ten minutes before how was your door? It was all locked. That is the first time I ever saw the defendant there to my knowledge.

Caleb H. Telford sworn and examined testified.
Where are you living? I am living with my son now up in No 658, E. 132nd street. You know Mr. Olsson? Yes sir, I know him. I keep a wood house in his cellar. Do you recollect the morning of the 28th of April? I remember when it happened. Of course. When I came home my son's wife told me. What did you do, what did you find out? She told me the wood house and the trunk were broken open. I went down stairs quickly and I found the trunk burst open and some of the things gone. It was a trunk with a hasp on and the hasp was cut off. When had you seen the trunk before that? I seen it that morning. What was its condition then? It was in good condition; the trunk and the wood house.
I saw it early in the morning about seven o'clock. About what time did you get back?
Between five and six o'clock in the afternoon.
I saw then that the hasp was cut off and the lock broke. I could not tell what was gone, but I had a lot of jewelry and that was gone. I missed a pistol and a razor.
I had two jack knives and one was found.
I had two finger rings, three coral studs and three or four bosom studs. I estimate the value of the articles I missed was ten or fifteen dollars. The property in the trunk was worth from sixty to seventy five dollars. At the station house I saw a revolver, a cold chisel, a razor and a jack knife; they belonged to me and were in my trunk.

Dennis Doyle, sworn and examined. I am a police officer connected with the 23rd precinct of this city. I did not arrest the defendant. Mr. Olsson arrested him and fetched him to me. I first saw the defendant in 136th and Willis Avenue; then I took charge of him. Mr. Olsson told me in his presence where he caught him; he said he broke two cellars open and that he was missing stuff before. The defendant said that he and another boy was fooling and he run in the cellar from the other boy, he hit him on the head. I searched the defendant in the station house and found a pen knife on him. I saw no revolver or razor in the station house. The defendant said that the knife was not his; he told me he got the knife there. It was an old knife, and I think there was one blade broken.

Charles A. Rosenthal, sworn and examined for the defence testified. I am in the real estate business and also keep a cigar store at 2009 Third Avenue near 110th St. I am acquainted with the defendant and he has been in my employ very nearly two months in your capacity as real estate man were you required to be absent from the office considerably? Very nearly every day. Did you have money and property there that he could steal? He could take the income of the store. During all that time did he turn in the proceeds? Yes. How did he come to leave you? Business got to be a little poor and I let him go. Are you familiar with his general reputation for honesty? I can only speak of him during the time that I employed him - further than that I do not know anything at all about him. I found him to be very attentive to his duties and honest. Is it not a fact that you tried to get him to come back to your store since that time? I tried about three weeks after that. Frederick St. Johnson sworn. Have you ever been in trouble before? No sir. How old are you? Seventeen. Where have you been living? No. 200 East 109th street with my people. Is your mother in Court today? Yes sir. After I left Mr. Rosenthal I was out of a job. Tell the jury what happened the morning or which you were arrested from the time you left the house until you were arrested in the cellar? I started out at half past eight in the morning to try to get some work and I went up Third avenue and at 117th street I met a friend and he proposed for us to go up to 144th street and Brook Ave; that there was a silk mill up there, and I went up with him. There was a man up there told us to come up Monday morning, that he only employed people on Monday. To all the way down we were fooling, and at 135th street I hit his hat and ran to 134th street, and when I seen Mr. Olsson's cellar open I dodged in there and closed the door. Then Mr. Olsson came down and he grabbed me and asked me what I was doing down there? I says that I was fooling, and that I went in to hide from a boy. He said he was going to have me arrested and he had me arrested, and when I came to Court that afternoon they had a lot of things there and said I was trying to steal them. I told them, no, I was not trying to steal anything. I did not touch any thing in that cellar. I just got inside when Mr. Olsson came down. I made no resistance to him. When I was arrested I gave the name of Leroy Duke because I went by that name when I was in the Navy. I came out of the Navy last Nov. I did not enter the Navy with my father's consent and that is the reason why I gave that name I was in the Navy about five months and was honorably discharged for legal shipment. I enlisted under age. The name of the friend who played with me is Weiss, he is nowhere. I don't know where he lives. I knew him from seeing him in a pool room in 117th street.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

0096

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

0097

POOR QUALITY

Cross Examined. I was an apprentice boy in the Navy on the ship Jamestown. I worked for Mr. Rosenthal. I left his place about two months ago and since that time I have been out of work; my parents supported me. My father works in the Metropolitan Telephone Co. I was looking for work the day I was arrested. I had the promise of it on the following Monday. Sarah Johnson, sworn and examined. I am the mother of the defendant; he has always lived at home - up to the time of his going into the Navy and after he came back; we secured his discharge from the Navy; he has always been a good boy; he has never been in trouble before. I have made efforts to get the boy Weiss. I enquired around among the people but I could not find him.

The jury rendered a verdict of acquittal of an attempt at petty larceny with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court.
